Help in Tornado Relief Efforts by Visiting: www.rebuildjoplin.org

One weekend in May forever altered the landscapes of the Joplin, Mo., and Reading, Kan., communities. Two separate storms ripped through the cities, sending tornados on ravaging paths that killed more than 150 people, injured many more, destroyed thousands of homes, shuttered businesses and sent the citizens of both communities down a long road of recovery and rebuilding.

Since that weekend, hundreds of thousands of volunteer hours have been logged and the community efforts have turned from search and rescue to recovery and rebuilding. Families are moving back into homes, businesses are reopening and slowly, the cities of Joplin and Reading are getting back on their feet.

In the time since the disasters, the Chiefs helped organize a bottled-water drive and money collection to help our neighbors affected by the storms. The people of Kansas City answered the call as more than 187,000 bottles of water filled more than six semitrailers and more than $55,000 was raised for Heart-to-Heart International to use for disaster relief.

On June 23, 136 members of the Chiefs organization – players, coaches and front office personnel – traveled to Joplin for a day of volunteering. In the morning, members of the Chiefs organization worked with AmeriCorps to clear debris from affected residences. In the afternoon, players and coaches signed autographs for thousands of people while kids were able to play on inflatables. Special shirts and hats like those worn by members of the Chiefs organization in Joplin are available in the Chiefs Team Store at Arrowhead Stadium and at the Chiefs Pro Shop online at www.kcchiefs.com with all net proceeds from the sales going directly to disaster-relief efforts.

On the cover of the 2011 Chiefs Media Guide are photos of the club's tornado-relief trip to Joplin. In the center, a photo of the sign outside of Joplin High School, duct tape letters now provide the message of 'Hope' for all to see, symbolizing the passion and determination of those affected by the tragedy. Flanking the sign, members of the Chiefs organization assist in the cleanup effort.

When you look at this media guide, we ask you to keep the people of Joplin, Mo. and Reading, Kan. in your thoughts, prayers, hearts and minds. It is easy to quickly forget about the events of that weekend. The truth is it will take years to get those communities rebuilt to the state they were in the moment before those storms hit. Use this media guide as a story idea, use it to bring awareness to the people affected, and use it to provide information on how others can continue to help. We stand committed to making sure that the people of Joplin and Reading are never forgotten, and we ask you to do the same.

Division Titles

The National Football League and the American sports community lost a true treasure on December 13, 2006 when Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt passed away in Dallas, Texas at the age of 74.

Hunt was originally diagnosed with prostate cancer in '98 and quietly underwent many treatments and surgeries over the next eight years. He maintained his active schedule until entering the hospital for the final time on November 22, 2006. He is survived by his wife, Norma and their four children, Lamar, Jr., Sharron Munson, Clark and Daniel. He was also the proud grandfather of 14 grandchildren.

Hunt is universally recognized as one of the greatest sportsmen in American history. No one would have savored the 50th anniversary celebrations for the American Football League and the Chiefs franchise in 2009 more than Hunt, the individual who served as the guiding force behind the formation of both football entities.

Hunt served as a positive influence on the game for 47 years dating back to his inception of the American Football League in '59. He was the first AFL figure to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '72, a remarkable feat considering he became involved in the game just 13 years earlier.

As the catalyst who brought together the whimsically-named "Foolish Club" comprised of the eight original AFL owners, Hunt's "impossible dream" became a reality when his fledgling league took the field for the '60 season. On June 8, 1966, the AFL-NFL merger was announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, and on January 15, 1967, Hunt's Kansas City Chiefs were participating in the inaugural Super Bowl.

"Before there was a player, coach or a general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," late Patriots owner William Sullivan remarked at Hunt's Hall of Fame induction ceremony. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL."

Despite his many accomplishments, Hunt's humility was one of his most unwavering and endearing traits. While he modestly declined to take credit for his efforts, he truly played an important role in the design, ongoing development and direction of the modern-day National Football League.

Whether it was serving as the central figure behind the formation of the AFL, playing a key role in the AFL-NFL merger talks in the '60s, or overseeing many crucial issues concerning pro football and the Chiefs franchise over five decades, few individuals helped change the face of America's favorite game for the better as much as this quiet Texan.

In addition to being a principal negotiator in the merger of the AFL and NFL in the late '60s, he was a contributor to the design of the NFL playoff format. He is also credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game — the name coming from his children's toy "Super Ball." It was Hunt who not only recommended enumerating each Super Bowl with Roman numerals, but also suggested that the league's iconic championship trophy bear the name of Vince Lombardi.

For years, he was an advocate of the two-point conversion — a college and AFL rule that was finally adopted by the NFL in '94. Hunt had also lobbied for many years that an additional Thanksgiving game be added to the NFL schedule, efforts that were rewarded when the Chiefs hosted the first-ever Thanksgiving contest at Arrowhead in 2006.

Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt holds for his son, future Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt.

When the New Arrowhead officially opened in 2010, Hunt's legacy was honored in Founder's Plaza, an expansive outdoor area that forms a dramatic entrance to the north side of the facility. A nine-foot heroic statue of Hunt stands as a tribute to the Chiefs late founder. In addition, eight fountains for the original eight AFL franchises symbolize Lamar's innovation and dedication to growing the game of football.

Perhaps Hunt's biggest influence on the league was his quiet, yet persuasive voice of reason. Hunt's name is rightfully mentioned alongside other legendary family surnames in pro football history such as Halas, Mara and Rooney for his commitment to putting the betterment of the league ahead of any potential individual gain. His AFL model for the equal sharing of television revenue has helped maintain competitive balance in the NFL for many years.

As the founder of the AFL, he helped pave the way for much of the modern growth of pro football. Possibly the greatest tribute to his contributions to the sport was the naming of the Lamar Hunt Trophy, which is presented annually to the champion of the American Football Conference.

The early days of the AFL were problem-filled and often tenuous, but Hunt saw his Dallas Texans achieve on-field success. In '62, the Texans won the AFL Championship with a double-OT victory over the Houston Oilers, the first of three titles won by his franchise during the league's 10-year existence.

Hunt moved his team to Kansas City in '63, where the organization was renamed the Chiefs. His team truly put Kansas City on the "big-league" map, thanks to a star-studded squad that was the winningest in the 10-year history of the AFL. The Chiefs were among the first teams to scout and sign players from historically black colleges and universities, a progressive approach that yielded key performers such as DT Buck Buchanan, LB Willie Lanier, WR Otis Taylor and CB Emmitt Thomas.

Hunt's team repeated as league champions in both '66 and '69. The Chiefs claimed Kansas City's first major sports championship by defeating Minnesota in Super Bowl IV. In the late '60s, Hunt was closely involved in the original plans for Arrowhead. While other venues of a similar vintage have long since been demolished, Arrowhead serves as a point of pride for Kansas City.

Thanks in large part to the vision and lobbying efforts of Hunt, Jackson County (Missouri) voters approved a 3/8 cent sales tax in April of 2006. That measure raised $250 million for renovation efforts at Arrowhead. Hunt's longtime dream of hosting a Super Bowl in Kansas City appeared to become a reality when NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue announced on November 16, 2005 that NFL owners had passed a proposal to bring the NFL's championship game to Kansas City in February of 2015.

Unfortunately, a provision in the April 2006 election that would have resurrected the "rolling roof" concept for Arrowhead Stadium did not pass. The "rolling roof" was part of Hunt's initial vision for Arrowhead in the '60s. In its 21st century incarnation, the "rolling roof" would have provided a climate-controlled facility suitable for hosting the Super Bowl, the Final Four and other major events.

Hunt also worked diligently to bring college football to Kansas City. Arrowhead hosted the Dr Pepper Big 12 Conference Championship Game for the fifth time in 2008. In addition to numerous other college football games, Arrowhead also served as a venue for international soccer matches thanks to Hunt.

During the '90s, Hunt took great pride in his franchise's on-field resurgence as Kansas City compiled a 102-58 (.638) regular season record. Under Hunt's stewardship, the Chiefs developed an intensely-loyal fan following, not just in mid-America, but across the country and around the globe. Kansas City represented the NFL in four American Bowl contests — Berlin, Germany ('90), Tokyo, Japan ('94, '98) and Monterrey, Mexico ('96).

Nicknamed "Games" during his childhood, Hunt's love of sports was his true lifeblood, an enthusiasm which led to his involvement in six different professional sports leagues and seven sports franchises. Hunt was involved in the development of both NASL and World Championship Tennis.

Hunt was inducted into the respective Halls of Fame of both United States Soccer ('82) and International Tennis ('93). He was also honored by the state Sports Halls of Fame of both Texas ('84) and Missouri ('95). In total, Hunt has been selected to 11 "Halls of Fame." In 2008, Hunt's bust was added to the "Hall of Famous Missourians" at the state capitol in Jefferson City, Missouri.

In '81, Hunt was inducted into the NFL Alumni Association's prestigious Order of the Leather Helmet. He also received the Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award from the Maxwell Club in '93.

In August of 2009, the Lamar Hunt Super Bowl Gallery officially opened at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. This 4,000-square foot exhibit showcases the greatest moments in Super Bowl history, and is appropriately named after the individual who gave the world's biggest single-game sporting spectacle its current moniker.

In October of 2009, the Missouri DOT officially designated a stretch of I-435 near the Truman Sports Complex as the "Lamar Hunt Memorial Highway."

Truly a sportsman for all seasons, Soccer America Magazine named Hunt one of its "25 Most Influential People" in '99 after the 95-year-old U.S. Open Cup was renamed the "Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup." That same year he also received the U.S. Soccer Federation Hall of Fame Medal of Honor, joining former U.S. Soccer President Alan Rothenberg as the only other individual to earn that prestigious distinction. In 2005, the U.S. Soccer Foundation honored Hunt with its Lifetime Achievement Award.

The Hunt family served as the Investor/Operators of the Kansas City Wizards (Sporting KC) franchise of Major League Soccer from '95-06 and claimed the 2000 MLS Cup. The Hunt family still oversees the operations of two MLS franchises, F.C. Dallas and the Columbus Crew.

Hunt was also one of the founding investors in the six-time World Champion Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association. In total, the Hunt family owns 15 championship rings from five different professional sports associations (AFL/NFL, MLS, NBA, NASL and the U.S. Soccer "Open Cup").

A highly-successful businessman outside of sports, one of Hunt's most notable innovations was SubTropolis, the world's largest underground business complex, located just north of Arrowhead. Hunt also envisioned and developed Worlds of Fun, a 165-acre family entertainment complex which opened in '73, as well as the 60-acre family water recreation park, Oceans of Fun, which was completed in '82. While both of those entities were sold in '95, Hunt Midwest Enterprises continues to oversee a diverse range of business interests.

Hunt was born on August 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Arkansas and graduated from SMU with a B.S. in Geology in '56. While at SMU, he was a three-year reserve end on the varsity football team. Hunt was an avid supporter of his alma mater and was an annual fixture at the Cotton Bowl. In May of 2008, he was posthumously inducted as one of four inaugural members of the SMU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Hunt's wife, Norma, continues to be involved in numerous philanthropic and civic efforts in Texas and in Kansas City. She owns the distinction of being the only woman known to have attended all 45 Super Bowls, and was selected to preside over the coin toss at Super Bowl XLI along with Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino.

Clark Hunt has been involved in the leadership of the Kansas City Chiefs for more than a decade and currently serves as the club's chairman and CEO.

Entering the 2011 season, Hunt is overseeing one of the most dramatic periods of change in the 52-year history of the Chiefs. From ushering in a new era of leadership for the franchise to directing the expansion and renovation of Arrowhead Stadium, Hunt's steady and decisive influence provides a clear direction for the organization and reinforces his family's longtime commitment to Chiefs fans.

Hunt's proven business acumen, coupled with two decades of experience working side-by-side with one of America's sports pioneers, his father and Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, helped shape his vision for the storied franchise.

"Our fans are the lifeblood of the Chiefs, and our goal is to provide them with the best game-day experience in the National Football League and a team that can consistently compete for championships," Hunt said.

To meet that goal, Hunt and his family committed $125 million to the creation of the New Arrowhead Stadium – an extensive modernization project that will keep Kansas City "The Home of the Chiefs" for decades to come. The $375-million renovation provides Chiefs fans with the first-class amenities of the finest sports venues in the world while maintaining the distinct soul and mystique that makes Arrowhead one of the most iconic stadiums in the NFL.

Over the last several years, Hunt has emerged as a leading voice among NFL owners. Hunt was one of 10 NFL owners charged by Commissioner Roger Goodell with negotiating the NFL's new Collective Bargaining Agreement which was completed in 2011. Commissioner Goodell praised Hunt's ability to find "creative compromises" throughout the process and for his leadership in the negotiations.

"[Clark] had a critical role in getting [the] agreement completed and getting us back to football," Commissioner Goodell said in August 2011. "He is very credible, very smart, and has a very strong ability to listen and find solutions. He was very effective with both sides. The players clearly expressed that to me and the owners have expressed that to me. He has obviously not only my respect, but obviously the respect of everyone involved in the negotiations."

In 2006, Hunt was asked to serve on the eight-member Commissioner Search Committee which recommended a successor to Paul Tagliabue. In 2007, Commissioner Goodell appointed Hunt to the NFL's Digital Media and International Committees, as well as the Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council.

The Dallas, Texas native is also a founding investor-operator in Major League Soccer. Hunt serves as Chairman of Hunt Sports Group, the parent company that oversees the operations of both the F.C. Dallas and Columbus Crew franchises. Hunt is actively involved in the continued growth of MLS and is one of four members of the MLS Board of Governors appointed to Commissioner Don Garber's Executive Committee.

Since 2000, Hunt Sports Group has celebrated eight championships with three different MLS clubs, including the 2000 (Kansas City) and 2008 (Columbus) MLS Cup championships. Hunt Sports Group clubs also claimed the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup in 2002 (Columbus) and 2004 (Kansas City), and earned the MLS Supporters' Shield – awarded to the MLS club with the best regular-season record – four times.

In addition to the success on the pitch, Hunt Sports Group has also been at the forefront of stadium development in the United States. In 1999, the Hunt family constructed Crew Stadium in Columbus, Ohio – the first soccer-specific stadium in the United States. In 2005, Hunt Sports Group opened Pizza Hut Park in Frisco, Texas, which is widely regarded as one of the world's most unique soccer facilities and a model for soccer-specific stadiums in North America.

Hunt graduated first in his class at Southern Methodist University in '87, earning a degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance. He was a two-time recipient of the university's highest academic honor, the Provost Award for Outstanding Scholar. During his career he was a four-year letterman on the Mustangs nationally-ranked soccer team, earning first-team Academic All-America honors as a junior and senior and serving as a tri-captain his final season. He was named one of the SMU Cox School of Business Outstanding Young Alumni in 2004 and in 2005 he was appointed to the Cox School Executive Board of Trustees. Hunt currently serves on the SMU Board of Trustees.

Scott Pioli
General Manager

- 20th NFL Season
- 3rd with Chiefs

Super Bowls: 01, 03, 04

Conference Titles: 01, 03, 04, 07

Division Titles: 98, 01, 03, 04, 05, 06, 07, 10

Scott Pioli was named the fifth General Manager in Kansas City Chiefs history by Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt on January 13, 2009. Regarded as one of the league's brightest player personnel evaluators, Pioli has justifiably earned a reputation as one of the NFL's top executives. He enters his third season with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2011.

He joined the Chiefs after serving as the Vice President of Player Personnel with the Patriots. During his nine-year tenure in New England (2000-08), the Patriots compiled an NFL-best 102-42 (.708) regular season record, won Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX, claimed the Lamar Hunt Trophy four times as the AFC champion and won six AFC East titles.

A five-time winner of NFL Executive of the Year honors from national media outlets, Pioli has final authority over all football operations in Kansas City and reports directly to Hunt.

In only his second season with the Chiefs, the club orchestrated the franchise's greatest single-season turnaround and earned the AFC West Division crown with a 10-6 record. It was Kansas City's first division title and home playoff appearance since the club's 2003 campaign.

During his nine-year run with New England, the Patriots became widely recognized as one of the NFL's model franchises. Working in close concert with Head Coach Bill Belichick, the duo rapidly developed the Patriots into a consistent championship contender. Pioli has embraced the challenge of developing and implementing a comprehensive plan to return the Chiefs to national prominence.

"My job is not to collect talent, it's to build a team," Pioli said upon his arrival in Kansas City. "Individuals make Pro Bowls, teams win championships. That's our goal here. Win championships, win football games — to build this team with the right kind of people, with the right kind of players, to consistently compete for championships."

Pioli and Belichick's collaborative efforts over nine seasons in New England resulted in 14 playoff victories, tying the Pittsburgh and Dallas squads of the '70s for the most playoff wins by a franchise in a single decade. New England accumulated 11 playoff victories from 2003-07, the highest total by any team over a five-year span in NFL history.

Pioli and Belichick became the first personnel director/head coach tandem in league annals to win three Super Bowls during a four-year span (2001-04). They also helped the Patriots register nine or more victories in eight consecutive seasons, including the NFL's first 16-0 regular season in 2007.

The depth and versatility of New England's roster compiled by Pioli were key components to the Patriots success in recent seasons. In 2003, the Patriots won Super Bowl XXXVIII despite using 42 different starters, a league record for a Super Bowl champion. In 2004, the Patriots employed 40 different starters as they won their second-consecutive Super Bowl. In 2005, the Patriots set a post-merger league record for a division champion by utilizing 45 different starters. In 2006, New England won its fourth-straight AFC East title while using 39 different starters.

Under Pioli's direction, the Patriots used an effective combination of draft picks, free agent signings, trades and waiver claims to continually upgrade their roster. He has utilized a similar methodology to improve the Chiefs talent since his arrival in Kansas City.

Pioli's list of draft successes in New England was headlined by six-time Pro Bowl QB Tom Brady (D6b-00), who has twice earned Super Bowl MVP honors and was named the NFL's MVP in 2007.

He enters his 20th NFL campaign in 2011. Prior to his seven-year stint as New England's Vice President of Player Personnel (2002-08), he held the titles of Director of Player Personnel (2001) and Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2000) for the Patriots.

Pioli began his NFL career when Belichick hired him as a Scouting Assistant for the Browns in '92. He then served as Pro Personnel Assistant from '93-95, where he was responsible for the evaluation of both college prospects and veteran free agents, as well as negotiating various player contracts. He was promoted to Pro Personnel Coordinator after the franchise moved to Baltimore in '96.

In '97, he was hired by the N.Y. Jets as Director of Pro Personnel. He was credited with the signing of a number of veteran free agents who played critical roles in the Jets rebuilding process. In just two seasons working with Head Coach Bill Parcells, the Jets completed a worst-to-first turnaround, rebounding from 1-15 in '96 to 12-4 in '98. Those 12 wins in '98 were the most in franchise history and gave the Jets their first division title since '68.

Pioli played defensive tackle at Central Connecticut State ('83-87), where he was a three-time Division II All-New England selection. In '88, after graduating with a degree in Communications, he served as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University, where he also earned a master's degree from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications.

He accepted a full-time coaching opportunity at Murray State, where he spent one season as the offensive line coach ('90) and one season as the defensive line coach ('91). He left the coaching ranks to join the Browns personnel department in '92.

He serves on the NFL's General Managers Advisory Committee that provides advice and counsel to the NFL Football Operations department on the integrity of the game and gives feedback on possible areas for improvement. Pioli is also a member of the NFL's CEC Executive Working Group, a subcommittee of the Management Council Executive Committee.

Pioli sits on the board of directors for the College for Every Student Foundation, a national non-profit organization that partners with public schools in high-need communities to raise student aspirations and performance, an initiative he has brought to Kansas City Public Schools. He also created a scholarship at Central Connecticut State University for graduates of the College for Every Student program. He remains involved in fundraising for several organizations in his hometown of Washingtonville, New York and at his alma mater of Central Connecticut State, where he was enshrined in that school's Hall of Fame in 2005. Recently, Pioli was named to the board of directors for the Kansas City Repertory Theatre and also holds a seat on the board of directors for the Kansas City Crime Commission.

Pioli was born on March 31, 1965. He and his wife, Dallas, have a daughter, Mia Costa Pioli. Along with other members of the Chiefs, the Pioli family participated in Operation Blessing, an effort that annually provides food to over 3,000 local families. The Piolis have also assisted Harvesters in their mission to alleviate hunger in Kansas City.

The Piolis have embraced the thriving local arts scene and are enthusiastic supporters of the Nelson-Atkins Mueseum of Art and the Kansas City Repertory Theatre. They are also benefactors of the Charlotte Street Foundation, an organization that supports and recognizes outstanding artists and their contributions to Greater Kansas City.

Todd Haley

Head Coach

- 17th NFL Season

- 15th Year NFL Coach
- 3rd with Chiefs

Division Titles

Todd Haley enters his third season as head coach of the Chiefs in 2011. Haley was named to that post by Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt and General Manager Scott Pioli on Feb. 6, 2009.

The second-youngest head coach in franchise history at 44 years old, Haley consistently pushes his players with a passionate and demanding approach.

"Todd is an excellent teacher, a strong leader and a good motivator. He has a proven track record of success in building and coaching winning teams," Hunt said upon Haley's arrival.

Haley enters his 17th season in the NFL in 2011 and his 15th campaign as a coach in the league after beginning his pro career as a scouting assistant with the N.Y. Jets in '95. Haley is one of five current NFL head coaches who at one time served as an assistant under Bill Parcells, working six seasons with the highly-respected coach with the N.Y. Jets ('97-99) and Dallas (2004-06).

Haley's NFL coaching career includes stops in Arizona (2007-08), Dallas (2004-06), Chicago (2001-03) and the N.Y. Jets ('97-00), earning playoff berths with all four of those franchises.

Haley pairs with General Manager Scott Pioli to give the Chiefs organization a highly-motivated, like-minded leadership tandem focused on building Kansas City into a franchise that can consistently compete for championships.

Clearly, Haley and Pioli are a duo familiar with returning organizations to pro football prominence. Haley served on the coaching staff, while Pioli was the director of pro personnel for a N.Y. Jets franchise that reached the '98 AFC Championship Game after finishing 1-15 in '96.

"One of Todd's unique qualifications is the fact that he's served with a number of different organizations, four in particular that have turned their franchises around," Pioli said. "We have a shared vision of what it takes to build a successful franchise in the National Football League."

In Haley's second season as head coach, the Chiefs completed the greatest single-season turnaround in franchise history. Kansas City added six more victories to the win column than in 2009 and earned the club's first AFC West Division crown since 2003 with a 10-6 record. The 2010 Chiefs reached the postseason for the first time since 2006 and hosted their first playoff game at Arrowhead since the 2003 season. Following the club's highest win total since 2005, Haley was named the 101 AFC Coach of the Year voted on by national media members. Haley also earned the NFL Alumni Coach of the Year voted on by former players and coaches.

In Haley's well-balanced offense, the Chiefs earned the NFL's rushing title, racking up 2,627 yards on 556 carries (164.2 ypg) after finishing 11th in rushing a year ago and posted 27 TD passes, tying for the seventh-highest total in franchise history. Haley's guidance helped five Chiefs earn spots on the 2011 Pro Bowl roster. On the other side of the ball, the Chiefs defense allowed a stout 20.4 points per game and forced 23 takeaways helping the club finish +9 in turnover differential. The Chiefs defense gave up only 34 TD drives on the season, 12th best in the NFL after finishing 24th in that category in 2009.

In Haley's first season with the club, the Chiefs made significant progress in all three phases of the game and improved in 30 different statistical categories, laying the foundation for a bright future.

Haley joined the Chiefs after a two-year stint as offensive coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals (2007-08).

During his tenure with the Cardinals, he helped revitalize a franchise that hadn't reached the NFL title game since '47. In just his second season in Arizona, the Cardinals enjoyed a remarkable renaissance, winning the club's first division title since '75. Arizona enjoyed a sensational postseason run, reaching Super Bowl XLIII.

Haley's offensive unit in Arizona featured a trio of Pro Bowl performers in 2008 including QB Kurt Warner who led all NFC passers and established single-season franchise records with a 96.9 rating and 30 TD passes. WR Larry Fitzgerald led all NFC receivers with 96 catches for 1,431 yards with 12 TDs. Fitzgerald, along with WRs Anquan Boldin and Steve Breaston recorded 1,000-yard seasons, making the Cardinals just the fifth team in NFL history to boast three 1,000-yard receivers in a season.

Under Haley's guidance, Arizona's offense was one of the league's most explosive units in 2008. Arizona tied for third in the league, registering a franchise-record 427 points (26.7 ppg). The Cardinals were fourth in total offense, averaging 365.8 yards per game and finished second in the league in passing offense (292.1 ypg).

Prior to his time in Arizona, Haley served three seasons as passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach for Dallas (2004-06). In 2006, the Cowboys offense ranked fourth in the NFL in passing (239.8 ypg) as QB Tony Romo became a Pro Bowl performer. Dallas' passing game boasted a pair of 1,000-yard pass catchers in WRs Terrell Owens and Terry Glenn. In 2005, Glenn averaged 18.3 yards per catch to tie for the NFL lead and posted 1,136 receiving yards, the first 1,000-yard campaign by a member of the Cowboys since '99.

Haley joined the Cowboys after a three-year stint as wide receivers coach for Chicago (2001-03). In 2001, the Bears went 13-3 and won the NFC Central for the first time since '90 as WR Marty Booker set a single-season franchise record with 100 catches. In 2002 Booker became just the second player in club history to post back-to-back 1,000-yard campaigns, becoming Chicago's first Pro Bowl wide receiver since '71.

His initial NFL experience came as a member of the N.Y. Jets ('95-00), where he served as the club's wide receivers coach from '99-00. In his first season in that capacity, he helped WR Keyshawn Johnson earn his second-straight Pro Bowl berth as he registered 89 receptions for 1,170 yards and caught eight TDs in '99.

In addition to developing a lasting relationship with Pioli during his tenure with the Jets, seven current Kansas City assistant coaches were associated with that team during Haley's tenure. Haley worked as an offensive assistant/quality control coach for the Jets from '97-98. Current Chiefs Defensive Coordinator Romeo Crennel was also a member of Head Coach Bill Parcells' staff along with Chiefs Offensive Coordinator/Offensive Line Coach Bill Muir and Assistant Head Coach Maurice Carthon. Assistant coaches Richie Anderson, Bernie Parmalee, Anthony Pleasant and Otis Smith all played on that squad.

Haley began his NFL career as an assistant in the Jets scouting department in '95, where he scouted regionally and assisted in player evaluations.

HALEY'S FOUR DIVISION TITLES

Head Coach Todd Haley has won four division titles with four different clubs during his tenure as an NFL coach and qualified for the playoffs with five different teams. Below is a list of Haley's division titles.

Born on February 28, 1967 in Atlanta, Georgia, Haley attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where he was a multi-sport standout. He was a member of the golf squads at the University of Florida and the University of Miami, and participated in the NCAA golf tournament during his time with the Gators.

Haley earned a degree in communications from the University of North Florida in '91. He was the recipient of the university's 2009 Distinguished Alumni Achievement Award. The award is the most prestigious honor a UNF graduate can receive from the University of North Florida Alumni Association.

The Haley family is involved in numerous philanthropic efforts and organizations including The Children's Place, Heartland Habitat for Humanity and Harvester's. Haley and his wife, Chrissy, have four daughters: Taylor, Peyton, Kady and Ella, and one son, Richard Todd, Jr.

THE HALEYS – A FOOTBALL FAMILY

Dick and Todd Haley

Chiefs Head Coach Todd Haley is the son of Dick Haley, who spent 44 seasons in the NFL. After enjoying stints as the director of player personnel for Pittsburgh ('71-90) and the N.Y. Jets ('91-02), Dick Haley served as a personnel consultant for the Jets (2003-07) and as a player personnel analyst for Miami (2008-2009).

One of the architects of the great Steelers teams of the '70s, Haley's '74 draft class with Pittsburgh featured four Hall of Famers – LB Jack Lambert, WRs John Stallworth and Lynn Swann as well as C Mike Webster. Haley also selected Hall of Fame LB Jack Ham in '71 and tabbed Hall of Fame RB Franco Harris in '72, forming the nucleus of a team that would claim four Super Bowl crowns over a six-year span from '74-79. Dick Haley (right) was a standout halfback at the University of Pittsburgh and spent six seasons playing cornerback in the NFL with Washington ('59-60), Minnesota ('61) and Pittsburgh ('61-64).

Todd Haley spent his formative years in Pittsburgh, immersed in football with his father and the Steelers organization. A former waterboy and ballboy for the Steelers, his gameday task was hauling film cannisters to the film crew's "crow's nest" atop Three Rivers Stadium. Haley spent many summers as a youth at training camp with the club and frequently watched film alongside his father in their Pittsburgh home. In attendance for many of the greatest games in Steelers history, he later served as a member of the Steelers chain gain on game days during his teenage years.

Owning a longstanding relationship with Head Coach Todd Haley, Carthon and Haley have coached together with four different NFL clubs, including the Chiefs. In addition to his duties assisting Haley, Carthon will work closely with the club's running backs.

Possessing five seasons of experience as an NFL offensive coordinator, Carthon also owns 11 years of pro experience as a running back. Along with Haley, Carthon was part of an Arizona staff that helped guide the Cardinals to a berth in Super Bowl XLIII.

Carthon has been a member of four Super Bowl squads as either a player or a coach, including wins in Super Bowls XXI and XXV as a member of the N.Y. Giants. In his 27 previous seasons in pro football, Carthon has either blocked for or coached running backs who enjoyed a 1,000-yard season on 18 different occasions.

The Chiefs rushing attack averaged an NFL-high 164.2 rushing yards per game in 2010, including 182.9 ypg at home. RB Jamaal Charles led the league by averaging 6.38 yards per carry and finished second with 1,467 yards. In his first season with the Chiefs, Carthon was instrumental in the rapid development of Charles. Thanks in large part to Charles, the Chiefs averaged 142.6 rushing yards per game the final eight contests of 2009.

In 2008, Carthon played a key role in the emergence of Cardinals RB Tim Hightower, who set a franchise rookie record with 10 rushing TDs. In 2007, Carthon helped RB Edgerrin James record the seventh 1,000-yard campaign of his career.

Carthon served as offensive coordinator in Cleveland (2005-06). In 2005, RB Reuben Droughns became the Browns first 1,000-yard rusher since '85. He spent two seasons with Dallas (2003-04), where he served as offensive coordinator/running backs coach on Bill Parcells' staff.

The Arkansas State product began his NFL career on Parcells' staff in New England ('94-96). In '95, Martin was the lone NFL rookie to earn a Pro Bowl berth after accumulating 1,487 rushing yards and 14 TDs. In '96, Carthon helped the Patriots earn their first division crown in a decade as New England advanced to Super Bowl XXXI.

Romeo Crennel enters his second season as the Chiefs defensive coordinator in 2011. He begins his 30th year in the NFL ranks and his 41st season in the coaching profession. He came to Kansas City after a four-year stint as the head coach of the Cleveland Browns (2005-08). He also served as the head coach of the East squad in the 2010 East-West Shrine Game.

During Crennel's first season in Kansas City, the Chiefs defense only permitted 14.8 points per game at home, the third-lowest total in the NFL. Kansas City held its first four opponents to less than 20 points for the first time since '96. LB Tamba Hali finished the 2010 campaign second in the NFL with a career-high 14.5 sacks (-91.5 yards), a mark that tied for the fourth-highest single-season tally in team history.

In 2007, Crennel led Cleveland to a 10-6 record, the club's best mark since finishing 11-5 in '94. The Browns won a franchise-record seven consecutive home games in 2007 as six players were selected to the Pro Bowl. Crennel concluded his tenure in Cleveland with a 24-40 record.

Crennel resumes his familiar role as a defensive coordinator after serving four seasons in that capacity with New England (2001-04), where he helped the Patriots win three Super Bowl titles. In total, Crennel owns five Super Bowl rings, has made six Super Bowl appearances and has been a member of teams that have reached the conference championship game on seven occasions.

During his four seasons in New England the Patriots registered a 48-16 (.750) regular season record and a 9-0 postseason mark. The Patriots registered 89 INTs during his tenure, the second-highest total over that span behind only Tampa Bay (95). Crennel's defensive unit also returned an NFL-high 14 INTs for TDs from 2001-04.

In 2004, the Patriots defense tied for second in the NFL, allowing only 16.3 ppg. Crennel's unit ranked third with 45.0 sacks, sixth against the run (98.3 ypg) and ninth in total defense (310.8). The Patriots allowed a mere 45 rushing yards in their Super Bowl XXXIX victory vs. Philadelphia.

Crennel was named the NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by Pro Football Writers of America following the 2003 season. He led a defensive unit that allowed a league-low 14.9 ppg, the best single-season mark in team history. Remarkably, the Patriots defense did not allow an opponent to score a TD on 62 consecutive possessions over a five-game home span. New England led the league with 29 interceptions and six defensive TDs in the regular season, as the Patriots marched to an eventual win vs. Carolina in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

The Patriots ranked sixth in the NFL in 2001, surrendering just 17.0 points per game. During a five-game winning streak to conclude the regular season, New England allowed only one TD and seven field goals. St. Louis averaged an NFL-high 31.4 points per game in 2001, but Crennel's unit limited the Rams to just 17 points in New England's Super Bowl XXXVI victory.

Prior to a one-year stint as Cleveland's defensive coordinator/defensive line coach in 2000, Crennel spent three seasons as the defensive line coach with the N.Y. Jets ('97-99). It was there that Crennel began his association with Chiefs General Manager Scott Pioli and Head Coach Todd Haley. His defense never allowed more than 20.0 ppg in any of his three seasons with that squad. The Jets ranked second in the NFL by permitting 16.6 ppg in '98 as New York advanced to the AFC Championship Game for the first time since '82.

Prior to joining the Jets, the Lynchburg, Virginia native served as the defensive line coach for four Owning 46 years of coaching expertise, Bill Muir enters his 31st season as an NFL coach in 2011. He begins his first campaign as the Chiefs offensive coordinator/offensive line coach after focusing his attention on the offensive front the past two seasons. Respected across the league, Muir came to Kansas City after spending seven seasons as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach with Tampa Bay (2002-08). Muir possesses NFL experience as both an offensive and defensive coordinator, as well as a background in the personnel arena.

In 2010, Kansas City led the league in rushing, averaging 164.2 rushing yards per game. The Chiefs ground attack was even better at Arrowhead, gaining 1,463 yards (182.9). Following Muir's lead, the offensive front allowed only 32.0 sacks and did not permit a QB takedown in three contests.

In his first season with the Chiefs, Muir's offensive line showed dramatic improvement in the second half of the season. The Chiefs averaged 142.6 rushing yards per game over the final eight games of the season as RB Jamaal Charles ran for 968 yards to rank second in the league in rushing over that eight-game span.

During his tenure in Tampa Bay, Muir was part of a staff that helped guide the Buccaneers to a victory in Super Bowl XXXVII in 2002. Thanks to his offensive units, the Buccaneers also claimed NFC South crowns in both 2005 and 2007. Muir's blocking unit paved the way for RB Cadillac Williams, who earned NFL Rookie of the Year honors in 2005.

Muir spent seven seasons as the offensive line coach with the N.Y. Jets ('95-01), where he began his association with Chiefs General Manager Scott Pioli and Head Coach Todd Haley. Under his jurisdiction in 2000, the Jets allowed 20.0 sacks, tying for the lowest total in the NFL.

RB Curtis Martin posted four 1,000-yard seasons during Muir's tenure in New York, including a team-record 1,513 yards in 2001 as Martin earned his fourth Pro Bowl nod. The Jets were fourth in the NFL in rushing in 2001, averaging 128.4 rushing ypg, the club's best ranking since '91.

Muir spent three campaigns as the offensive line coach for Philadelphia ('92-94). Thanks to his offensive front, the Eagles ranked ninth in the NFL, averaging 110.1 rushing ypg in '94. He joined the Eagles after a three-year stint with Indianapolis ('89-91). He served two seasons as the Colts defensive coordinator before assuming the post of assistant head coach/offensive line coach in '91. Muir spent four seasons as the offensive line coach for Detroit ('85-88) after serving in the same capacity with New England ('82-84).

The Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania native began his first tour of duty in Tampa Bay as a member of the personnel department. He worked as a scout in '78 before serving as a pro scout from '79-81. The Buccaneers advanced to the postseason in '79 and '81, including a berth in the '79 NFC Championship Game, a remarkable feat for a franchise that began play just four seasons earlier in '76.

Prior to entering the NFL ranks, Muir spent two seasons coaching the offensive line at SMU ('76-77). He served in the same capacity with the World Football League's Houston/Shreveport Steamers ('74-75). Muir enjoyed a stint as defensive coordinator at Idaho State ('72-73), in addition to coaching the defensive line and working as defensive coordinator at Rhode Island ('70-71).

From '68-69, Muir was the offensive line coach of the Orlando Panthers of the fledgling Continental Football League that fielded teams from '65-69. Muir was part of an Orlando staff that won the '68 league title game. Muir's first two coaching assignments were coaching the offensive and defensive lines at Delaware Valley ('66-67) and Susquehanna ('65). A standout tackle at Susquehanna from '62-64, Muir was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in '90 after being named to the school's "Top 100" players of all-time. Gary Gibbs enters his third season as the Chiefs linebackers coach in 2011. He joined Kansas City after spending three years as the defensive coordinator in New Orleans (2006-08).

Respected in both the NFL and college football ranks, Gibbs enters his 10th season in the pro game after a 22-year career on the collegiate level that featured six seasons as the head coach at the University of Oklahoma ('89-94).

Gibbs oversaw a linebacker unit that helped the Chiefs defense limit its opponents to 14.8 points per game at Arrowhead Stadium, the third-lowest total in the NFL a year ago. LB Tamba Hali ranked second in the NFL with a career-high 14.5 sacks, tying for the fourth-highest single-season total in club history.

Gibbs' arrival in New Orleans in 2006 paid immediate dividends as the franchise reached the NFC Championship Game for the first time in team history. The Saints ranked 11th in total defense, allowing 307.3 ypg that season. After ranking 28th in the league in scoring defense in 2005, the Saints ranked 13th in that category under Gibbs in 2006, allowing 20.1 ppg.

During Gibbs' three-year tenure, New Orleans held 17 opponents to 17 points or less, posting a 15-2 record in those games. He joined the Saints after spending four seasons as linebackers coach in Dallas (2002-05). During the 2004-05 seasons he was a member of Bill Parcells' staff that also included Chiefs Head Coach Todd Haley. Under Gibbs' direction, Cowboys LB Dexter Coakley registered 173 tackles in 2005, the second-highest single-season total in team history.

Gibbs entered the NFL coaching fraternity after one-year stints as the defensive coordinator at LSU (2001) and Georgia (2000). During his lone season in Baton Rouge, Gibbs' defensive unit led the Southeastern Conference with 18 INTs.

During his stay at Georgia, Gibbs tutored a defense that allowed a paltry 18.0 ppg and ranked ninth nationally in total defense. He coached a pair of first-round draft picks and future Pro Bowlers in DE Richard Seymour and DT Marcus Stroud.

In total, he posted a 44-23-2 overall record and posted a winning record in Big 8 Conference play each season.

Gibbs was largely successful in cleaning up a program that was placed on probation by the NCAA in '88. Gibbs produced 25 NFL draftees during his head coaching stint despite probation stipulations that severely limited the school's scholarship allotment. His defense averaged 4.09 sacks per game during the '89 campaign, a mark that remains the highest single-season average in school annals.

Steve Hoffman enters his third season as Kansas City's special teams coach in 2011. Beginning his 22nd season as an NFL coach, he owns a reputation for developing young specialists. Hoffman owns three Super Bowl rings as an assistant with Dallas.

The Chiefs coverage units ranked sixth in the NFL a year ago, allowing opponents to average 20.2 yards per kickoff return. During Hoffman's two seasons with Kansas City, the Chiefs have 74 punts inside the 20, the top mark in the NFL during that time.

Kansas City's special teams unit showed dramatic improvement under Hoffman's guidance his first season. The Chiefs improved to 12th in 2009 from 29th in 2008 in the comprehensive NFL special teams rankings compiled by Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News. In fact, only three teams made bigger leaps in those rankings than the Chiefs.

P Dustin Colquitt registered a 40.78-yard net punting average in 2009, the top single-season mark in Chiefs history. Meanwhile, Colquitt's 41 punts inside the 20 were the third-highest total in NFL history, shattering the previous Chiefs record of 29. K Ryan Succop's 86.21 FG make percentage tied for the highest mark by a rookie in the NFL since '70, while he connected on 17 of 17 FGs from inside 40 yards. Succop was named the Mack Lee Hill Award winner, an honor bestowed on Kansas City's top rookie or first-year player.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Hoffman spent two seasons with Miami (2007-08) as that club's assistant special teams coach. Hoffman was key in helping the Dolphins orchestrate one of the finest one-year turnarounds in NFL history as Miami captured the AFC East title with an 11-5 record in 2008. In 2007, K Jay Feely established a single-season Dolphins record by connecting on 91.3 percent (21 of 23) of his field goals. Hoffman also tutored rookie P Brandon Fields, who led all NFL rookies with a 43.2-yard gross average that season. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Hoffman served as assistant special teams coach with Atlanta (2006).

Entering his 21st NFL season in 2011, Joel Collier enters his third campaign as Assistant General Manager with the Chiefs. Collier assists General Manager Scott Pioli with the day-to-day football operations of the club, working closely with the coaching and player personnel staffs.

Prior to joining the Chiefs he enjoyed a three-year stint with New England (2005-07). The Patriots had a stellar season with Collier leading the club's defensive backs in 2007. New England captured the NFL's first 16-0 regular season record and advanced to Super Bowl XLII. Thanks in part to Collier's secondary unit, the club ranked fourth in the NFL in scoring defense, allowing just 17.1 ppg.

In 2006, Collier assisted in guiding a secondary that helped the Patriots rank second in the league in scoring defense as New England established a franchise record by allowing a mere 14.8 ppg. The Patriots defensive backfield surrendered a league-low 10 TD passes, while Pro Bowl CB Asante Samuel registered a league-high 10 INTs.

After losing six members of the defensive backfield to season-ending injuries in 2005, Collier was instrumental in mentoring a secondary that allowed just 188.0 passing ypg over the club's final seven contests. Over an eight-week midseason span the Patriots utilized six different starters at strong safety. In total, 13 different starters roamed New England's secondary that season.

In between two separate coaching stints in New England, Collier served an 11-season tenure with Miami ('94-04). During a seven-year stretch as running backs coach ('98-04), the Dolphins produced a 1,000-yard rusher three times. Under Collier's guidance, RB Ricky Williams assembled the finest two rushing seasons in Dolphins history with a league-leading 1,853 yards in 2002 and a 1,372-yard effort in 2003. CHIEFS RADIO NETWORK

For the 22nd consecutive year, all Chiefs games will be carried in Kansas City by KCFX Radio/101.1 FM. The Chiefs Fox Football Radio Network, with KCFX as its anchor, includes 53 affiliates throughout a seven-state region. KCFX will broadcast all Chiefs preseason, regular season and playoff games live.

In 2010, Sports Radio 810 WHB secured exclusive rights to the second hour of the official Chiefs postgame show. Sports Radio 810 is the official AM radio partner of the Chiefs, and owns exclusive live radio broadcast rights to the Chiefs weekly in-season press conferences with Head Coach Todd Haley and the other Chiefs programming.

CHIEFS RADIO TEAM: (L to R): Kendall Gammon (Sideline Reporter), Len Dawson (Color Commentary), Mitch Holthus (Play-by-Play) and Dan Israel (Exec. Producer).

One of the Midwest's most recognizable radio and television personalities, Mitch Holthus handles the play-by-play duties for the 18th-straight year, giving him more years of service than any other "Voice of the Chiefs" in team history. Holthus has called a franchise-record 271 regular and postseason contests for Kansas City. Only six active NFL play-by-play announcers have been in their current roles for more seasons than Holthus.

Holthus is a past president of the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association, an eight-time winner of the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year Award and was inducted into the Kansas Broadcaster Hall of Fame in 2008.The Smith Center, Kansas native also served as the voice of Kansas State athletics for 14 years from '83-96. In addition to his Chiefs duties, he began his duties as the lead TV play-by-play broadcaster for FOX Sports coverage of the Missouri Valley Conference in '95. In 2008, Holthus added TV play-by-play coverage of Big 12 basketball to his resume and continued to broadcast select Missouri Valley basketball contests.

Adding the color analysis to the Chiefs Radio Network for the 27th-consecutive year is QB Len Dawson, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '87. Dawson was the MVP in Kansas City's Super Bowl IV triumph over Minnesota and guided the franchise to three AFL titles. Pro Bowl long snapper Kendall Gammon enters his fourth season providing in-game sideline updates. A 15-year NFL veteran, Gammon played in 106 games in a Chiefs uniform and was a member of Pittsburgh's Super Bowl XXX squad. Dan Israel serves as the Executive Producer of the Chiefs Radio Network. A member of the Chiefs Radio Network since '89, his talents have also been used by HBO, CBS, NBC and ABC. "Voice of the Missouri State Bears" Art Haines anchors the pre-game show, halftime and in-game reports.

IN MEMORIUM: BILL GRIGSBY

The Kansas City Chiefs organization mourned the passing of radio icon Bill Grigsby on February 26, 2011. Grigsby, 89, spent 62 years in broadcasting.

Grigsby became a vibrant part of the Chiefs broadcast scene in '63 after he and the first of his many "ol' partners" – Merle Harmon – defected from the Kansas City A's to join Lamar Hunt's upstart American Football League team. He owns the distinction of calling the play-by-play for both Super Bowl I and Super Bowl IV.

As versatile as he was enthusiastic, Grigsby broadcast games in the both the AFL and the NFL, in addition to working in Major League Baseball and in the National Hockey League. He once called eight straight basketball games at the NAIA basketball tournament in '64 and was behind the microphone for the first-ever basketball game played at Allen Fieldhouse on the University of Kansas campus in '55.

Grigsby was honored on April 13, 2010 when he was presented with the Regional Media Hall of Fame Award from the Department of Communication at Missouri Southern State University. Grigsby has also earned spots in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame and in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) Hall of Fame.

Grigsby was known for calling every game day a "beeeeyou-tiful day." The longtime Parkville, Missouri resident is survived by his wife of 62 years, Frances, five children and nine grandchildren.

IN MEMORIUM: TONY DiPARDO

The Kansas City Chiefs organization mourned the passing of game-day icon Tony DiPardo on January 27, 2011 at the age of 98.

Better known as "Mr. Music," DiPardo was an integral part of Chiefs pagentry for more than 40 years. He initially formed the TD Pack Band in 1963 at the Chiefs original Kansas City home, Municipal Stadium.

The trumpet-toting band leader had such a profound impact on the Chiefs franchise that Head Coach Hank Stram personally made sure DiPardo received a championship ring following the Chiefs victory in Super Bowl IV. DiPardo then followed the team to Arrowhead Stadium in 1973, where his daughter Patti DiPardo-Livergood soon joined him.

He is survived by his wife Doddie, children Patti, Tony, Jr. and Jimmy and several grandchildren.

2010 GAME SUMMARIES

Chiefs 21, Chargers 14

September 13, 2010 • Arrowhead Stadium • 71,297

SAN DIEGO	7	0	7	0	—	14
KANSAS CITY	7	14	0	0	—	21

An electrified crowd of 71,297 celebrated the grand opening of the New Arrowhead as the Chiefs downed the Chargers 21-14 on Monday Night Football. It came down to fourth-and-goal from the four-yard line as San Diego QB Philip Rivers took the snap out of the shotgun looking to tie the game. Rivers scrambled in the backfield looking for an open body, but pressure from the Chiefs defensive line forced an incomplete pass, turning the ball over on downs and sealing the Chiefs first win at the New Arrowhead.

All three phases of football began clicking for the Chiefs as big plays were made on offense, defense and special teams.

The Chargers were first on the board after Rivers led his team on a nine-play, 60-yard drive culminating with a TD pass to TE Antonio Gates from three yards out to take a 7-0 lead with 1:56 left in the first quarter.

The Chiefs answered quickly when RB Jamaal Charles took a handoff to the left side of the line, found a gap and raced 56 yards into the end zone to tie the game at 7-7.

After exchanging punts, Kansas City LB Derrick Johnson stripped the football from RB Ryan Mathews at the San Diego 28-yard line. CB Brandon Carr scooped up the loose ball and returned it 23 yards to San Diego's 12-yard line.

The Chiefs offense took it from there. Three plays later on a play-action pass, QB Matt Cassel found rookie TE Tony Moeaki wide open in the corner of the end zone for a touchdown to give Kansas City its first lead of the game at 14-7 with 5:03 to play in the half.

The Chiefs were just getting started. After another defensive stand, P Mike Scifres came on to punt for the Chargers. WR Dexter McCluster caught the ball at the KC six-yard line. On a play that looked broken, McCluster emerged from the pack and a key block from LB Andy Studebaker cleared him for a 94-yard sprint to the end zone, putting the Chiefs up 21-7 at intermission.

The Chargers were first to touch the ball in the second half. The teams went punt-for-punt before Rivers and company found stride. First, Rivers found Gates who rumbled for 19 yards to the San Diego 30-yard line. Two plays later, Chargers WR Legedu Naanee was wide open and Rivers hit him for a 59-yard TD pass, cutting the Chiefs lead to 21-14 with 2:33 on the clock in the third.

San Diego regained possession after a Kansas City punt. Rivers' pass to TE Randy McMichael was good for 20 yards followed by a 23-yard rush by RB Mike Tolbert putting the ball at the Chiefs 44-yard line. On fourth and nine from the KC 32 with just over seven minutes to play the Chargers elected to go for it. Rivers' pass slipped through the hands of Naanee turning it over on downs.

With 5:03 to play in the contest, Rivers connected with WR Buster Davis for 22 yards and then to WR Malcom Floyd for 22 yards putting the Chargers at the Chiefs 25-yard line at the 2:00 minute warning down by seven. On fourth and three from the KC 16, Rivers connected on a clutch pass to Naanee for 12 yards and a first down, setting the Chargers up with a first-and-goal from the Kansas City four-yard line.

Kansas City's defense rose to the occasion. With 0:39 on the clock the Chargers faced a fourth and goal from the four-yard line. With Rivers in shotgun formation, the ball was snapped. Rivers stepped up in the pocket and threw it up but the pass fell incomplete, sealing the Chiefs victory.

Chiefs 16, Browns 14

September 19, 2010 • Cleveland Browns Stadium • 65,377

KANSAS CITY	3	7	3	3	— 16
CLEVELAND	0	14	0	0	— 14

After a back-and-forth first half which saw the Chiefs and Browns exchange scoring drives, the Chiefs defense held the Browns offense scoreless in the second half as Kansas City registered a 16-14 victory at Cleveland Browns Stadium. Head Coach Todd Haley's decision to go for a first down on fourth-and-one with 2:00 remaining in the contest proved pivotal as RB Thomas Jones made the first down, effectively sealing the victory.

The key defensive play of the game came when Kansas City CB Brandon Flowers intercepted a QB Seneca Wallace pass and returned it 33 yards to paydirt, giving the Chiefs a 10-7 lead.

The Chiefs made the first play of the game when LB Mike Vrabel worked his way into the backfield and brought down RB Jerome Harrison, forcing a fumble in the process that was recovered by DE Glenn Dorsey. After a review, the play stood and the Chiefs took over on the Cleveland 23-yard line. The turnover set up a 35-yard field goal by K Ryan Succop to put Kansas City on top 3-0 with 8:43 left to play in the first quarter.

After getting pinned deep in their own territory Cleveland's offense went to work. RB Peyton Hillis picked up 12 yards to give the Browns breathing room. Wallace then connected with WR Mohamed Massaquoi for nine yards, Harrison for 23 yards and TE Benjamin Watson for 44 yards to move the ball to the Kansas City eight-yard line. An illegal contact penalty on third down gave the Browns first-and-goal at the two-yard line. Two plays later Hillis found the end zone on a one-yard dive. The TD gave the Browns a 7-3 lead with 12:31 left to play in the first half.

After the Chiefs went three-and-out, the defense rose to the challenge as Flowers intercepted a Wallace pass intended for WR Chansi Stuckey and returned it 33 yards for a TD, putting the Chiefs back on top of the Browns at 10-7 with 10:02 left to play in the first half.

The two teams traded knockout punches as Wallace answered the Chiefs defensive TD with a 65-yard TD pass to WR Josh Cribbs to steal the lead back, making it a 14-10 advantage for the Browns with 8:43 left in the first half.

An interception by CB Sheldon Brown at the Cleveland 35-yard line gave the ball back to Cleveland, and the teams traded punts following the interception.

Pinned inside the 10-yard line, RB Jamaal Charles picked up 20 yards before a ball was tipped at the line of scrimmage and intercepted by DT Ahtyba Rubin. The turnover set up a 42-yard K Phil Dawson FG attempt that was wide left.

Faced with third-and-six to open the second half, QB Matt Cassel connected with TE Tony Moeaki for 20 yards for a first down. Lining up for another third-and-six play, Cassel found WR Dwayne Bowe for 17 yards to keep the drive moving. Jones picked up 11 yards to the Cleveland 15-yard line. A 26-yard FG from Succop narrowed the Browns lead to 14-13 with 8:45 left in the third quarter.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Cassel would orchestrate a 14-play, 68-yard drive that would culminate with a 23-yard FG from Succop to give the Chiefs a 16-14 lead with 7:41 left to play in the contest.

Kansas City's defense held its own, forcing two late-game punts. The Chiefs offense sealed the game on fourth-and-one when Jones leaped over the pile to pick up the first down, allowing the Chiefs to run out the clock on the 16-14 victory.

Chiefs 31, 49ers 10

September 26, 2010 • Arrowhead Stadium • 68,188

SAN FRANCISCO	0	3	0	7	— 10
KANSAS CITY	0	10	14	7	— 31

The Chiefs improved to 3-0 with a convincing 31-10 victory over the 49ers. A combination of big plays, stellar defense and aggressive coaching decisions helped propel the club to victory. The Chiefs rushed for 207 yards, while Kansas City's defense allowed the 49ers only 43 rushing yards.

After a scoreless first quarter, the second period of play was much more eventful. On fourth-and-one from the 50, Head Coach Todd Haley fooled the 49ers with a bit of gamesmanship as the punt team sprinted off the field and the offense sprinted on forcing the 49ers to take a timeout. Out of the Wildcat formation RB Dexter McCluster ran around the right side for the first down. The Chiefs drove to San Francisco's 34-yard line before CB Shawntae Spencer intercepted a Chiefs pass. The Chiefs defense got it right back as CB Brandon Flowers picked off his second pass of the season.

Flowers' interception set the Chiefs up in San Francisco territory at the 31-yard line. The first play following the INT QB Matt Cassel hit McCluster on a short pass to his left side who dashed 31 yards down the sideline and dove into the end zone for the TD giving the Chiefs a 7-0 lead with 11:02 to play in the half.

On the ensuing kickoff the Chiefs recovered an unexpected onside kick, but an offsides penalty negated the play. The Chiefs kicked it away and the 49ers took over at their own 22. The 49ers moved into Chiefs territory following a 22-yard completion from QB Alex Smith to WR Michael Crabtree. Four plays later K Joe Nedney put through a 51-yard field goal making it 7-3.

McCluster was again a key role in moving the ball as he caught a 15-yard pass from Cassel followed by a 23-yard catch and run putting KC at San Francisco's 23-yard line setting up Succop for a 38-yard attempt. Succop's kick sailed just right of the top of the post leaving the score at 7-3 at the two-minute warning.

Following a 49ers punt, Cassel hit Charles on completions of 17 and 18 yards. With 0:07 on the clock Cassel hit TE Tony Moeaki setting up Succop for a 32-yard field goal attempt. Succop's kick split the uprights giving the Chiefs a 10-3 lead at intermission.

The 49ers offense was first on the field after the break. The teams went punt for punt before Kansas City broke out an elaborate flea flicker. In the Wildcat formation, Jones took the snap, handed off to McCluster who pitched it to Cassel coming around the other side. Cassel slung the ball 45 yards down the field into the end zone to WR Dwayne Bowe increasing the Chiefs lead to 17-3 with 9:37 to play in the third quarter.

On the ensuing possession, LB Tamba Hali sacked Smith on third-and-nine at San Francisco's 31-yard line, his third sack of the day forcing yet another 49ers punt.

The Chiefs offense took the field at its own 39-yard line and behind the legs of Jones moved the ball into 49ers territory. On third-and-four from San Francisco's 45 Cassel hit Charles for a 22-yard gain to the 23. Four plays later Cassel fired a laser to Moeaki who made an impressive one-handed grab in the end zone to push the Chiefs lead to 24-3 with 1:41 left in the third quarter.

Head Coach Todd Haley turned the ball over to his running backs in the fourth quarter as Jones and Charles combined for 57 yards on a drive that culminated with a three-yard TD run from Jones. The Chiefs took a 31-3 lead with 3:27 left to play in the contest. The teams exchanged punts and San Francisco was able to add seven points when Smith connected with WR Josh Morgan as time expired making the final score 31-10.

INDIANAPOLIS	3	3	3	10	—	19

After a back-and-forth battle that saw only field goals registered on the scoreboard for 55 minutes, Indianapolis walked off the field at Lucas Oil Stadium with a 19-9 victory. The Chiefs managed to keep QB Peyton Manning in check, holding the Colts to 244 net passing yards and only 341 yards of total offense. RB Jamaal Charles carried the ball 16 times for 87 yards to lead the ground attack. TE Tony Moeaki led the team with four receptions for 50 yards.

The Chiefs opened the game with a surprise onside kick, but the ball didn't travel 10 yards, giving Indianapolis the ball on the Kansas City 37-yard line. But the Chiefs defense held, forcing the Colts to settle for a 20-yard FG from K Adam Vinatieri, giving the Colts a 3-0 lead with 9:59 left in the opening quarter.

On Kansas City's ensuing drive, the Chiefs relied on the ground game to move the ball into Indianapolis territory. Faced with fourth-and-two from the Indianapolis eight-yard line, the Chiefs elected to go for it, but QB Matt Cassel's pass was broken up by LB Gary Brackett, giving the Colts the ball on their own eight-yard line. The Colts drove the ball into KC territory, but the Chiefs defense held once again. Vinatieri converted a 24-yard FG to give the Colts a 6-0 lead with 9:14 left in the first half.

Just before intermission Manning and company faced fourth and two, S Jon McGraw tackled RB Joseph Addai one yard short of a first down, giving the Chiefs the ball with 0:18 left to play in the first half. Cassel found WR Chris Chambers for 13 yards and a late hit out of bounds added 15 yards for the Chiefs. Cassel then hit Moeaki on the sideline for six yards to stop the clock. Kansas City narrowed the Colts lead to 6-3 on a 45-yard K Ryan Succop FG with 0:07 left to play in the first half.

On the Colts first posession in the second half, they again had to settle for a FG. Vinatieri's 47-yard kick extended the Colts lead to 9-3 with 8:31 left in the third quarter. On the ensuing posession the Chiefs drove into the Red Zone, and Succop nailed a 35-yard FG, making the score 9-6 with 4:35 left in the third stanza.

McGraw picked off a Manning pass at the Indianapolis 34-yard line and returned it four yards to set Succop up for a 43-yard FG. Succop nailed his third kick of the day, tying the game at 9-9 with 3:26 left to play in the third quarter.

A defensive pass interference penalty moved the Colts into KC territory again. A critical 14-yard third-down pass to WR Pierre Garcon was ruled a completion but was overturned after Head Coach Todd Haley challenged the play, forcing a 42-yard Vinatieri FG that gave the Colts the 12-9 lead with 14:40 left to play in the game.

Manning led the Colts on a methodical drive that ended in the contest's only TD. Manning went seven-for-nine on the drive that was capped by an 11-yard TD run from RB Mike Hart putting the Colts on top 19-9 with 4:02 left to play in the game. The Chiefs offense moved the ball into Colts territory. Faced with fourth-and-four, Succop attempted a 51-yard FG that sailed wide right. The Colts ran the clock out for the 19-9 victory after the missed kick.

The Texans outlasted the Chiefs to post a 35-31 victory. With 0:28 seconds left in regulation, Texans QB Matt Schaub connected with WR Andre Johnson for an 11-yard TD to give Houston its only lead of the game at Reliant Stadium.

The Chiefs offense racked up 417 total yards, including 228 rushing yards. RBs Thomas Jones and Jamaal Charles combined for 193 yards, including a 100-yard effort from Jones, his first as a member of the Chiefs. QB Matt Cassel finished the game with 20 completions for 201 yards and three TDs. Cassel recorded a 122.9 rating and a 69.0 completion percentage, his highest marks as a member of the Chiefs.

After receiving the game's opening kick the Chiefs drove 74 yards and converted two fourth downs in a TD drive that gave the Chiefs a 7-0 lead with 6:23 to play in the opening stanza. Cassel rolled out to his right and found LB Mike Vrabel in the corner of the end zone for a two-yard TD.

The teams went punt for punt until early in the second quarter when Schaub, faced with a third-and-goal from the five, found TE Joel Dreessen in the end zone to tie the score at 7-7.

With 2:13 to play in the first half the Chiefs offense marched down the field. On third and 12 from KC's 35, Cassel fired a pass to Bowe who just got his hands underneath the ball to pick up 19 yards. Cassel then connected with Jones for a 10-yard pickup. On the next play Cassel fired a bullet to Bowe on a post route to put the Chiefs up 14-7 at the half.

Following the break the Chiefs offense found rhythm early. The Chiefs broke into Texans territory on a third and three when Cassel hit Bowe for a seven-yard gain. Three plays later Cassel connected with Bowe on a quick slant. Bowe weaved his way 42 yards through the Texans defense into the end zone for the TD, pushing the Chiefs lead to 21-7 with 8:31 to play in the third quarter.

The Texans answered right back with a TD of their own when RB Derrick Ward took the handoff from Schaub 38 yards down the left sideline into the end zone, cutting the Chiefs lead to 21-14. K Ryan Succop added a 24-yard FG that pushed the Chiefs advantage to 24-14.

The Texans took a short kickoff into Chiefs territory. Eleven plays later Houston RB Arian Foster scored on a two-yard TD run cutting the Chiefs lead to 24-21.

The Chiefs offense orchestrated another scoring drive. The nine-play, 70-yard drive was capped when Jones found the end zone from 11 yards out putting the Chiefs up 31-21 with 7:11 remaining. On the Texans ensuing possession, Foster again hit paydirt this time from one yard out, making the score 31-28 in favor of KC with 3:34 left in regulation.

After throwing an incompletion on third and two, the Chiefs offense was forced to punt, giving the Texans the ball with 2:30 left. Schaub connected on passes of 10, 15 and then 31 yards to Johnson moving the Texans to the Chiefs 24-yard line with 1:48 to play. Faced with third and 10 from KC's 24 Schaub hit TE Owen Daniels on a quick slant for 11 yards. With the clock winding down Schaub found Johnson in the corner of the end zone giving the Texans their only lead of the game and the eventual victory 35-31.

The Chiefs registered a 42-20 win over the Jaguars at Arrowhead as all three phases contributed to the victory. Offensively, QB Matt Cassel found WR Dwayne Bowe for two TD passes while RB Thomas Jones recorded 20 carries for 125 yards and one TD as the Chiefs piled up 42 carries for 236 yards.

Defensively, Kansas City held the Jaguars offense to 300 total yards. The Chiefs recorded two interceptions of QB Todd Bouman with LB Derrick Johnson returning one for a 15-yard TD. On special teams, CB Javier Arenas forced a fumble on a Jaguars punt return that led to a Chiefs TD as KC registered 21 points off turnovers.

The Chiefs were forced to punt on their first possession as Jacksonville WR Mike Thomas returned the ball 49 yards before Arenas caught him from behind and forced a fumble. LS Thomas Gafford recovered it, giving the Chiefs possession at their own 26-yard line. The very next play, Jones scampered up the right side for 70 yards to the Jacksonville four-yard line. RB Jamaal Charles took the ball in from there putting the Chiefs up 7-0.

The Jaguars answered with a 35-yard K Josh Scobee FG to cut into the Chiefs lead, making it 7-3. After the Chiefs were forced to punt, Bouman connected with RB Maurice Jones-Drew coming out of the backfield for an 18-yard TD to put the Jaguars up 10-7 with 9:38 left in the first half.

Cassel hit TE Tony Moeaki for 20 yards and a first down and then found Bowe for 22 yards, both on second-and-13 plays, to move the ball to the Jacksonville 22-yard line. On second and nine, Cassel connected with WR Dexter McCluster for nine yards and a first down. Jones picked up eight yards to the three-yard line. On the rush, Jones eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the game. Two plays later, Jones leaped over the goal line to put the Chiefs up 14-10 with 1:31 left in the first half.

Jacksonville moved the ball to the Kansas City 19-yard line before CB Brandon Carr was called for defensive pass interference in the end zone, giving the Jaguars first and goal at the one-yard line. However, the Chiefs defense held, forcing the Jaguars to settle for an 18-yard FG to make the score 14-13 at the half.

On the Chiefs second offensive play of the second half, Cassel hooked up with Bowe for a 53-yard catch and run to put the Chiefs up 21-13 just 37 seconds into the third quarter. Jacksonville followed the Chiefs TD with a nine-yard TD pass from Bouman to WR Mike Sims-Walker, tightening the score to 21-20. After a Chiefs punt, Johnson intercepted a Bouman pass and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown to put the Chiefs up 28-20.

After moving the ball to the Kansas City 44-yard line, Jacksonville was forced to punt to the Chiefs. Facing third and eight from the KC 17-yard line, WR Terrance Copper climbed the ladder to pull down a 16-yard pass from Cassel to keep the drive alive. Cassel then hit FB Mike Cox for 13 yards on another third down moving the Chiefs into Jacksonville territory. Five plays later Bowe hauled in a six-yard TD pass from Cassel giving the Chiefs the 35-20 lead.

S Eric Berry recorded his first career INT as he stepped in front of a Bouman pass and returned it 35 yards to the Jacksonville 12-yard line. RB Jackie Battle put the exclamation point on the victory with a one-yard TD to push the Chiefs lead to 42-20.

GAME 7
Chiefs 13, Bills 10 OT
October 31, 2010 • Arrowhead Stadium • 66,625

BUFFALO	0	0	3	7	0	—	10
KANSAS CITY	0	7	0	3	3	—	13

K Ryan Succop nailed a 35-yard FG attempt as time expired in overtime to give the Chiefs a thrilling 13-10 victory over the Buffalo Bills at Arrowhead Stadium.

Kansas City eclipsed the 200-yard rushing mark for the third straight week behind RBs Thomas Jones and Jamaal Charles who racked up 177 rushing yards on 22 attempts.

Both teams were forced to punt on their first offensive possession. The Chiefs then promptly marched into Buffalo territory. On fourth and two from Buffalo's 19-yard line, the Chiefs eschewed a FG try and QB Matt Cassel was sacked by Bills NT Kyle Williams, giving Buffalo the football at their own 20.

The teams went punt for punt for the majority of the first half. With 3:54 left to play before intermission Charles tallied 67 yards on a 71-yard TD drive capped when Cassel found WR Dwayne Bowe from one yard out giving KC a 7-0 lead at half.

The Bills opened the second half with a 43-yard K Rian Lindell FG cutting KC's lead to 7-3. After the two clubs exchanged punts, the Chiefs then went back to their running game, rushing the ball 10 consecutive times to pick up 54 yards, moving them to Buffalo's 11-yard line. Two plays later Succop put through a 28-yard FG, upping the Chiefs lead to 10-3.

QB Ryan Fitzpatrick and company then proceeded to construct a 15-play, 83-yard drive. Fitzpatrick hit WR Lee Evans for six yards. CB Brandon Flowers jarred the ball loose near the sideline and the fumble was recovered by LB Mike Vrabel. After a Buffalo challenge, the ruling on the field was overturned and Buffalo maintained possession with 4:08 left in the fourth quarter.

Faced with fourth and goal from the four-yard line, Fitzpatrick hit WR Steve Johnson on a quick slant for a game-tying TD with 2:18 remaining. The play was challenged by Head Coach Todd Haley, but the call on the field was upheld.

The Chiefs began at their own 20-yard line. In the two-minute offense, Kansas City was faced with a fourth and one from its own 29-yard line. The Chiefs appeared to get the first down on a QB sneak by Cassel, but the Chiefs called a timeout before the ball was snapped and eventually elected to punt.

WR Roscoe Parrish returned the punt 33 yards to Buffalo's 48-yard line. Four plays into the drive Fitzpatrick's pass sailed over the head of his intended receiver and was picked off by S Eric Berry with 0:32 to play in regulation. Cassel was sacked on the next play and the clock expired sending the game into overtime.

After winning the coin toss, Buffalo elected to receive. They Bills were forced to punt on their first possession, but following a Chiefs punt Buffalo had the first opportunity to win the game. Lindell came on to attempt a 53-yard FG and put the kick through the uprights, but Haley had called timeout prior to the snap, forcing Lindell to try again. This time Lindell's line-drive kick hit the right upright, giving the Chiefs new life.

The Chiefs sent Succop out for the game winner from 39 yards out on the next possession. Succop's kick into the wind sailed wide left giving Buffalo the ball back. The Chiefs defense again held firm forcing Buffalo to punt.

With only 1:20 to play in the overtime period Cassel moved the Chiefs into FG range with an 11-yard pass to TE Tony Moeaki, setting up Succop for a 35-yard field goal attempt with 0:05 remaining on the clock. This time Succop's kick split the uprights as time expired giving the Chiefs a thrilling 13-10 OT victory.

Raiders 23, Chiefs 20 OT

November 7, 2010 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum • 61,075

KANSAS CITY	0	10	3	7	0	—	20
OAKLAND	0	0	14	6	3	—	23

The Chiefs had a seven-game road winning streak at Oakland snapped as K Sebastian Janikowski drilled a 33-yard FG in overtime to give Oakland a 23-20 victory.

After a scoreless first quarter, a defensive pass interference call put the Chiefs at the Oakland 14-yard line. On third and two, Cassel hit TE Tony Moeaki for five yards to the Oakland one-yard line. Moeaki's catch was initially ruled a TD, but was challenged by the Raiders. The play was overturned, and QB Matt Cassel ran for an apparent TD on the next play, but a holding penalty moved the ball back to the 11. Cassel hit WR Verran Tucker in the back of the end zone for an 11-yard TD to put the Chiefs up 7-0.

LB Derrick Johnson forced a RB Darren McFadden fumble on the Raiders ensuing possession that was recovered by DE Wallace Gilberry at the Oakland 26-yard line. After failing to pick up the first down, Chiefs K Ryan Succop sent a 43-yard FG through the uprights to extend the Chiefs lead to 10-0. CB Javier Arenas appeared to give the Chiefs a 17-0 edge when he returned an Oakland punt for a 72-yard TD, but the play was nullified by an illegal block in the back.

Cassel hit Moeaki for 23 yards on a wheel route up the left sideline, pushing the ball to the Kansas City 47-yard line. On third and nine, Cassel connected with WR Terrance Copper for 20 yards. Cassel then found Bowe for nine yards, bringing Succop onto the field for a 41-yard FG attempt. A holding penalty negated the FG and pushed the attempt back to 51 yards. Succop then tried a pooch punt that rolled into the end zone.

On the Raiders next play, S Jon McGraw intercepted a QB Jason Campbell pass at the Oakland 45-yard line. The Chiefs had a golden scoring opportunity, but Cassel had a pass tipped into the arms of Raiders CB Jeremy Ware in the end zone.

On the second-half kickoff Oakland WR Jacoby Ford scampered for a 94-yard TD, making the score 10-7. Arenas then fumbled the ensuing kickoff and the Raiders recovered at the Chiefs 34-yard line. The Chiefs defense held and Janikowski's 47-yard FG attempt went wide left, leaving the Chiefs lead at 10-7.

On KC's next possession the Chiefs were able to knock through a Succop 25-yard FG to make the score 13-7 with 9:41 left in the third period. The Raiders answered with seven points of their own. Campbell found T Khalif Barnes, who had reported as a tackle eligible, in the end zone giving Oakland a 14-13 lead. The Raiders were driving again, but the Chiefs forced a 23 yard Janikowski FG to make the count 17-13.

The Chiefs went three and out but LB Demorrio Williams forced a fumble on the Oakland punt return that was recovered by Tucker at the Oakland 30-yard line. Facing third and 11, Cassel hit WR Dwayne Bowe in the end zone for a 20-yard TD, giving the Chiefs the 20-17 lead with 6:13 left to play in the fourth quarter.

After exchanging punts, Campbell hit Ford for 29 yards and a first down. Oakland spiked the ball and Janikowski kicked a 42-yard FG to tie the game at 20-20.

Kansas City got the ball to start overtime but went three and out, giving Oakland the ball at its own 38-yard line. On Oakland's first play, Campbell hit Ford for a 47-yard gain to the Kansas City 15. Janikowski's 33-yard field goal attempt split the uprights giving Oakland the 23-20 win.

Broncos 49, Chiefs 29

November 14, 2010 • INVESCO Field at Mile High • 75,334

KANSAS CITY	0	10	7	12	—	29
DENVER	21	14	7	7	—	49

The Chiefs lost by a 49-29 margin to the Denver Broncos at INVESCO Field at Mile High. Despite falling behind 35-0 in the contest, the Chiefs battled back to register 484 yards of total offense. QB Matt Cassel registered a career-high 469 passing yards. WR Dwayne Bowe finished the game with a career-high 13 catches for 186 yards and two TDs.

Denver won the toss and on the Broncos fourth play from scrimmage QB Kyle Orton hit WR Brandon Lloyd between two Chiefs defenders for a 37-yard pickup to KC's 31. On second and 10 from the Chiefs 17-yard line Orton hit RB Knowshon Moreno out of the backfield who scampered into the end zone, giving Denver an early 7-0 lead. The Broncos added 14 more points before the end of the first quarter with two TD passes by Orton. The first went to WR Brandon Lloyd on a quick slant and the second a 40-yard pass to an outstretched Gaffney for a TD. The Chiefs elected to review the play, but the instant replay system was inoperable so the ruling on the field of a TD stood, giving the Broncos a 21-0 lead.

The Chiefs offense got into a groove, but a sack by LB Mario Haggan forced KC to attempt a 52-yard FG from K Ryan Succop that sailed wide right. Eight plays later QB Tim Tebow bootlegged into the end zone from one-yard out advancing Denver's lead to 28-0.

KC's offense drove to Denver's eight-yard line on its ensuing possession before Cassel was sacked by Haggan and stripped of the football. LB Jason Hunter recovered the ball and took it 75 yards for a TD, moving Denver's lead to 35-0.

Kansas City's offense put together a late scoring drive near the end of the half set up by a 38-yard pass to WR Verran Tucker. Two plays later Cassel connected with RB Jamaal Charles for a five-yard TD, cutting Denver's lead to 35-7. The Broncos received the ball with 1:22 to play before intermission. The Broncos attempted a 58-yard FG with 0:18 to play but K Matt Prater's attempt fell short and S Eric Berry returned it 87 yards to Denver's 22-yard line. Succop put through a 40-yard FG to cut Denver's lead to 35-10 at intermission.

Kansas City had possession to open the second half, but was forced to punt. The Broncos then orchestrated a 10-play, 60-yard drive culminating with a Tebow three-yard TD pass to FB Spencer Larsen, upping Denver's advantage to 42-10.

The Chiefs put together a quick scoring drive capped when Cassel hit Bowe for a 15-yard TD pass, putting the score at 42-17. The Broncos answered right back with a TD of their own when Orton connected with Lloyd in the corner of the end zone from 15 yards out, but it was ruled incomplete. A review showed Lloyd got both feet down giving the Broncos a 49-17 lead with 11:55 remaining.

Faced with fourth and goal from the 11-yard line Cassel hit WR Chris Chambers on a post route but failed to convert a two-point attempt making the score 49-23 Denver. The Chiefs attempted an onside kick but the Broncos recovered.

The ball exchanged hands as the clock winded down. Cassel found Bowe for his second TD catch of the game from 22 yards out with 0:15 to play. The two-point conversion failed leaving the final score at 49-29.

ARIZONA	3	0	3	7	—	13
KANSAS CITY	0	14	7	10	—	31

The Chiefs registered a convincing 31-13 victory vs. Arizona to move to 5-0 at Arrowhead this season. WR Dwayne Bowe registered his sixth straight game with at least one TD reception, finishing the game with six catches for 109 yards and two TD catches. RB Thomas Jones also added two TDs on runs of one and three yards. QB Matt Cassel completed 15 of 24 passes for 193 yards with two TDs, good for a 115.5 rating, his second straight game with a triple-digit mark.

The Chiefs won the toss and deferred to the second half. Arizona QB Derek Anderson completed four of five passes for 51 yards on the Cardinals opening drive, but the Chiefs defense stiffened in the Red Zone, setting up a 36-yard K Jay Feely FG to put Arizona up 3-0 with early in the first quarter.

Kansas City was forced to punt on their opening drive and the teams went punt-for-punt until early in the second period when Cassel connected with Bowe for 37 yards to move the ball to the Arizona one-yard line. On third and goal from the one, Cassel hit Bowe in the end zone, putting the Chiefs up 7-3 with 13:35 left to play in the second quarter.

Following another Arizona punt, Cassel connected with TE Jake O'Connell for an 18-yard completion while an unnecessary roughness penalty tacked on an extra 15 yards. RB Jamaal Charles grabbed a pass out of the backfield and ran 25 yards to the one-yard line. Two plays later, Jones jumped over the goal line to put the Chiefs up 14-3 with 10:14 left to play in the first half.

After an Arizona punt pinned the Chiefs at their own one-yard line with 0:57 remaining in the first half, Head Coach Todd Haley shrewdly milked the clock to get to intermission with a 14-3 lead.

The Chiefs took the opening possession of the second half and Cassel promptly picked apart the Cardinals defense, connecting with three different receivers in four plays before Charles sprinted 39 yards to the Arizona three-yard line. On the next play, Jones plowed through the line for his second rushing score of the game, giving KC 21-3 advantage.

Arizona tried to respond driving to the Chiefs 11-yard line, but KC's defense held the Cardinals. Feely hit a 29-yard FG to make the score 21-6.

The Chiefs responded on its ensuing drive with a K Ryan Succop 23-yard FG to extend KC's lead to 24-6. After the Cardinals turned the ball over on downs, Cassel found Bowe for his second TD, upping the Chiefs lead to 31-6 with 4:20 left to play.

Arizona moved the ball down the field on their last drive before a sack by CB Javier Arenas forced a loss of 12 yards and slowed the Cardinals drive. Faced with fourth and 15, Anderson hit WR Larry Fitzgerald for 16 yards and a first down at the Kansas City six-yard line with 0:14 seconds left. On second and three, Anderson found Fitzgerald for a TD as time expired, making the final score 31-13.

KANSAS CITY	7	14	0	21	— 42

The Chiefs controlled the tempo throughout the day at Qwest Field and tallied a 21-point fourth quarter as they registered a convincing 42-24 win over the Seahawks. Kansas City held a 41:03 to 18:57 advantage in the time of possession battle and outgained the Seahawks 503 to 288 in total offense. Kansas City took a 7-0 lead on the opening drive as Cassel completed four of five passes, including a seven-yard TD pass to Bowe capping a seven-play, 72-yard drive. On the Chiefs second possession K Ryan Succop's 43-yard FG was blocked giving the Seahawks the ball on their own 38-yard line, but Seattle couldn't take advantage.

On the Chiefs next possession Seattle CB Kennard Cox blocked P Dustin Colquitt's punt. Seattle S Earl Thomas returned the ball for a TD, tying the game at 7-7. Kansas City answered with a 15-play drive that ate 8:13 off the clock. On third and goal from the one, DT Shaun Smith bulled his way into the end zone as a short-yardage FB to put the Chiefs up 14-7.

Kansas City added to its lead when Cassel found a wide-open Bowe streaking down the right sideline for a 36-yard TD to put the Chiefs up 21-7 with 1:12 left to play in the first half. S Kendrick Lewis recorded his first career interception as he picked off a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass. However a fumble on KC's second offensive play set up K Olindo Mare for a 43-yard FG as time expired in the first half to make the score 21-10 in favor of the Chiefs.

Seattle came out of the gate quickly in the second half as Hasselbeck hit WR Ben Obomanu for a 52 yard gain to the Kansas City 19 yard-line. Hasselbeck then found TE Chris Baker for a 13-yard TD pass making the score 21-17.

It was punt for punt until the Chiefs offense struck again. Facing third and inches from the three-yard line, Charles stiff-armed a Seattle defender and bolted into the end zone to put the Chiefs up 28-17 with 14:54 left to play. On the Seahawks next drive, LB Derrick Johnson sacked Hasselbeck and forced a fumble that was recoverd by LB Tamba Hali at the Seattle 24-yard line setting up Bowe's third TD catch of the game, a nine-yard strike to put the Chiefs up 35-17.

On the first play after the punt, Hasselbeck connected with Obomanu for an 87-yard TD reception to make the score 35-24 with 10:16 left in the contest. GAME 12

Chiefs 10, Broncos 6

December 5, 2010 • Arrowhead Stadium • 67,267

DENVER	0	3	0	3 — 6
KANSAS CITY	7	3	0	0 — 10

The Chiefs moved to 6-0 at the New Arrowhead, registering a 10-6 victory vs. Denver. The Chiefs defense limited Denver to 86 net passing yards and held the Broncos to three of 12 (25.0%) on third downs, permitting only 247 yards of total offense. The Chiefs held Denver to just six points, the fewest permitted against the Broncos since '71. KC posted 359 yards of total offense and dominated time of possession (37:14 to 22:46).

Denver won the toss and elected to receive. Kansas City's defense set the tone with a key stop in its own territory when S Eric Berry broke up a deep third down pass ending Denver's scoring threat.

KC regained possession following Denver's second punt of the afternoon. Kansas City moved into Broncos territory when QB Matt Cassel connected with WR Dexter McCluster for a 19-yard pickup to Denver's 34-yard line. Three plays later Cassel hit RB Thomas Jones, who scampered 20 yards to the Broncos five-yard line. Cassel then fired a pass to the back of the end zone to TE Leonard Pope for a two-yard TD capping an 11-play, 70-yard drive giving Kansas City an early 7-0 lead in the first quarter.

Five straight runs by RB Knowshon Moreno moved the Broncos to their own 42. On third and 12 from Denver's 40, Orton connected with WR Eric Decker for 28 yards to the Chiefs 32. A 17-yard run by Moreno put Denver at Kansas City's 15. The Chiefs defense solidified in the Red Zone, holding Denver to a 25-yard FG by K Matt Prater that cut the Chiefs lead to 7-3.

The Chiefs offense took over at their own 27-yard line with 1:14 on the clock before half. In the two-minute offense, Cassel connected with TE Tony Moeaki twice on the drive for 11 and then 14 yards setting up K Ryan Succop's 47-yard FG with 0:07 before half that gave KC a 10-3 lead at intermission.

The Chiefs put together a 14-play drive to begin the second half. On second and goal from the two-yard line Charles punched it in, however an illegal formation penalty nullified the TD. On fourth and goal from the two-yard line Cassel was sacked by LB Mario Haggan, turning the ball over on downs.

Following another Denver punt, Charles rushed 14 yards into Denver territory, but two plays later McCluster was hit by DT Justin Bannan and lost the football. The fumble was picked up by Denver's Haggan at the Broncos 32. Moreno then rumbled 22 yards to Kansas City's 27. Once again, the Chiefs defense held in the Red Zone, as KC forced a 41-yard field goal by Prater, cutting Kansas City's lead to 10-6 with 13:47 to play in the contest.

After a Kansas City punt the Broncos took over at their own 34. On third and five from the KC 48 Moreno sprung free up the middle for a 24-yard gain. Two plays later Hali sacked Orton causing a fumble. Hali pounced on it giving the Chiefs offense the ball at their own 37-yard line. Kansas City however was unable to capitalize on the turnover and was forced to punt.

With 2:32 remaining the Chiefs defense held strong, forcing Denver to punt. Charles slowly chipped away at Denver's defense and was able to pick up a first down. Kansas City was forced to punt with 0:20 on the game clock. P Dustin Colquitt boomed a 59 yarder that was downed at the eight-yard line. Orton's final desperation pass intended for WR Eddie Royal fell incomplete as the game clock expired, preserving the Chiefs 10-6 win.

Chargers 31, Chiefs 0

December 12, 2010 • Qualcomm Stadium • 66,780

SAN DIEGO	7	14	0	10	—	31

The Chiefs suffered a 31-0 setback at Qualcomm Stadium. San Diego racked up 426 yards of total offense and converted 11 of 15 (73.3%) third-down attempts, while the Chiefs registered 67 yards of total offense and were unable to convert any of their 11 third-down tries. The Chiefs defense did force a pair of takeaways as S Eric Berry registered an INT and LB Tamba Hali produced a sack and strip, but Kansas City was unable to convert either of those opportunities into points.

Kansas City won the toss and elected to receive. QB Brodie Croyle made his first start since Opening Day of the 2009 campaign, replacing QB Matt Cassel, who underwent an appendectomy early in the week. The Chiefs came out and attempted to establish the running game early but were forced to punt on their first possession.

The Chargers took over at their own 33-yard line. On third and one QB Philip Rivers handed off to WR Vincent Jackson on an end around for 14 yards into Chiefs territory. A four-yard scramble on third and two gave the Chargers a fresh set of downs at KC's 32. Rivers connected with Jackson for 10 yards on third down, moving the chains once again. The very next play Rivers found WR Malcom Floyd on a fade in the back corner of the end zone for a 17-yard TD pass to give the Chargers a 7-0 lead with 5:39 remaining in the opening quarter.

Both teams went punt for punt before the Chargers constructed another scoring march. RB Mike Tolbert took a handoff around the left side into the end zone advancing the Chargers lead to 14-0.

After a Kansas City punt the Chargers drove into Chiefs territory and an 18-yard gain from RB Darren Sproles moved the Chargers to the KC nine. On the next play Rivers hit Floyd in the corner of the end zone for a nine-yard TD. The catch went under review and the call on the field was upheld, putting the Chargers in front by a 21-0 margin. KC got the ball back, but Croyle was sacked on the final play of the half.

The Chargers received the second-half kickoff and converted two third and longs to push into KC territory. Rivers completed three consecutive passes before Berry intercepted the ball near the sideline at the KC 16. The Chargers challenged the call on the field, but the ruling was upheld and KC took over. The Chiefs were unable to capitalize on the turnover and went three and out.

Kansas City's defense again came up big when Hali sacked Rivers, forcing a fumble that was recovered by DE Wallace Gilberry at the Chargers 37. The Chiefs were unable to capitalize on the turnover and punted the ball back to San Diego.

The score remained 21-0 in favor of San Diego entering the fourth quarter. A sack by DE Tyson Jackson at the Chiefs 28 forced a 48-yard FG by K Nate Kaeding. That score pushed the Chargers lead to 24-0 with 8:30 remaining.

Chargers CB Antoine Cason returned a Chiefs punt down the sideline 42 yard to the KC 36. The Chiefs challenged the player stepping out of bounds, but the ruling on the field stood and San Diego took over in KC territory. Sproles rumbled up the middle for 15 yards to the KC 17. Four plays later RB Ryan Mathews scored on a 15-yard TD run, giving the Chargers a 31-0 lead with 3:23 to play.

QB Tyler Palko took the helm for the remainder of the game, but the Chiefs were unable to score leaving the final count at 31-0 in favor of San Diego.

December 19, 2010 • Edward Jones Dome • 55,669

KANSAS CITY	0	14	3	10	—	27
ST. LOUIS	6	0	0	7	—	13

The Chiefs topped St. Louis by a 27-13 margin at the Edward Jones Dome to return the Governor's Cup to Kansas City. The victory sealed the Chiefs perfect 4-0 mark against the NFC West in 2010.

The Chiefs registered 210 rushing yards, while allowing only 69 yards on the ground. Rookie S Kendrick Lewis recorded a career-high two INTs, while DE Wallace Gilberry produced a career-high 3.0 sacks (-26.0 yards).

Rams K Josh Brown knocked through two field goals to open the contest including a 37-yarder and a 52-yarder to give St. Louis an early 6-0 lead before the Chiefs rattled off 20 unanswered points.

On the Chiefs second possession, QB Matt Cassel's pass on third and 13 was intercepted by CB Kevin Dockery and was returned to the Kansas City 48-yard line. After two incomplete passes, Gilberry sacked Bradford for a seven-yard loss forcing the Rams to punt. The Chiefs kicked it right back when P Dustin Colquitt booted a 72-yard punt that tied for the fifth-longest punt in Chiefs history. St. Louis was forced to punt after going three and out on its next drive.

Facing fourth and one from his own 48-yard line, Head Coach Todd Haley went for it with RB Jackie Battle taking a handoff up the middle for seven yards. Cassel found WR Dwayne Bowe deep down the right sideline for 28 yards to the St. Louis 11-yard line. On third and one from the two-yard line, Cassel hit TE Leonard Pope in the end zone to give the Chiefs a 7-6 edge over the Rams with 6:49 left in the first half.

Following the scoring drive, St. Louis went three and out. After an unnecessary roughness penalty for a late hit out of bound by the Rams, Cassel connected with TE Tony Moeaki for 12 yards and followed that with a 13-yard scramble to get to the St. Louis 20-yard line. Five plays later RB Jamaal Charles busted through the line on third and two for a TD to put the Chiefs up 14-6 at the half.

On the first play from scrimmage of the second half, RB Thomas Jones picked up four yards to become the 25th player in NFL history to go over the 10,000-yard career rushing mark. The Chiefs moved the ball to the St. Louis 35-yard line before facing fourth and nine. K Ryan Succop put a 53-yard FG through the uprights, tying a career long, and putting the Chiefs up 17-6.

After a Rams punt, Cassel connected with Bowe for a 25-yard pickup to the Rams 29-yard line. Succop nailed a 38-yard FG, putting Kansas City up 20-6 with 12:20 left in the contest.

On third and 10 for the Rams, Bradford's completion to WR Danario Alexander was challenged by Chiefs coach Haley and was overturned, forcing a Rams punt on fourth and 10. The Chiefs punted the ball right back. RB Steven Jackson capped a 12-play, 72-yard drive with a five-yard TD run to narrow the Chiefs lead to 20-13 with 4:04 left to play.

On the Chiefs first play from scrimmage, Charles reeled off a career-long 80-yard run down to the St. Louis two-yard line. Jones dove over the pile and into the end zone to extend the Chiefs lead to 27-13 with 3:26 left in the game.

Two sacks by Gilberry including a forced fumble and two INTs from Lewis hampered any comeback opportunities for the Rams and sealed Kansas City's 27-13 victory.

TENNESSEE	0	7	7	0	— 14
KANSAS CITY	14	17	3	0	— 34

The Chiefs used an explosive 31-point first half en route to a 34-14 win over the Tennessee Titans at Arrowhead Stadium, pushing the Chiefs to a pristine 7-0 record at home.

The game was highlighted by a 75-yard TD strike from QB Matt Cassel to WR Dwayne Bowe in the second quarter, while S Eric Berry registered a 54-yard INT return for a TD with less than a minute left in the first half. RB Jamaal Charles set a career high with a pair of TD catches. Kansas City registered 458 total yards of offense in the contest, tallying 306 yards through the air and 152 yards on the ground. The Chiefs limited Tennessee to 270 total yards and only 57 rushing yards.

The Chiefs took the opening kickoff and marched 69 yards in seven plays to grab a 7-0 lead on a 14-yard TD pass from Cassel to Charles on a screen pass. Cassel opened the game with eight straight completions, while the Chiefs scored on their first four possessions.

Tennessee moved the ball to the Chiefs 38-yard line where LB Andy Studebaker sacked QB Kerry Collins for a one-yard loss. Collins' fourth-down pass fell incomplete, giving the Chiefs the ball back at their own 38-yard line. Cassel and company quickly moved into Titans territory highlighted by a 17-yard catch by TE Tony Moeaki. Cassel hit Charles coming out of the backfield for a five-yard TD to put the Chiefs up 14-0. The Chiefs defense forced a three and out on Tennessee's next drive as K Ryan Succop booted a 35-yard FG through the uprights to put the Chiefs up 17-0 with 11:31 left in the first half.

Following a Tennessee punt, Cassel scrambled 16 yards for a first down. Moeaki hauled in an eight-yard pass, but an unnecessary roughness penalty against the Chiefs pushed the offense back 15 yards. Following the penalty, Cassel found Bowe for a 75-yard TD catch and run, putting the Chiefs up 24-0.

The two teams traded punts on their next possessions. On the first play after the Chiefs punt, Collins connected with WR Kenny Britt for a 53-yard TD to cut into the Chiefs lead, making the score 24-7 with 4:15 left in the first half. The Chiefs then moved the ball to the Tennessee 30-yard line. Succop attempted a 47-yard FG that fell just shy of the crossbar. On the Titans following possession, S Eric Berry stepped in front of Collins' pass and returned it 54 yards for a TD to put the Chiefs up 31-7 at intermission.

Succop hit a 42-yard FG after the break to give the Chiefs a 34-7 lead with 5:43 left to go in the third quarter. The Titans responded when Collins hit TE Jared Cook for 22 yards and a TD to cut the Chiefs lead to 34-14.

Tennessee was offsides as it attempted and recovered an onside kick, then proceeded to kick it deep. QB Brodie Croyle entered the game for Cassel and on his second pass, the ball was tipped into the air and intercepted by LB Will Witherspoon and returned to the Kansas City 48-yard line.

A Collins' pass on the ensuing Titans possession was intercepted by CB Brandon Carr as he ripped the ball away from Britt at the Chiefs nine-yard line. Cassel re-entered the game on Kansas City's next series. RB Thomas Jones had the ball stripped by DT Jason Jones and it was recovered by S Chris Hope at the Tennessee 19-yard line. The Chiefs defense forced a three and out and a Tennessee punt, effectively ending the contest.

Four plays later K Ryan Succop put a 30-yard field goal attempt through the uprights, giving the Chiefs an early 3-0 lead.

QB Jason Campbell hit WR Jacoby Ford on a quick screen, racing 35 yards down the sideline to Kansas City's six-yard line. Three plays later Campbell found WR Chaz Schilens in the end zone for a six-yard TD that gave the Raiders a 7-3 advantage.

2010 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Baltimore 30, Chiefs 7

January 9, 2011 • Arrowhead Stadium • 72,190

BALTIMORE	3	7	13	7	—	30
KANSAS CITY	7	0	0	0	—	7

The Chiefs were within striking distance at halftime, trailing by only a 10-7 margin, but four second-half turnovers doomed Kansas City as Baltimore pulled away for a 30-7 victory. The Chiefs defense registered 4.0 sacks, including 2.0 from LB Tamba Hali.

The Chiefs won the toss, deferred to the second half and kicked off to open the game. Baltimore promptly moved down field and was poised with first and goal at the Chiefs one-yard line, but Kansas City's defense made a goal-line stand, rebuffing the Ravens on three straight plays. QB Joe Flacco's third-down pass was broken up by S Eric Berry, setting up a 19-yard K Billy Cundiff FG that gave Baltimore a 3-0 lead.

Kansas City went three and out on its opening drive. On Baltimore's ensuing possession, Hali recorded a sack and strip of Flacco and jumped on the ball, giving the Chiefs great field position at the Baltimore 46-yard line. Two plays later, RB Jamaal Charles reeled off a 41-yard TD scamper, the longest postseason TD run in team history, to put the Chiefs up 7-3 with 2:09 left in the first quarter.

On Kansas City's next possession, a Charles fumble set up Baltimore at their own 45, but KC's defense held. The teams exchanged punts before Flacco and company again moved into Chiefs territory. A nine-yard TD pass from Flacco to RB Ray Rice put the Ravens up 10-7 with 0:19 left to play before halftime, capping an 11-play, 80-yard scoring drive.

On the third play of the third quarter QB Matt Cassel's pass intended for TE Tony Moeaki was batted into the air and intercepted by S Haruki Nakamura. However, a hustling Charles stripped and recovered the ball at the KC 32-yard line, giving the Chiefs a fresh set of downs.

Kansas City moved the ball to the Baltimore 33-yard line, but Charles was thrown for a four-yard loss on fourth and one. Cundiff knocked through a 29-yard FG on the Ravens ensuing drive, extending their lead to 13-7 with 6:36 left in the third quarter.

Chiefs WR Dexter McCluster fumbled the ball on Kansas City's ensuing possession, setting up Baltimore at the Chiefs 17-yard line. Cundiff connected on another 29-yard FG, putting the Ravens up 16-7 with 4:20 left in the third quarter.

Two plays later, Cassel's pass for Moeaki was intercepted by S Dawan Landry, putting the Ravens at the Kansas City 21-yard line. Flacco then hit WR Anquan Boldin in the back of the end zone for a four-yard TD pass, pushing the Ravens advantage to 23-7.

On the first play of Kansas City's next drive, Cassel fumbled the ball and it was recovered by the Ravens. Head Coach Todd Haley challenged the play and the ruling on the field was overturned to an incomplete pass. The Chiefs were eventually forced to punt. Ravens RB Willis McGahee delivered the game's final score as he broke free for a 25-yard TD, extending Baltimore's lead to 30-7 with 4:26 left in the game.

Kansas City took over at the 40-yard line after the Ravens kickoff went out of bounds. Cassel was sacked twice on the drive and his fourth-down pass was intercepted by CB Josh Wilson at the Baltimore 34-yard line. Baltimore was able to run out the clock to seal the victory.

AFL ORIGINS

1958 — Lamar Hunt's efforts to acquire an expansion NFL franchise for his hometown of Dallas were rebuked by the league. However, his desire to secure a professional football franchise was further heightened after watching the historic '58 NFL Championship Game between Baltimore and the N.Y. Giants.

1959 — After another attempt at landing an NFL expansion franchise for Dallas was spurned, NFL officials suggested that Hunt contact the Wolfner family, owners of the Chicago Cardinals franchise. Violet Bidwell Wolfner, mother of current Cardinals owner William Bidwell, and her husband Walter eventually agreed to sell Hunt 20 percent of the Cardinals franchise. Hunt declined the opportunity. He then conceived the concept of forming a second league. "Why wouldn't a second league work?" Hunt recalled. "There was an American and National League in baseball, why not football?" Hunt contacted several other individuals who had expressed interest in the Cardinals franchise – Bud Adams (Houston), Bob Howsam (Denver), Max Winter and Bill Boyer (Minneapolis) – and gauged their interest in forming a second league. Adams quickly signed on and the young league, albeit still very much in its infancy stages, already had its first rivalry.

With four teams in the ranks including Hunt's Dallas franchise, he sought franchises in New York and Los Angeles. Before ownership in those cities was secured, Hunt sought the NFL's blessing for his endeavor, hoping that NFL Commissioner Bert Bell would oversee both leagues. "I told myself I didn't want to go into this if it meant some kind of battle," Hunt remembered. "Of course, this was one of the more naive thoughts in the history of pro sports." Although the NFL wanted no part of Hunt's new league, Hunt gave his blessing for Bell to mention it in the course of his testimony before a Congressional committee on July 28th. "At that point, no one had put up a penny and I had no commitments from New York or Los Angeles," Hunt continued. "But Bert Bell had announced it. We were in business."

Within weeks, Barron Hilton (Los Angeles) and Harry Wismer (New York) agreed to enter the six-team league. On August 14th, the first meeting of the new league was held in Chicago. Charter memberships were issued to six original cities — Dallas, New York, Houston, Denver, Los Angeles and Minneapolis. The league was officially christened the American Football League on August 22nd. Ralph Wilson (Buffalo) was extended the league's seventh franchise on October 28th and William Sullivan (Boston) became the league's eighth owner on November 23rd, the date of the inaugural AFL draft, which lasted 33 rounds. All eight original owners agreed to contribute $25,000 and to post a performance bond of $100,000. "Before there was a player, coach or general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," said Sullivan. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL."

In November, the league nearly disbanded before it even played a single game. Winter announced that he was withdrawing from the league to accept an NFL franchise for Minneapolis. The NFL now envisioned an expansion franchise for Dallas, as well, but Hunt declined that offer. "It (the AFL) was so important to me," Hunt said. "I had a lot of money in it, a lot invested in it. Emotionally, I spent a lot of time, effort and energy on it. I felt an obligation. A guy like Billy Sullivan had everything he had in it. It wouldn't have been the right thing to do."

The AFL forged forward as former World War II hero and two-term South Dakota governor Joe Foss was named commissioner on November 30th. A second, 20-round AFL draft was held on December 2nd. Hunt pursued both legendary University of Oklahoma coach Bud Wilkinson and N.Y. Giants defensive assistant Tom Landry to lead his Texans franchise. Wilkinson opted to stay at Oklahoma, while Landry was destined to coach the NFL's franchise in Dallas. Hunt settled on a relatively unknown assistant coach from the University of Miami (Florida), Hank Stram. "One of the biggest reasons I hired Hank was that he really wanted the job," Hunt explained. "It turned out to be a very lucky selection on my part."

THE FOOLISH CLUB

The whole idea of the AFL seemed so far-fetched, the eight team owners were whimsically named "The Foolish Club." Lamar Hunt credited Wayne Valley of the Oakland ownership group for coining that moniker. "I was an amateur photographer and had taken some color pictures of the '64 season," Hunt explained. "I sent out a montage as Christmas gifts one year. At the top was the hand-lettered phrase, The Foolish Club." Both the name and the league would stick.

1960 — Hunt was elected President of the AFL on January 26th. Minneapolis officially withdrew from the AFL on January 27th. An ownership group from Dallas was awarded an expansion NFL franchise on January 28th to begin play that season in direct competition with the Texans. That same day, AFL owners approved the two-point conversion rule which was utilized for the AFL's 10-year existence, a rule that wouldn't resurface in the NFL for 34 more years. On January 30th, Oakland replaced Minneapolis as the eighth AFL outpost. In another ironic twist, the Chicago Cardinals franchise which Hunt had attempted to purchase a year earlier received permission from the NFL to transfer to St. Louis on March 13th. Perhaps the most important moment in the AFL's formative years came on June 9th when the league signed a five-year television contract with ABC that paid each club $112,000 during the '60 season.

The Texans set up offices in the Mercantile Securities Building, while Foss headquartered the AFL offices out of Dallas, as well. The Texans shared the Cotton Bowl for three seasons with the NFL's Cowboys. Reserved seats were $4, general admission $2 and high school students paid $.90 that initial season. Don Rossi served as the team's General Manager until November when he was succeeded by Jack Steadman. The Texans conducted their inaugural training camp at the New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell, NM. The club embarked on a whirlwind preseason barnstorming tour that featured road games in Oakland, Tulsa, Boston, Abilene and Little Rock. An announced crowd of 51,000 at the Cotton Bowl witnessed a 24-3 victory vs. Houston (9/2) as the club concluded a perfect 6-0 preseason record.

The initial regular season victory in team history came by a 34-16 count at Oakland (9/16) thanks to 88 rushing yards, a TD and two FGs from FB Jack Spikes (TCU). In addition to Spikes, the Texans also had a strong home-state identity with QB Cotton Davidson (Baylor), LB Sherrill Headrick (TCU) and RB Abner Haynes (North Texas State). Haynes led the league with 875 rushing yards and nine TDs, as well as combined net yards (2,100) and punt return average (15.4). Haynes' combined net yardage mark remained a franchise record until 2001. Thanks to Haynes, the Texans had a flashy, high-scoring club, which finished the year at 8-6 as three close losses kept the squad from challenging for the division title. The Texans averaged 24,500 for their home games, the highest average in the league.

1961 — Don Klosterman joined the franchise as Director of Player Personnel and a wealth of college talent was infused into the franchise's veins. The Texans and the NFL's Dallas Cowboys both drafted LB E.J. Holub (Texas Tech), described by many scouts as "the best football player in America." Holub decided to play for the Texans, joining three future Chiefs Hall of Famers – DT/DE Jerry Mays (SMU), TE Fred Arbanas (Michigan State) and T Jim Tyrer (Ohio State) – as part of the club's draft class. The club moved its training camp to Hunt's alma mater of SMU and started the regular season at 3-1 before hitting a six-game losing skid, the longest such streak of Stram's tenure with the franchise. One of those losses was a 28-21 decision in a Friday night contest at Boston (11/3) which featured a bizarre ending as a raincoat-clad fan knocked down a potential game-tying TD from Davidson to E Chris Burford on the game's final play. The team rebounded to claim wins in three of its final four contests to finish 6-8, marking the club's second straight finish behind the Chargers in the AFL West standings.

1962 — Stram was named Coach of the Year and RB Curtis McClinton (Kansas) was named the '62 AFL Rookie of the Year. Haynes became the franchise's first 1,000-yard rusher, concluding the season with 1,049 yards and an AFL-high 13 rushing TDs.

The Texans clinched their initial AFL Western Division Championship in November and finished with an 11-3 regular season record. Dallas won the '62 AFL Championship when K Tommy Brooker connected on a 25-yard field goal during the second overtime of the title game, giving the Texans a 20-17 victory at Houston (12/23). Spanning an elapsed time of 77:54, the game still stands as the second-longest contest in pro football history as the franchise claimed its first of three AFL titles.

LENNY THE COOL

A pivotal moment in franchise history took place on July 2, 1962 when Hank Stram signed free agent QB Len Dawson. Dawson entered the NFL as a first-round draft pick of Pittsburgh in '57, but was waived by Cleveland on June 12th. After spending five uneventful years in the NFL with the Steelers and Browns, Dawson received his final shot at pro football redemption from Stram. Convinced that Dawson was the man to lead the franchise on the field, the only trade personally orchestrated by Lamar Hunt in team history occurred after the season's first game when the Chiefs sent QB Cotton Davidson to Oakland in exchange for the Raiders first-round pick in '63, a pick that was used to select Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan with the first overall selection. As for Dawson he didn't disappoint in '62, throwing 29 TD passes to earn AFL Player of the Year honors.

GOIN' TO KANSAS CITY

1963—Despite the Texans championship season in '62, the Dallas market simply could not sustain two professional football franchises. Kansas City Mayor H. Roe Bartle learned of Hunt's interest in a new home for the Texans and extended an invitation for Hunt and Jack Steadman to move the franchise to Mid-America. After the duo visited Kansas City on an incognito basis, an ambitious campaign took shape to deliver on Bartle's guarantee to Hunt of tripling the season-ticket base the Texans had enjoyed in Dallas. Kansas City's mayor, nicknamed "The Chief," also promised to add 3,000 permanent seats to Municipal Stadium, as well as 11,000 temporary bleacher seats. Along with Bartle, a number of other prominent Kansas Citians stepped forward to aid in the efforts, putting together more than 1,000 workers to sell season tickets. On May 22nd, Hunt announced he was moving the franchise to Kansas City. Hunt and Stram jested at one point about calling the relocated team the Kansas City Texans, but thanks to the insistence of Steadman and a "name-the-team" contest, the Chiefs were officially christened on May 26th, in part to honor the efforts of Bartle. During their inaugural season in Kansas City, the Chiefs charged $7 for box seats and $6 for reserved seats at Municipal Stadium.

Three highly-touted draft choices began their tenures with the club in '63. Hunt's trade of Davidson landed the number one overall selection in the AFL Draft which Kansas City used to select Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan (Grambling). Ironically, the Raiders would later draft Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw in '67 for the express purpose of blocking Buchanan. The Chiefs tabbed G Ed Budde (Michigan State) with their own number one selection, while stealing another future Hall of Fame inductee, LB Bobby Bell (Minnesota) in the seventh round. Buchanan, Budde and Bell all became starters on their way to a combined 526 games with the team. The first appearance of the Chiefs in Municipal Stadium attracted just 5,721 fans for a 17-13 preseason victory vs. Buffalo (8/9). Tragedy struck the club when rookie RB Stone Johnson (Grambling), who was a sprinter in the '60 Olympics in Rome, suffered a fractured vertebra in his neck in a preseason game vs. Houston (8/30) in Wichita, KS. He died 10 days later on September 8th and his jersey number 33 was subsequently retired. Kansas City opened the regular season with a 59-7 victory at Denver (9/7), a contest that remains the highest-scoring effort in team history. On October 1st, the club moved into its new Swope Park practice facility on East 63rd Street, where the team's headquarters remained until the opening of Arrowhead Stadium in '72. The Chiefs managed just one win and two ties in their next nine games before racking up three consecutive wins to close the year at 5-7-2.

1964 — On January 29th, the AFL and NBC signed a landmark five-year, $36-million television contract beginning with the '65 season. The Chiefs began the year with a 2-1 mark before dropping three consecutive games as several of the team's best players, including LB E.J. Holub, TE Fred Arbanas and S Johnny Robinson, missed numerous games with injuries. Arbanas missed the final two games of the year after undergoing surgery to his left eye, in which he suffered almost total loss of vision. RB Mack Lee Hill (Southern), who signed with the club as a rookie free agent and received a $300 signing bonus, muscled his way into the starting lineup and earned a spot in the AFL All-Star Game. The club finished the season with two consecutive wins to close the season at 7-7, finishing second in the AFL West behind San Diego (8-5-1). An average of 18,126 fans attended each home game at Municipal Stadium, prompting talks at the AFL owners' meeting about the future of the franchise in Kansas City.

THE OTIS ACQUISITION

One of the more colorful tales in franchise lore transpired days before the '65 draft. The Cowboys had WR Otis Taylor (Prairie View A&M) sequestered at the Continental Hotel in Dallas. Chiefs scout Lloyd Wells, who was instrumental in the signing of many key players during the '60s, thought he had Taylor's services secured for the Chiefs when he learned of the Cowboys chicanery. After ascertaining the receiver's location from Taylor's mother, Wells posed as a reporter from Ebony magazine and slipped his phone number to Taylor unbeknownst to a Cowboys "bodyguard" watching Taylor's hotel door. At 3:00 AM one of the greatest "escapes" in franchise history was consummated as the receiver climbed out a bathroom window and into an awaiting Cadillac. Taylor and Wells boarded a flight for Kansas City later that morning and Taylor, with a shiny new vehicle in his possession, was subsequently drafted by the Chiefs in the fourth round, beginning an illustrious Kansas City career.

BIDDING WARS, MERGER TALKS & GLORY DAYS

1965 — The AFL and NFL had been openly competing for talent for years, but that bidding war for players heated up for the Chiefs in '65. Kansas City made RB Gale Sayers (Kansas) their first-round draft pick, but Sayers eventually signed with the Chicago Bears.

The club suffered a devastating blow when RB Mack Lee Hill suffered torn ligaments in his right knee in the next-to-last regular season game of the year at Buffalo (12/12). Following what was expected to be a routine surgery on December 14th at Menorah Hospital in Kansas City, Hill died from what was termed "a sudden and massive embolism." Hunt called Hill's death "the worst shock possible." Beginning the following year, the club annually bestowed the Mack Lee Hill Award on its top rookie or first-year performer in honor of this fallen young star. Just days after Hill's unexpected death, the mourning Chiefs defeated Denver (12/19) to finish the year with a 7-5-2 record.

1966 — The escalation in player salaries paid by the two leagues eventually led to a series of clandestine meetings between Hunt and Tex Schramm of the Cowboys that began in April at Love Field in Dallas. While merger groundwork was being laid, the Chiefs engaged in more subterfuge during the '66 draft. DE Aaron Brown (Minnesota) was highly coveted by many clubs, including the NFL's Steelers. The Steelers couldn't locate Brown on draft day since he was already aboard a flight with Hunt, who carried out the first mid-air signing in team history. Despite being drafted in the 20th round of the AFL Draft, the Chiefs signed Heisman Trophy RB Mike Garrett (USC) who earned AFL Rookie of the Year honors. Plans for the AFL-NFL merger were officially announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle on June 8th. The Chiefs started the season at 3-0, including a 32-10 win at Oakland (9/18) in the first contest played at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. A crowd of 43,885 attended the Chiefs home opener vs. defending AFC Champion Buffalo (10/2), the largest ever to witness a sports event in Kansas City at the time. The Chiefs dropped a 29-14 decision to the Bills, but after the contest, Stram and Buffalo Head Coach Joe Collier negotiated a trade in the middle of the field. Kansas City got K Mike Mercer for a fifth-round pick, solidifying one of the few weaknesses on the squad. Dawson led the league in passing, while Taylor became the first 1,000-yard receiver in franchise history, registering 1,297 yards. The Chiefs finished three games in front of Oakland to claim an AFL West title with an 11-2-1 record, setting the stage for the franchise's second trip to the AFL Championship Game.

1967 — Using a dazzling I-formation offense and a smothering defense, the Chiefs claimed a dominating 31-7 victory in the AFL title game at Buffalo (1/1) on the same day that future Chiefs star Derrick Vincent Thomas was born in Miami, Florida. That victory propelled Kansas City to the first AFL-NFL World Championship Game, later renamed Super Bowl I. The term "Super Bowl" was coined by Hunt during a committee meeting, inspired by a "Super Ball" owned by each of his three children. Although not officially adopted until the third such AFL-NFL World Championship Game, the name Super Bowl was seized upon by the media and quickly became a part of the worldwide sports lexicon. At the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Chiefs met Vince Lombardi's powerful Green Bay Packers (1/15). The Chiefs played the Packers close for a half, trailing 14-10, but Green Bay took control in the final two quarters, winning the game by a score of 35-10.

The club's special teams got a boost with the addition of K Jan Stenerud (Montana State), who originally enrolled in school on a skiing scholarship, and KR Noland "Super Gnat" Smith (Tennessee State). Interest in the team skyrocketed, forcing an increase in seating capacity at Municipal Stadium from 40,000 to 47,000. In June, Jackson County voters approved a $43 million bond issue for construction of The Truman Sports Complex. The first contest between AFL and NFL teams in Kansas City resulted in a commanding 66-24 Chiefs victory vs. Chicago at Municipal Stadium (8/23). Injuries again hit the club hard during the regular season as the Chiefs clawed their way to a 9-5 record.

LEGENDARY LINEBACKERS

The Chiefs found a pair of linebacking gems in the second round of the '67 draft in #51 Jim Lynch (Notre Dame) and #63 Willie Lanier (Morgan State). That duo joined #78 Bobby Bell to form one of the most legendary linebacker trios in pro football annals.

during preseason play. Kansas City began the regular season with four consecutive road games for the only time in team history. After a decisive 27-9 win at San Diego (9/14), the club posted a 31-0 shutout at Boston (9/21), but Dawson sustained a knee injury against the Patriots. The once-optimistic picture for the Chiefs went from bad to worse the following week when backup QB Jacky Lee went down with a broken ankle in a 24-19 loss at Cincinnati (9/28). That injury left the team's most crucial position in the hands of second-year QB Mike Livingston, who took just five snaps as a rookie in '68. However, Livingston engineered a five-game winning streak, while getting plenty of help from the club's defense. The team's home opener at Municipal Stadium was played in a daylong deluge referred to as a "frog-strangler" by Chiefs radio broadcaster Bill Grigsby. The Chiefs and Oilers combined for 14 fumbles in a 24-0 Kansas City victory (10/12). Dawson returned to the starting lineup in a 27-3 win vs. San Diego (11/9) and guided the club to three wins in the season's next four games. Broncos coach Lou Saban was infuriated following the Chiefs 31-17 win vs. Denver (11/27). Trailing 24-17 late in the game, Denver attempted an onside kick that was recovered by LB Bobby Bell, who promptly returned that kick for a 53-yard TD. Livingston started the following week vs. Buffalo (12/7) for an again-injured Dawson, who returned for the regular season finale at Oakland (12/13). A 10-6 loss vs. the Raiders gave the Chiefs an 11-3 record, good for second in the division behind Oakland (12-1-1). In an AFC Divisional Playoff Game at the N.Y. Jets (12/20), Kansas City rode its dominating defense which produced a crucial goal-line stand en route to a 13-6 win over the defending Super Bowl champions to set up a rematch with the Raiders in the final AFL Championship Game.

Striking for 32 Points in Second Quarter, Kansas City Rolls Up Record Score in Exhibition Before 33,041 Fans in the Municipal Stadium

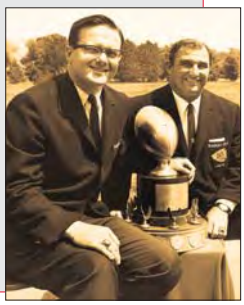

1968 — A debate raged in Kansas City whether the club's new stadium should be built downtown or at a "remote" location. A location in Eastern Jackson County was chosen as the site and groundbreaking ceremonies took place in July with plans calling for a unique "rolling roof" design. The '68 Chiefs boasted one of the finest defenses ever assembled by the club, allowing a franchise-low 170 points (12.1 ppg). The nucleus of the defensive unit was clearly in its prime, producing six AFL All-Stars, including all three of the squad's linebackers. Offensively, Dawson led the AFL in passing for the fourth time. The Chiefs began the season with a 7-1 record and rattled off five straight victories to close the regular season at 12-2, sharing the AFL West crown with the Raiders and setting up an AFL Western Division Playoff Game. Kansas City lost a 41-6 decision at Oakland (12/22) in the club's first postseason outing since Super Bowl I as the Raiders advanced to the AFL Championship Game against the N.Y. Jets.

1969 — The Chiefs continued the momentum they built during the '68 campaign by posting a perfect 6-0 record

1970 — In the final game in AFL history, the Chiefs became the league's only three-time champions, defeating the Raiders by a 17-7 count at Oakland (1/4). Making the

THREE-TIME AFL CHAMPIONS

With a 17-7 win over the Oakland Raiders in the '69 AFL Championship Game, Kansas City became the only team in AFL history to claim three league titles. The club also won AFL Championships in '62 and in '66. During the AFL's 10-year existence, the Chiefs compiled a league-best 87-48-5 (.639) regular season record under head coach Hank Stram.

Hunt and Stram

victory even more satisfying for the Chiefs was the fact that the Raiders players had to sheepishly walk out of the stadium with the luggage they had packed for New Orleans and Super Bowl IV. During the days preceding Kansas City's clash with the heavily-favored Vikings, unsubstantiated media reports associating Dawson with a known gambler hounded the Chiefs quarterback. The night before the game, Ed Sabol of NFL Films approached Vikings coach Bud Grant about being miked for the game. Grant declined, but Stram accepted. As both the Chiefs and the cameras rolled, Stram clamored for his team to run "65 toss power trap" and to "keep matriculating the ball down the field." The Chiefs used the game as a crusade for the American Football League and wore "AFL-10" patches which referred to the league's 10-year existence. The Chiefs used three Stenerud FGs and a Garrett TD run to take a 16-0 halftime lead. A dynamic 46-yard TD pass from Dawson to Taylor in the third quarter sealed the victory as Dawson was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Perhaps the grittiest performance of the day came from S Johnny Robinson, who registered two interceptions and a fumble recovery despite playing with three broken ribs. At approximately 5:20 PM, the final seconds ticked off the clock at Tulane Stadium as the biggest moment in Kansas City sports history came to a peak as the Chiefs were crowned World Champions by claiming a 23-7 victory in Super Bowl IV (1/11). A victory parade ensued upon the club's triumphant return to Kansas City the following day.

Replicating the success of '69 proved a difficult task for Stram and company. RB Mike Garrett, who was the club's all-time leading rusher at the time, was traded to San Diego and replaced in the lineup by RB Ed Podolak. Despite a 44-24 win at Baltimore (9/28) in just the second-ever telecast of ABC's Monday Night Football package, the Chiefs owned a 3-3-1 record at the season's midpoint. One of the season's pivotal junctures came in a 17-17 tie vs. Oakland (11/1). The Chiefs were ahead 17-14 when Dawson apparently sealed the win, running for a first down which would have allowed Kansas City to run out the clock. While on the ground, Dawson was speared by Raiders DE Ben Davidson in an infamous incident that cost the Chiefs a victory and further inflamed the already heated Chiefs-Raiders rivalry. WR Otis Taylor retaliated and a bench-clearing brawl ensued. Offsetting penalties were called, nullifying Dawson's first down. The Chiefs were forced to punt and Raiders K George Blanda eventually booted a game-tying FG with 0:08 remaining. That tie ultimately cost the Chiefs a tie with Oakland for the division crown as Kansas City finished the year with a 7-5-2 record, while the Raiders went 8-4-2.

1971 — The '71 Chiefs were regarded by many as the finest squad ever assembled by the franchise, including Lamar Hunt. "I always thought that was the peak of our best team, our '71 squad," Hunt recalled. The '71 Chiefs fielded perhaps the most complete squad in franchise history, featuring a team-record 11 Pro Bowl performers. Offensively, WR Otis Taylor led the league with 1,110 receiving yards. The longstanding linebacking trio of Willie Lanier, Bobby Bell and Jim Lynch was the league's best. The offensive line was headlined by G Ed Budde and T Jim Tyrer, while the defensive front featured a pair of Pro Bowlers in DTs Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp. Both K Jan Stenerud and P Jerrel Wilson represented the squad in the Pro Bowl, as well. The '71 squad became the first in team annals to register two Monday Night Football wins. After bolting to a 5-1-1 start, the club went 5-2 during the second half of the season to finish the year at 10-3-1. A 16-14 home victory vs. Oakland (12/12) gave the franchise its initial AFC West title.

The great promise of the '71 campaign ended dramatically in the longest game in NFL history, an AFC Divisional Playoff Game played on Christmas Day. It took 82:40, but a 37-yard FG from Dolphins K Garo Yepremian finally ended the game as Miami claimed a 27-24 double OT win in the final football contest played at Municipal Stadium. Podolak accounted for an incredible 350 combined net yards, a figure that remains an NFL postseason record. The baton of power in the AFC was officially passed to the Dolphins, who went on to appear in three consecutive Super Bowls. It would be the Chiefs last playoff appearance for 15 years, effectively signaling the conclusion of the franchise's original glory days.

FOND FAREWELLS

1972 — The last original member of the '60 Dallas Texans departed on July 12th when S Johnny Robinson announced his retirement at training camp. Meanwhile, QB Len Dawson ended speculation about his retirement by signing a two-year contract. Hunt became the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29th.

ARROWHEAD OPENS

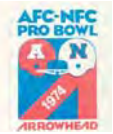

After two different construction strikes and a myriad of other delays, Arrowhead Stadium was officially dedicated on August 12, 1972 when the Chiefs registered a 24-14 victory vs. the St. Louis Cardinals. RB Ed Podolak scored the first TD in the facility. "It was supposed to be finished on July 1st and it wasn't even close," recalled Jack Steadman. In fact, seats weren't even installed yet in some areas of the stadium, including Hunt's private suite, where guests sat on folding chairs that inaugural year. Regular season ticket prices for the team's first season in Arrowhead were $8 for box seats and $7 for reserved seating. Mayor H. Roe Bartle is shown at right trying out the first seat installed in Arrowhead.

The Chiefs lost a 20-10 decision vs. Miami (9/17) on Opening Day at Arrowhead in front of a crowd of 79,829. Municipal Stadium hosted its final pro sporting event as the Royals defeated the Rangers by a 4-0 count (10/4). A standing-room-only crowd of 82,094 fans was in attendance for a 27-14 victory vs. Oakland (11/5), the largest "in-house" attendance total for an NFL contest in Arrowhead's history. After a 5-3 start, a three-game losing streak effectively eliminated the club from playoff contention. An 8-6 record was good enough for only a second-place finish in the AFC West behind Oakland. LB Willie Lanier became the first Chiefs player to receive the prestigious NFL Man of the Year Award.

1973 — The defense kept the club in virtually every game thanks to a nucleus that still included the bulk of the squad's Super Bowl IV starters. QB Mike Livingston started in a 23-13 Opening Day loss vs. Los Angeles (9/16), but Dawson returned to rally the club for three consecutive wins to get the club off to a 3-1 start for a third straight year. Inconsistency and injuries took their toll down the stretch, though. Dawson made his final start of the year in a 23-14 loss at Buffalo (10/29) and was replaced for the remainder of the year by Livingston, beginning a string of three straight seasons in which both players split time at the position. Livingston led the club to three straight wins, putting the team in first place in mid-November with a 6-3-1 record. A 1-2-1 ledger over the season's final month ended the club's postseason aspirations as the team finished the year in a second-place tie with Denver at 7-5-2. Dawson became the second Chiefs player in as many years to win the NFL Man of the Year Award.

1974 — The AFC-NFC Pro Bowl was held at Arrowhead on January 20th with the AFC claiming a 15-13 win thanks to five FGs from Miami K Garo Yepremian. While the club's sparkling new facility was drawing rave reviews, the Chiefs roster was beginning to show its age. The result was the team's first losing season in 11 years as the club was unable to string together consecutive victories during the year, a first in Chiefs franchise history. Many of the club's key players were entering the twilight of their careers: Dawson was 39, T Jim Tyrer was 35, LB Bobby Bell, DT Buck Buchanan and G Ed Budde were 34, T Dave Hill was 33 and WR Otis Taylor was 32. One of the year's few bright spots in the 5-9 season was CB Emmitt Thomas, who led the league with a franchise-record 12 INTs. The final game of the '74 campaign marked the final time all six of Kansas City's Pro Football Hall of Fame players from the club's Super Bowl era took the field together with Stram. Including Lamar Hunt and five future Vikings Hall of Famers, an amazing total of 13 Hall of Fame inductees were involved in that '74 game. That 35-15 loss vs. Minnesota (12/14) provided an anti-climatic conclusion to Stram's illustrious coaching career in Kansas City and was also the final game in a Chiefs uniform for eight-time All-Pro LB Bobby Bell. Three days later, the only head coach in franchise history was relieved of his duties on December 27th after compiling a 124-76-10 regular season record with the club.

1975 — San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator Paul Wiggin was named the second head coach in franchise history on January 23rd. A former Pro Bowl defensive end for the Cleveland Browns, Wiggin inherited the unenviable task of rebuilding a squad whose pool of talent had been largely depleted due to age and a number of ill-fated trades that had left the club devoid of first-round draft choices in '73 and '75. After an 0-3 start to the season, Wiggin directed the Chiefs to three straight wins, beginning with a convincing 42-10 victory vs. Oakland (10/12). The highlight of the season was a 34-31 upset win at Dallas (11/10) on Monday Night Football. But the club could not maintain that success. Owning a 5-5 record heading into the homestretch of the season, injuries to a number of key players crippled the team. The team dropped its final four contests of the year to finish at 5-9 for the second consecutive season. The regular season finale at Oakland (12/21) marked the final games in the Hall of Fame careers of Dawson and Buchanan.

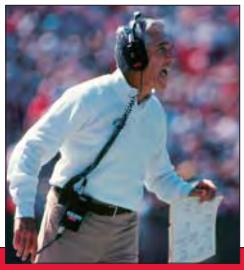

1976 — Buck Buchanan officially hung up his spikes in February, while Dawson announced his retirement on May 1st. Off the field, Jack Steadman was promoted to President and Jim Schaaf was named General Manager in August. On the field, Kansas City's fortunes didn't improve in the second year of the Wiggin regime. The club dropped three straight home games before suffering a 50-17 setback at Buffalo (10/3), opening the season at 0-4 for the first time in team history. The team registered a 3-1 record during a successful midseason stretch, but could not maintain that momentum. After lingering in Dawson's shadow for eight seasons, QB Mike Livingston was firmly entrenched as the team's starter, becoming the first signal-caller to start every regular season game since Dawson in '68. Even though he played well and rallied the squad for wins in two of the season's final three games, the Chiefs still ended the year with their third consecutive 5-9 record. RB Ed Podolak surpassed RB Abner Haynes as the all-time leading ground gainer in team history in the final game of the year vs. Cleveland (12/12). RB MacArthur Lane was another offensive threat, becoming the first player in franchise history to lead the league in receptions (66). One of the club's final ties to its glory days was severed when the dismantling of Municipal Stadium began on April 13th. A portion of the site was later developed into a community garden.

1977 — On the field, the Chiefs suffered their worst season to date, winning just twice and undergoing a midseason coaching change. An 0-5 start doomed the squad with a 44-7 loss at Cleveland (10/30) effectively sealing Wiggin's fate. Despite the club's record Wiggin was still a popular figure in Kansas City, but was nonetheless relieved of his duties on Halloween, marking the only in-season coaching switch in team history. Wiggin concluded his tenure with an 11-24 record. Defensive backs coach Tom Bettis was named interim coach and claimed a 20-10 victory vs. Green Bay (11/6) in the club's initial contest under his direction, but it was the only victory of his brief head coaching tenure. The team endured a six-game losing streak to conclude the season at 2-12. Bettis and the remainder of the coaching staff assembled by Wiggin were released on December 19th one day after a 21-20 loss at Oakland (12/18) in the regular season finale. Marv Levy, the former head coach of the CFL's Montreal Alouettes, was named the fourth head coach in franchise history on December 20th. The heart and soul of the Chiefs once-vaunted defense departed when roommates Lanier and Lynch, who both joined the club together as second-round draft picks in '67, retired following the '77 campaign. Baltimore later acquired Lanier's rights in a trade, but failed to lure him out of retirement.

THE LEVY ERA

1978 — Levy's systematic restocking of a relatively barren defensive roster began with a '78 draft class that included a pair of future Chiefs Hall of Fame enshrinees in DE Art Still (Kentucky) and LB Gary Spani (Kansas State). Another tie to the club's Super Bowl IV team was cut when RB Ed Podolak, who was the club's all-time leading rusher at the time, retired on June 15th. Perhaps Levy's most unconventional tactic in rebuilding the Chiefs was installing the Wing-T offense. "It was a situation where we took over a team that had the worst defensive record in the history of the National Football League," he later explained. "We wanted to keep that defense off the field, so we ran the ball 60 times a game." The '78 Chiefs ran and ran often, posting franchise records with 663 rushing attempts and 2,986 ground yards. Levy's squad ran the ball a staggering 69 times in a 24-23 Opening Day win at Cincinnati (9/3), the most rushing attempts in an NFL contest since '48.

Five different players had 100-yard rushing games during the year, including RB Tony Reed who finished the season with 1,053 yards to become the team's first 1,000-yard back since '67. Despite the squad's Opening Day success, the club lost 10 of its next 11 games, including a pair of OT decisions. However, the team showed signs of improvement with the defense recording a 23-0 shutout vs. San Diego (11/26) as the club concluded its first 16-game schedule with a 4-12 mark.

"GIVE A CHEER FOR KANSAS CITY"
by Marv Levy

Give a cheer for Kansas City,
Loud and clear for the Red and Gold,
As the Chiefs march on to victory
Like our mighty teams of old.

(Refrain)

Rah, Rah, Rah, for Kansas City
Rah, Rah, Rah for Red and Gold
As the Chiefs march on to victory
Like our mighty teams of old

Beat the drum, here they come
Warriors, brave and strong.
In the stands, loyal fans
Cheer our team along

1979 — Kansas City owned a pair of picks in the first round of the draft, selecting DE Mike Bell (Colorado State) and QB Steve Fuller (Clemson). By the season's third game, Fuller had supplanted QB Mike Livingston as the club's starter. With Fuller at the helm, the Chiefs owned a 4-2 record after six games, but a five-game midseason losing stretch sullied that effort. Despite finishing fifth in the AFC West for a second straight season, Kansas City's 7-9 record was a notable accomplishment considering the fact that the division's other four clubs all posted winning records for a second consecutive season. The Chiefs lost a 3-0 decision at Tampa Bay (12/16) in one of the most water-logged contests in franchise annals. As both clubs struggled to move the ball under monsoon-like conditions, a late, fourth-quarter FG by the Buccaneers averted the NFL's first scoreless tie since '43.

1980 — An infusion of new talent continued at Arrowhead. G Brad Budde (USC), the son of Chiefs Hall of Fame G Ed Budde, was selected as the club's first-round draft choice, making the Buddes the first father-son combination to become first-round draftees of the same team in NFL history. In a then-controversial move on August 26th, the Chiefs released K Jan Stenerud, who at the time was the club's all-time leading scorer. He was replaced by journeyman K Nick Lowery, who had been cut 11 times by eight different teams himself. He finished his career with the club in '93 as the franchise's all-time leading scorer with 1,466 points. After enduring an 0-4 start, the club rebounded to post a four-game victory streak. After Fuller was sidelined with a knee injury late in the season, former Miami 12th-round draft choice QB Bill Kenney entered the lineup. He was so anonymous that when he appeared in that contest, the name on the back of his jersey was inadvertently misspelled "Kenny." Kenney went on to lead the club to a 31-14 victory vs. Denver (12/7) in his initial NFL start. The defense continued to evolve as DE Art Still and S Gary Barbaro became the first Chiefs defensive players to be elected to the Pro Bowl in five seasons. The Chiefs finished the year at 8-8, the club's highest victory tally since '72.

1981 — Kenney supplanted Fuller as the club's starting quarterback and directed the Chiefs to a 6-2 start, including a 37-33 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Steelers at Pittsburgh (9/6) on Opening Day. Second-round draft choice RB Joe Delaney (NW Louisiana) electrified the club's offense by rushing for 1,121 yards, a team single-season record at the time. He was named the AFC's Rookie of the Year and became the first running back to represent the franchise in the Pro Bowl. Delaney registered a 193-yard performance in a 23-10 win vs. Houston (11/15), the best single-game total ever amassed by a Kansas City rookie. "I've played against the best – O.J. Simpson, Gale Sayers, Walter Payton and (Delaney) ranks right up there with them," remarked Oilers Hall of Fame DE Elvin Bethea. "He is great with a capital G." Owning an 8-4 record with four games remaining, the Chiefs were poised to make the playoffs for the first time in 10 years before hitting a three-game losing skid. Kenney missed the club's final three contests due to injury. Fuller guided the club to a 10-6 win at Minnesota (12/20) in the final contest played at Metropolitan Stadium as Vikings fans began dismembering the stadium in the second half, taking seats, pieces of the scoreboard and even chunks of sod as souvenirs. The victory assured the Chiefs of a 9-7 record, the club's first winning mark since '73 as Levy increased the club's victory total for a third consecutive year. Inspired by Washington's "Hail to the Redskins," Levy penned a fight song for the Chiefs, but much like the Wing-T offense, the concept never really caught on.

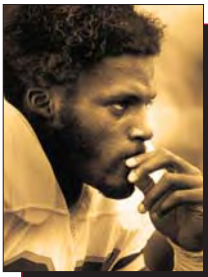

1982 — RB Joe Delaney underwent surgery in May to repair a detached retina in his eye, a radical procedure at the time. Optimism abounded at Arrowhead thanks to the club's promising 9-7 record from '81, but swelling labor unrest spelled doom for both the Chiefs and Levy in '82. The Chiefs split their first two games of the year before a 57-day strike by the NFL Players Association began at midnight on September 20th. The strike concluded on November 17th after six games were cancelled and one was rescheduled, but the Chiefs would never recover, dropping four straight games after their return to the field. C Jack Rudnay, who had been one of the franchise's most durable and decorated offensive performers over the past decade, announced on December 20th that the '82 campaign would be his last. Despite wins in two of the season's final three games, the Levy era concluded as the club finished the strike-shortened campaign at 3-6.

TRAGEDY, TRIUMPHS AND TRANSITIONS

1983 — Marv Levy was released as the club's head coach on January 4th. Dallas Cowboys QBs coach John Mackovic was named the fifth head coach in Kansas City history on February 2nd. The 39-year-old Mackovic became the youngest individual ever to hold that post for the club. The Chiefs held the seventh overall pick in the quarterback-laden '83 NFL Draft and selected QB Todd Blackledge (Penn State). The five other signal-callers selected in the first round that year included John Elway (1st – Baltimore), Jim Kelly (Buffalo – 14th), Tony Eason (New England – 15th), Ken O'Brien (N.Y. Jets – 24th) and Dan Marino (Miami – 27th). LB Bobby Bell became the first Chiefs player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 30th, providing some solace to the franchise which was still mourning the death of RB Joe Delaney.

With Kenney and Blackledge both on the roster, QB Steve Fuller was traded to the L.A. Rams on August 19th. Kenney earned a Pro Bowl berth after racking up a franchise-record 4,348 passing yards, while WR Carlos Carson hauled in 80 passes for 1,351 yards. Despite the team's high-flying aerial game, Mackovic had trouble finding a suitable replacement for Delaney on the ground. The highest scoring contest in franchise history took place as the Chiefs and Seahawks combined for 99 points in a wild, 51-48 OT loss at Seattle (11/27). A meager crowd of 11,377 attended the club's season-ending 48-17 win vs. Denver (12/18), the smallest attendance ever for a Chiefs game at Arrowhead as the club finished at 6-10.

JOE DELANEY (1958-1983)

Tragedy struck the club on June 29, 1983 when Delaney drowned trying to save the lives of three youngsters in Monroe, Louisiana. An overflow crowd that included the Hunt family, prominent members of the Chiefs administration and head coach John Mackovic attended a memorial service held in Delaney's high school gymnasium in Haughton, Louisiana on July 4th. Delaney was posthumously awarded the Presidential Citizen's Medal by Ronald Reagan on July 13th.

1984 — Wayne Rudy, the only head trainer the team had ever known, retired and passed the reins to his assistant Dave Kendall in February. Pro Bowl S Gary Barbaro became the most notable Chiefs player to defect to the rival USFL, signing with the New Jersey Generals on February 2nd after sitting out the entire '83 campaign in a contract dispute. All-America NT Bill Maas (Pitt) and T John Alt (Iowa) were both tabbed in the first round of the draft. Maas was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, while Alt eventually became the cornerstone of the club's offensive line later in the decade. Kansas City's defense registered a team-record 11.0 sacks in a 10-6 win vs. Cleveland (9/30), coming one sack shy of the NFL single-game record. Kenney suffered a broken thumb during the preseason and was sidelined until the season's seventh week. Blackledge opened the first six contests of the season and had the club at 3-3. Kenney returned to the starting lineup at the N.Y. Jets (10/21), but the club dropped four of its first five contests after his return. However, the team rattled off three consecutive wins to conclude the year at 8-8.

THE INTERCEPTORS

S Gary Barbaro's departure and the trade of Pro Bowl CB Gary Green in '84 began a youth movement that produced the most vaunted secondary in team history. CB Kevin Ross (#31), S Deron Cherry (#20), CB Albert Lewis (#29) and S Lloyd Burruss (#34) accounted for a combined 13 Pro Bowl appearances with the Chiefs.

1985 — The Chiefs got off to a flying start with a 47-27 win at New Orleans (9/8), while Cherry tied an NFL record by registering four interceptions in a 28-7 win vs. Seattle (9/29) as the club boasted a 3-1 record four games into the season. The club was then confronted with a seven-game losing streak that was not snapped until Blackledge was installed as the starter vs. Indianapolis (11/24). The team rebounded to win three of its final five contests of the season with Blackledge under center, further inflaming a quarterback controversy that continued into the '86 campaign. One of the few remaining bright spots in a disappointing 6-10 season came in the regular season finale vs. San Diego (12/22) when WR Stephone Paige set an NFL record with 309 receiving yards in a 38-34 win, breaking the previous mark of 303 yards set by Jim Benton (Cleveland) in '45. Paige's mark was subsequently surpassed by a 336-yard effort by WR Willie Anderson (L.A. Rams) in '89.

1986 — LB Willie Lanier was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2nd. On the field, the pieces started coming together for Mackovic. His offense displayed plenty of scoring punch, while the club's defense and special teams became increasingly effective. With the team sitting at 3-3, Kenney replaced Blackledge for the second half vs. San Diego (10/19), guiding the club to a 42-41 victory. That win was the first of four consecutive triumphs with Kenney at the helm, the club's longest winning streak since '80. Poised with a 7-3 record after 10 games, three straight losses in November put the Chiefs playoff chances in jeopardy. Two December wins gave Kansas City a 9-6 mark, putting the Chiefs tantalizingly close to their first postseason berth in 15 years.

The defining moment of the '86 campaign came in the regular season finale at Pittsburgh (12/21). Despite being outgained in total yardage by a 515-to-171-yard margin, the Chiefs were able to notch a 24-19 victory as all of the team's points came via special teams on a blocked punt return, a FG, a kickoff return and a blocked FG return. With a 10-6 record the Chiefs earned an AFC Wild Card berth, winning a tiebreaker with Seattle. Kenney was injured in the fourth quarter of the Steelers contest, meaning Blackledge would draw the starting assignment for the club's first playoff contest since '71, a 35-15 loss at the N.Y. Jets (12/28). Little did anyone know at the time that it would be the final contest of the Mackovic era.

1987 — One of the most tumultuous weeks in franchise history took place following the club's playoff loss vs. the Jets. Assistant head coach and special teams coach Frank Gansz, who had been an integral figure in the club's remarkable '86 campaign, resigned his position on January 7th in order to pursue opportunities as an NFL offensive coordinator. It was announced in an impromptu press conference that Mackovic was relieved of his duties on January 8th. A popular figure among Chiefs players, Gansz was reinstated on January 10th and was named the sixth head coach in franchise history.

QB Len Dawson became the third Chiefs player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 8th, while injuries forced the retirement of the club's all-time leading tackler LB Gary Spani. A duo of rookies made a splash in a 20-13 win on Opening Day vs. San Diego (9/13) as RB Paul Palmer returned a kickoff for a TD and RB Christian Okoye dashed for 105 yards. A 24-day NFLPA strike began on September 22nd. The club's contest vs. Minnesota (9/27) was cancelled before replacement games were conducted the next three weeks. Much like Marv Levy five years earlier, Gansz's grip on the club's coaching reins was crippled by the labor unrest.

The Kansas City replacement squad was constructed primarily of players cut in training camp. One of the few bright spots was RB Jitter Fields, who remained on the active roster following the strike. The Chiefs strike squad received an ominous welcome in Los Angeles when in the early morning hours prior to a contest vs. the Raiders (10/4), an earthquake rattled Southern California. The visibly shaken Chiefs lost a 35-17 decision later that day. The low point of the year came the following week at Miami (10/11) in the first regular season game played at what then was known as Joe Robbie Stadium. Chiefs QB Matt Stevens was injured early in the contest, forcing into duty QB Alex Espinoza, a player who had never taken an NFL snap. The result was a 42-0 Dolphins victory, setting the stage for an 0-3 performance by Kansas City's replacement unit, giving the Chiefs a 1-4 record before the club's regular roster returned at San Diego (10/25). Five straight losses followed, giving the Chiefs a team-record nine-game losing skid. For the only time in team history, five different players started games at quarterback for the club. Behind Kenney, Kansas City won two of its last three games to conclude the strike-shortened 4-11 campaign.

1988 — The spring was marked by several notable trades as the club jockeyed to improve on its 4-11 finish in '87. Blackledge was traded to Pittsburgh on March 29th and 12-year veteran QB Steve DeBerg was acquired from Tampa Bay on March 31st. The Chiefs moved up one spot in the first round of the draft to select DE Neil Smith (Nebraska) with the third overall pick. Kenney opened the team's initial two games, but was replaced by DeBerg at halftime at Seattle (9/11). In his initial start as a member of the Chiefs, DeBerg guided the team to a 20-13 win vs. Denver (9/18). However, six losses and a tie ensued as Kenney and DeBerg jostled for the QB job. As the season drew to a close, it became apparent the winds of change were blowing across the organization. President Jack Steadman resigned on December 8th, while General Manager Jim Schaaf was relieved of his duties the same day. Steadman was later named Chairman of the Board. On the field, the Chiefs finished the year at 4-11-1 as questions swirled regarding Gansz's future and who would fill the club's leadership void. Those winds of change became a full-fledged gale one day after the season's conclusion when former Philadelphia Eagles and USFL executive Carl Peterson was named the club's President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer on December 19th.

A RETURN TO PROMINENCE: CARL PETERSON AND MARTYBALL

1989 — After compiling an 8-22-1 record in two seasons, Gansz was relieved of his duties as head coach on January 5th. Peterson's selection as Gansz's successor was former Cleveland Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer, who was named the seventh head coach in Chiefs history on January 24th. The first draft choice of the Peterson era set the tone for the next decade as the club selected Hall of Fame LB Derrick Thomas (Alabama) with the fourth overall selection. Thomas paired with Smith to form one of the most feared pass-rushing duos in NFL history, compiling a combined 212.5 sacks during their illustrious Chiefs careers. The Peterson-Schottenheimer era got off to an inauspicious start in a 34-20 loss at Denver (9/10) as DeBerg's first pass attempt was intercepted and returned for a TD. The club won just four times in its next 10 games as former Eagles QB Ron Jaworski and QB Steve Pelluer, who was acquired in a trade from Dallas, each opened three games apiece during that span. DeBerg regained the starting job for the final five weeks of the season, generating four wins that put the Chiefs just out of postseason qualification at 8-7-1. A 34-0 shutout win vs. Houston (11/26) highlighted the club's stretch run. RB Christian Okoye became the first Chief to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,480 yards, while Thomas won consensus NFL Rookie of the Year honors.

1990 — The foundation for the club's formidable offensive line of the '90s gathered two key ingredients when C Tim Grunhard (Notre Dame) and G Dave Szott (Penn State) were acquired in the draft. Construction began on the club's indoor practice facility at the Truman Sports Complex, giving the Chiefs an 80-yard indoor field and weight room facilities upon its completion. DT Buck Buchanan was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 4th. The Chiefs made their initial overseas appearance, losing a 19-3 American Bowl decision vs. the L.A. Rams at Olympic Stadium in Berlin, Germany (8/11). Schottenheimer's club got out of the starting gate quickly, winning three of their first four games. The club then struggled, splitting its next six contests.

Free agent RB Barry Word produced a 200-yard rushing outburst in a 43-24 victory vs. Detroit (10/14), becoming the first player in team history to top the 200-yard plateau. Kansas City led the NFL with a franchise-record 60.0 sacks, including a team-record 20.0 by LB Derrick Thomas. Thomas established an NFL single-game record with 7.0 sacks in an inspiring Veterans Day performance vs. Seattle (11/11), a game the Seahawks miraculously won, 17-16, on a last-second, 25-yard TD pass to WR Paul Skansi by future Chiefs QB Dave Krieg. That loss brought on the furious stretch run which saw the club record victories in six of its last seven outings. Behind DeBerg's offensive leadership (23 TD passes with just four INTs) Kansas City finished the year with a franchise-best +26 turnover differential. The Chiefs clinched their first postseason berth since '86 with a 24-21 win at San Diego (12/23) and finished the year at 11-5, marking the franchise's best finish since '69.

1991 — The Chiefs suffered a heart-breaking, 17-16 loss at Miami (1/5) in an AFC Wild Card Game as K Nick Lowery's potential game-winning 52-yard FG fell short with 0:56 remaining. On July 27th, K Jan Stenerud became the first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Chiefs became members of Wisconsin's "Cheese League," moving their training camp to the University of Wisconsin - River Falls after spending the previous 28 summers at William Jewell College in Liberty, MO. The club's 14-3 win vs. Atlanta (9/1) on Opening Day initiated the 141-game sellout streak at Arrowhead that carried into the 2008 campaign. The Chiefs were featured on Monday Night Football three times, including a 33-6 victory over the defending AFC Champion Buffalo Bills before a raucous crowd of 76,120 fans at Arrowhead (10/7), marking the club's first home MNF contest in eight years. The club finished the regular season at 10-6, marking the first time since '68-69 that the franchise had qualified for the playoffs in consecutive seasons. A 27-21 victory at the L.A. Raiders (12/22) in the regular season finale gave the Chiefs the right to host the Silver and Black just six days later in the inaugural postseason game in Arrowhead's history. Thanks to six takeaways, the Chiefs registered their first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV with a 10-6 win in an AFC Wild Card Game vs. the L.A. Raiders (12/28).

1992 — The Chiefs lost a 37-14 decision at Buffalo (1/5) in an AFC Divisional Playoff matchup as the Bills dynamic offense proved to be too much for the Chiefs. A longtime nemesis with Seattle, "Plan B" free agent QB Dave Krieg was signed as the club's starter on March 19th. A melancholy off-season awaited the Chiefs, who mourned the passing of Player Personnel Director Whitey Dovell on May 11th and Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan on July 16th. Both Dovell and Buchanan lost courageous battles with cancer. Six-time Pro Bowl S Deron Cherry who originally joined the club as a free agent punter, announced his retirement in July after registering 50 interceptions in 11 seasons with the franchise. The Chiefs retired the jerseys of Buchanan (86), LB Willie Lanier (63) and K Jan Stenerud (3) in a ceremony prior to a preseason contest vs. Buffalo (8/24).

First-round draft pick CB Dale Carter (Tennessee) won the Bert Bell Trophy as the NFL's Rookie of the Year. The very first time Carter touched the ball in an NFL contest, he registered a 46-yard punt return TD in a 24-10 win at San Diego (9/6). RB Christian Okoye surpassed RB Ed Podolak as the all-time leading rusher in team history vs. Seattle (9/13). Injuries eventually made the '92 campaign Okoye's last with the Chiefs after he compiled 4,897 rushing yards with the franchise. The club got off to a 3-1 start, but was faced with a 4-4 record at the season's midpoint. Despite four consecutive victories, the club's postseason hopes still came down to the season's final contest. Owning a 9-6 record and needing one more victory to secure a playoff berth, the Chiefs defense tallied three TDs, while Krieg tossed a pair of scoring passes as Kansas City claimed a 42-20 win vs. Denver (12/27) to finish the season with a 10-6 record.

1993 — The Chiefs made a quick exit from the playoffs as Krieg was sacked 7.0 times in a 17-0 AFC Wild Card loss at San Diego (1/2). The Chiefs spent the off-season installing the "West Coast" offense under the direction of new offensive coordinator Paul Hackett, who at one time served as QBs coach to Joe Montana in San Francisco. On April 20th, the Chiefs traded for Montana, who directed the 49ers to four Super Bowl victories. G Will Shields (Nebraska) was selected with the club's third-round draft choice, rounding out the "law firm" of Grunhard, Szott and Shields which anchored the interior of Chiefs offensive line for most of the decade. On June 9th the club signed another future Canton enshrinee, inking unrestricted free agent RB Marcus Allen, who had spent 11 seasons tormenting the Chiefs as a member of the Raiders. Montana and Allen made their debuts in a 27-3 win at Tampa Bay (9/5), marking Montana's first Opening Day appearance since '90. Shields initiated a franchise-record streak of 223 consecutive starts the following week at Houston (9/12). Thanks to a pair of Monday Night Football wins at Arrowhead, the club owned a 6-2 midseason mark. Before taking the field in a Sunday night contest at Minnesota (12/26), the team learned it had clinched its first AFC West title since '71 thanks to a Raiders loss earlier in the day. The team finished the season with an 11-5 regular season record, marking the club's fourth consecutive year with a double-digit victory tally. LB Derrick Thomas was named the NFL's Man of the Year following the season. Thomas, who founded "The Third and Long Foundation," received the honor in large part due to his efforts in promoting children's literacy.

1994 — Kansas City got its first true taste of "Montana Magic" as the Hall of Fame passer engineered a brilliant comeback in a 27-24 OT win in an AFC Wild Card thriller vs. Pittsburgh (1/8). Next up was a red-hot Oilers squad that had won 11 straight games to conclude the regular season. Heavily-favored Houston opened up a 13-7 lead in the fourth quarter, but once again, Montana had a comeback in mind, guiding the club to a 28-20 victory at Houston (1/16). The Chiefs playoff journey ended in their initial AFC Championship Game appearance at Buffalo (1/23). Montana was knocked out of the contest early in the second half as Buffalo claimed its fourth straight AFC title by a score of 30-13.

While the previous off-season saw the Chiefs stockpile several key free agents, a number of familiar faces departed following the '93 season, most notably CBs Albert Lewis (Raiders) and Kevin Ross (Falcons), as well as K Nick Lowery (Jets). QB Steve Bono was acquired in a trade with San Francisco on May 2nd to serve as Montana's backup. The most dramatic change in Arrowhead's appearance occurred as a grass playing field was also installed, replacing the previous AstroTurf surface. The club made its second American Bowl appearance, meeting Minnesota in Tokyo, Japan (8/7).

The Chiefs home opener was one of the most-ballyhooed regular season contests in team history as Montana made his only career appearance vs. San Francisco (9/11). The Chiefs prevailed over the 49ers and Montana's replacement, QB Steve Young, by a 24-17 count before a crowd of 79,907, the second-largest "in-house" attendance in Arrowhead history. After starting the season 3-0, the Chiefs dropped back-to-back games before snapping an 11-game losing streak at Denver's Mile High Stadium (10/17) in a memorable Monday night contest. Montana orchestrated a masterful comeback, connecting with WR Willie Davis for a five-yard TD with 0:08 remaining to give the Chiefs a 31-28 triumph. A late-season, three-game losing skid put the club's playoff hopes in jeopardy. The Chiefs found themselves at 8-7 faced with a do-or-die regular season finale vs. the L.A. Raiders (12/24) in the final NFL contest ever played at the L.A. Coliseum. Allen had his finest game in a Chiefs uniform, rushing 33 times for 132 yards en route to a 19-9 win. At 9-7, Kansas City qualified for the playoffs for a fifth straight season. However, the Chiefs made a rapid departure from the playoffs in Montana's final professional contest at Miami (12/31). Montana and Dolphins QB Dan Marino conducted a masterful first-half duel that ended deadlocked at 17-17, but Miami eventually prevailed by a 27-17 count.

1995 — Montana announced his retirement from football after 16 years in the NFL on April 18th and Bono was promoted to the starting job. Immediately, so-called media experts predicted much gloom and doom for the '95 Chiefs, leading Schottenheimer to quip during training camp that his club had been picked "sixth in a five-team division." Led by Bono, who merited a Pro Bowl berth, Kansas City posted an NFL-best 13-3 record with unblemished 8-0 marks in the AFC West and at Arrowhead. The Chiefs led the NFL in rushing offense (138.9 ypg), scoring defense (15.1 ppg) and turnover ratio (+12). A 24-3 win at Arizona (10/1) featured a surreal 76-yard TD run on a bootleg by Bono as the Chiefs initiated a seven-game winning streak, the franchise's longest since '69. In a Monday Night Football classic vs. San Diego (10/9), WR Tamarick Vanover returned a punt for an 86-yard TD to provide the winning points in a 29-23 victory, the team's third straight home win in overtime. The club's defense began to flex its muscle, beginning with a 21-7 win at Denver (10/22). The contest, played in a Rocky Mountain snowstorm, featured the 100th rushing TD of Marcus Allen's career. The Chiefs won a home game for the third time on a last-second return score that concluded in Arrowhead's West end zone when CB Mark Collins scooped up a fumble for a 20-13 win vs. Houston (11/19). Kansas City clinched a division title with a 29-23 victory at Oakland (12/3) en route to a 13-3 regular season record and a team-record sixth consecutive postseason berth. The Chiefs were represented by seven players in the Pro Bowl, more than any other AFC team.

HALLELUJAH CORNER

The term "Hallelujah Corner" was coined in '95 after Kansas City won three separate contests via return scores culminating in Arrowhead's West end zone. The first of those hallowed victories was a 23-17 OT decision vs. Oakland (9/17) that culminated when CB James Hasty returned an interception for a 64-yard TD, prompting head coach Marty Schottenheimer to plant a celebratory postgame kiss on the cornerback.

1996 — The Chiefs dropped an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/7) on a blustery afternoon with the temperature at 11 degrees and a wind chill of -9. Three INTs and a trio of missed FGs contributed to the 10-7 loss at Arrowhead. The Chiefs entered the '96 campaign with essentially the same lineup as the club boasted in '95 and were featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated along with Green Bay as preseason Super Bowl favorites. Kansas City made its third American Bowl appearance, this time vs. Dallas in Monterrey, Mexico (8/5). The club started the season with a 4-0 record for the first time in team history, but the season's lofty expectations came crashing down as the squad lost three of its next four games. A three-game winning streak, including a victory over the eventual Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers, put the club back in postseason contention at 8-3.

That rosy picture quickly crumbled in a 28-14 loss vs. San Diego (11/24) as Bono was relieved in the second half by QB Rich Gannon. Gannon assumed the starting reins for a 28-24 win in a Thanksgiving Day game at Detroit (11/28) as Allen registered his 111th career rushing TD to surpass Walter Payton as the NFL's all-time leader in that department, a mark that was later broken by Emmitt Smith. Needing just one more win to qualify for the playoffs, the Chiefs dropped their next two games as an injury-hampered Gannon was sidelined for good in the second quarter of a 24-19 loss vs. Indianapolis (12/15). Faced with a must-win situation in a frigid regular season finale at Buffalo (12/22), the club's postseason hopes hinged on Bono. Despite a 20-9 loss to the Bills, the Chiefs still had a shot to slip into the playoffs if Atlanta could secure a win at Jacksonville. However, Atlanta K Morten Andersen's 30-yard FG attempt went wide left with 0:04 remaining, preserving a 19-17 win and the AFC's final Wild Card spot for the Jaguars, who won a tiebreaker with Kansas City. The Chiefs finished with a 9-7 record, missing the postseason for the first time since '89.

1997 — Kansas City dramatically retooled its roster in '97, beginning with free agent QB Elvis Grbac, who signed with the club on March 17th. In addition to Grbac, the Chiefs lineup featured 11 new starters, including WR Andre Rison, who won team MVP honors after becoming the club's first Pro Bowl receiver in a decade. On defense, the club's top four picks from the '96 Draft, S Jerome Woods, S Reggie Tongue, DE John Browning and LB Donnie Edwards, all emerged as starters. T John Alt announced his retirement at training camp in River Falls, WI on July 21st. All the new faces quickly formed a cohesive unit as the Chiefs posted a 13-3 record, an 8-0 Arrowhead mark and their second AFC West title in three years. The club engineered several dramatic finishes, the first of which came in a Monday Night Football thriller at Oakland (9/8) when Grbac connected with Rison on an improbable 32-yard TD pass with just 0:03 remaining to cap a 28-27 win. Six days later, Kansas City's defense produced a remarkable goal-line stand to preserve a 22-16 victory at Arrowhead vs. Buffalo (9/14).

After posting a 6-2 record during the season's first half, Kansas City's good fortune appeared to run out vs. Pittsburgh (11/3) when Grbac suffered a broken clavicle. However, Gannon led the team to a 5-1 mark in their next six outings.

K Pete Stoyanovich provided one of the year's most memorable moments, connecting on a line-drive 54-yard FG as time expired to give Kansas City a 24-22 win vs. Denver (11/16). San Francisco entered Arrowhead boasting an 11-game winning streak and departed after suffering a 44-9 defeat (11/30), while the Chiefs vaunted defensive unit pitched a 30-0 shutout vs. Oakland (12/7). The Chiefs led the NFL in scoring defense, allowing a mere 14.5 points per game. The 232 total points permitted by the Chiefs in '97 were the lowest tally ever allowed in a 16-game season in team history. Kansas City also broke a 63-year-old mark owned by the '34 Detroit Lions by not permitting a second-half TD in 10 consecutive games. Grbac returned for the regular season finale vs. New Orleans (12/21) as the squad finished the year with six consecutive victories, a first in team history.

1998 — The two teams with the AFC's top records squared off when Denver (12-4) visited Kansas City (13-3) for an AFC Divisional Playoff Game (1/4). Grbac started the contest for Kansas City and despite holding an edge in total yardage, the Chiefs could not convert on several key scoring opportunities, dropping a 14-10 decision to their division foe. On April 9th, RB Marcus Allen announced his retirement, concluding a brilliant 16-year NFL career. A whirlwind preseason saw the Chiefs play another American Bowl contest, this time vs. Green Bay in Tokyo, Japan (8/1), as well as a preseason game vs. Tampa Bay in Norman, Oklahoma (8/8).

A '98 campaign which began with much promise had its high hopes dashed as the Chiefs suffered several major injuries beginning in a season-opening victory vs. Oakland (9/6) that featured 6.0 sacks from LB Derrick Thomas. Grbac was lost for four games due to a shoulder injury, while All-Pro G Dave Szott's year came to an end with a biceps tear. In total, 11 different starters missed a total of 45 games due to injuries. Gannon led the team to a 4-1 start that included a water-logged, 17-6 Sunday night win vs. Seattle (10/4), a contest that was delayed for 54 minutes due to torrential rains. However, the club would never recover from an ensuing six-game losing streak, the longest of Schottenheimer's tenure. The low point of that stretch came in a penalty-marred 30-7 loss vs. Denver (11/16) on Monday Night Football. The club was hampered by crucial penalties throughout the season, setting dubious NFL records for penalties (158) and penalty yardage (1,304). Despite registering wins in three of the season's final five games, the club finished the year at 7-9, snapping a string of nine consecutive winning seasons.

DERRICK VINCENT THOMAS (1967-2000)

On January 23, 2000 nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in a one-vehicle accident just east of the Kansas City International Airport on I-435. Ten other individuals were killed in a separate, 24-vehicle accident that same day just north of KCI on I-29. Thomas was moved to Jackson Memorial Hospital in his hometown of Miami the following day. Although confined to a wheelchair, Thomas had made substantial progress and was in good spirits when he was visited by Chiefs President Carl Peterson in Miami on February 7th. The next day, Thomas' condition took a shocking turn and at 10:10 AM (ET) on February 8th, he was pronounced dead after suffering cardiac arrest. February 11th was declared "Derrick Thomas Red Friday" in Kansas City and on February 14th nearly 23,000 mourners paid their final respects to their fallen hero at Arrowhead Stadium, where Thomas' body lay in state and a B-2 Stealth bomber from Whiteman Air Force Base flew over at 12:01 PM. On February 15th at Kemper Arena, over 6,000 individuals attended a public memorial service for Thomas. On February 19th, Derrick Vincent Thomas was buried in Miami following a memorial service at the Mt. Calvary Church. On March 4th, Peterson announced at the annual 101 Banquet that at the suggestion of Clark Hunt, the Chiefs Most Valuable Player Award would hence be known as the Derrick Thomas Award. Thomas was honored prior to the club's 2000 season opener vs. Indianapolis (9/3). A member of the Pro Football Hall

GUN'S RUN & A FALLEN HERO

1999 — On January 11th, head coach Marty Schottenheimer announced his retirement after 10 seasons. His 101-58-1 (.634) record gave him the best winning percentage of any coach in franchise history. During his tenure, the Chiefs captured three AFC West titles and qualified for the playoffs seven times. Schottenheimer also produced a remarkable 18-3 (.857) record against the Raiders. Gunther Cunningham was appointed the eighth head coach in franchise history on January 22nd. During his four seasons ('95-98) as the Chiefs defensive coordinator, Kansas City's defense allowed a league-low 16.4 points per game. Cunningham produced a 9-7 record, the best mark of any rookie head coach in franchise history and the best mark of any first-year head coach in '99. The club became the sixth team in NFL history to record 100 regular season wins in a decade with a 16-10 triumph at Denver (12/5). Only Buffalo (103-57) finished the decade with a better record than Kansas City's 102-58 mark. Under Cunningham, Kansas City led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio and won the NFL's turnover triple crown in the '90s with a remarkable +128 turnover ratio, a league-high 365 takeaways and an NFL-low 237 giveaways. The Chiefs also recorded 11 return TDs on the season, including a franchise-best nine on defense. The Chiefs ran the ball more times (521) than any other team in the league and ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (130.1 ypg). After a three-game midseason losing streak put the club at 5-5 and on the brink of playoff elimination, the team rallied for a four-game winning string, setting up a make-or-break game in the regular season finale vs. Oakland.

2000 — The Chiefs needed a win vs. Oakland at Arrowhead (1/2) in the regular season finale to seal the AFC West title, while a loss would mean postseason elimination. Kansas City leapt out to a 17-0 lead, but a blocked punt turned the momentum in the game which was eventually won by Oakland 41-38 in OT. That loss provided an ominous start to a year which turned tragic on January 23rd when nine-time
Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in an auto accident.

Despite an 0-2 start, Kansas City bounced back to win its next three contests. Despite trailing 22-14 midway through the fourth quarter, Cunningham's squad rallied for a 23-22 victory at Denver (9/24), giving the Chiefs a win in their final visit to Mile High Stadium. The Chiefs faced Seattle (10/2) in a Monday Night Football contest which was simulcast to 4,391 fans in Kauffman Stadium. The 82,893 fans assembled at Arrowhead and Kauffman Stadiums marked the largest on-site attendance figure in team history. The 24-17 win against the Seahawks marked Kansas City's third victory in a row.

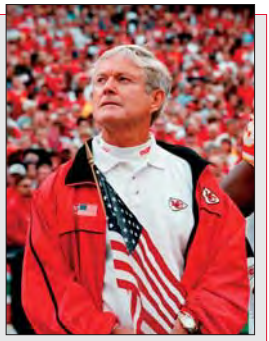

The club's early-season success was also highlighted by a 54-34 win over the defending Super Bowl champion St. Louis (10/22), a contest which featured the most points ever scored at Arrowhead. Combined with a 24-19 victory at Seattle (10/29) in a game played at Husky Stadium, the Chiefs record stood at 5-3 at the season's midway point.

However, a stretch of five road games over a six-week span took its toll on the club as the Chiefs dropped five straight contests to fall out of playoff contention, finishing the year at 7-9.

THE VERMEIL YEARS

2001 — After compiling a 16-16 record in two seasons, Cunningham was relieved of his duties on January 5th. Dick Vermeil, who guided St. Louis to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV following the '99 season, was named the ninth head coach in franchise history on January 12th. On April 20th, the club acquired QB Trent Green in a trade with St. Louis and also signed unrestricted free agent RB Priest Holmes.

SEPTEMBER 11TH

On September 11, 2001 Americans watched with horror as terrorist attacks shocked the nation. Commissioner Paul Tagliabue suspended play for the weekend of September 16th. The Chiefs game at Seattle scheduled for that date was postponed until January 6th. The NFL made a patriotic return in Kansas City when the Chiefs hosted the N.Y. Giants (9/23). Tagliabue delivered a pregame address to the Arrowhead crowd, which greeted the Giants with a rousing ovation. Via a fireman's boot collection that was matched by the Chiefs and the Hunt family, a total donation of $451,413.88 was raised for relief efforts in New York City, an amount believed to be the largest single-day outpouring of spontaneous support by a group of fans and a pro sports team.

The initial regular season victory of the Vermeil era came in convincing fashion at Washington (9/30) when the Chiefs defeated their former head coach Marty Schottenheimer and the Redskins by a 45-13 margin. Although the club finished its initial campaign under Vermeil at 6-10, the team began to take shape down the stretch, winning three of its final four games. Holmes provided a spark to the offense, becoming just the second player in franchise history to lead the NFL in rushing, amassing 1,555 yards to break Christian Okoye's previous single-season record of 1,480.

2002 — The club initiated a season-long series to commemorate the franchise's 40th Anniversary Season in Kansas City in 2002. On April 15th, the Chiefs Honor Grove of over 40 stately Giant Redwoods was established in the Southeast corner of the Truman Sports Complex to epitomize the deep and lasting roots the organization has developed in Mid-America. Hunt's inspiration for the honor grove was a quote from Vikings QB Joe Kapp, who was knocked out of Super Bowl IV. "The Chiefs defensive line was very active and looked like a Redwood Forest," Kapp said after the game. On April 25th, members of the Chiefs coaches, players, staff and cheerleaders visited numerous locations throughout the greater Kansas City community, thanking them for their support of the franchise.

In a season filled with wild comebacks and fantastic finishes, the Chiefs pulled out a remarkable 40-39 Opening Day win at Cleveland (9/8). Starting with that contest, virtually every game was a nail-biter with all but one of the club's eight losses being decided by seven points or less. But despite leading the NFL in scoring for the first time in team history with 467 points and setting a franchise record with 6,000 yards of total offense, the club finished 8-8 to miss the postseason in Vermeil's second season. The team remained in playoff contention until the season's final game thanks to its explosive offense that broke nine team records. The Chiefs also set NFL records by fumbling just seven times and losing just two of those loose balls. Holmes continued the torrid pace he began in 2001, earning NFL Offensive Player of the Year honors from the AP and surpassing his own team record with 1,615 rushing yards. The club's special teams were bolstered by WR Dante Hall, who produced three kick returns for TDs and became the first Chiefs return man to earn a Pro Bowl berth since J.T. Smith following the '80 season.

2003 — Hank Stram and RB Marcus Allen were enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2nd. "Voice of the Chiefs" Mitch Holthus broadcast his 151st game as the club's play-by-play announcer at Houston (9/21), breaking Kevin Harlan's previous record (150). The Chiefs started the regular season with a 9-0 record for the first time in team history, becoming just the ninth team since the AFL-NFL merger to accomplish that feat. That hot start to the season was sparked by Hall, who tied an NFL single-season record by registering four kick return TDs over that span. Hall also became the first player in league annals to accomplish that feat in four consecutive games. The Chiefs overcame a 17-point fourth-quarter deficit for the first time in team history, pulling out an improbable 40-34 OT win at Green Bay (10/12). Kansas City's winning streak came to an end in a 24-19 loss at Cincinnati (11/16).

The Chiefs clinched their first AFC West title since '97 with a 45-17 win vs. Detroit (12/14) as QB Trent Green became the first player in team history to register a "perfect" 158.3 passer rating in a game. Kansas City concluded its 13-3 regular season with a 31-3 victory vs. Chicago (12/28), marking a perfect 8-0 record at home and the club's 13th consecutive regular season victory at Arrowhead Stadium. In that win, Holmes set a trio of TD records. He finished the season with 27 rushing scores, establishing NFL single-season records for both rushing TDs and total TDs. Holmes (61) also bypassed WR Otis Taylor (60) for the most career TDs scored by a player in Chiefs history. The Chiefs five-game improvement in the win column from the previous season tied as the best mark in franchise history. Kansas City became the first AFC team to lead the NFL in scoring in consecutive seasons since San Diego in '81-82 as the club produced a franchise-best 484 points. The team also led the NFL with a +19 turnover differential. Nine Chiefs players received Pro Bowl recognition, the third-highest total in team history, while the club's six offensive Pro Bowlers marked the most in club annals.

2004 — The Chiefs hosted an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/11) in which neither team was forced to punt. Sensational performances by Holmes (176 rushing yards, two TDs) and Hall (208 kickoff return yards, 1 TD) weren't enough as the Colts recorded a 38-31 victory. Defensive coordinator Greg Robinson resigned on January 13th. Vermeil agreed to a two-year contract extension on January 16th. On January 20th, Vermeil hired Gunther Cunningham, who returned to Kansas City as the club's defensive coordinator. On January 30th, G Will Shields was named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year.

The Chiefs got into the victory column with a 27-24 win on Monday Night Football at Baltimore (10/4) after an 0-3 start quickly dampened the club's high expectations. Kansas City's offensive line emerged as one of the NFL's finest units, producing a trio of Pro Bowl performers in Shields, T Willie Roaf and G Brian Waters. Thanks to that offensive front, the Chiefs registered an NFL-record eight rushing TDs in a 56-10 win vs. Atlanta (10/24). The following week Kansas City continued its offensive onslaught with a convincing 45-35 victory vs. Indianapolis (10/31), snapping a seven-game losing streak to the Colts. After surpassing RB Christian Okoye as the all-time leading rusher in franchise history vs. Houston (9/26), Holmes' year came to an abrupt halt when he suffered a season-ending knee injury at Tampa Bay (11/7).

A four-game winning streak in December included a wild 49-38 Monday Night Football road triumph at Tennessee (12/13). That late-season surge was sparked by second-year RB Larry Johnson who accounted for 11 TDs and produced three straight 100-yard rushing efforts in the season's final six contests. Offensively, the Chiefs established a league record with 398 first downs. Kansas City also led the NFL in total offense for the first time in franchise history, averaging 418.4 yards per game. That offense was triggered by Green, who set single-season team marks for passing yards (4,591) and 300-yard games (8). The Chiefs were also the first team in NFL history to have three different RBs boast a 150-yard rushing game in the same season – Holmes, Johnson and Derrick Blaylock. Defensively, fourth-round draft choice DE Jared Allen provided a bright spot with 9.0 sacks, the second-highest total by a rookie in team history.

2005 — TE Tony Gonzalez earned his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl berth and finished the season with a flourish, setting a single-game franchise record with a 14-catch performance in the regular season finale at San Diego (1/2). Gonzalez led the league in receptions (102), the highest total ever amassed by a member of the Chiefs. Despite Gonzalez's record-setting performance, a 24-17 loss to the Chargers brought a disappointing 7-9 campaign to a close.

A daunting early-season 2005 schedule featured a pair of prime-time road contests in the season's first four weeks. Kansas City finished that stretch at 2-2 after claiming a 27-7 home win vs. the N.Y. Jets (9/11) and winning a 23-17 decision at Oakland (9/18). However, the club would suffer a 30-10 loss at Denver (10/26) and was handed a 37-31 loss vs. Philadelphia (10/2) as the Eagles erased an 18-point Chiefs lead.

Hurricane Wilma forced the Chiefs to play their first regular season Friday night game since '64 as a game originally slated for October 23rd was hastily rescheduled. Kansas City actually flew to Miami on the day of the game and defeated the Dolphins by a 30-20 margin. Two weeks later, trailing by three points with only five seconds left and the ball on the one-yard line, head coach Dick Vermeil eschewed a potential game-tying FG attempt and went for broke, putting the game in the hands of RB Larry Johnson vs. Oakland (11/6). Johnson burst into the end zone to give the Chiefs a memorable 27-23 win as Kansas City's record stood at 5-3 at the season's midway point.

The Raiders contest marked the initial start of the season for Johnson, who opened the final nine games of the year in place of RB Priest Holmes, who was lost for the year following a head/neck injury at San Diego (10/30). Johnson topped the 100-yard barrier in the season's final nine contests and finished the season with 1,750 rushing yards, a franchise record at the time.

Shields continued his assault on the record book, as well. The club's contest at Buffalo (11/13) marked the 200th consecutive start of Shields' career, making him just the fourth player since the AFL-NFL merger to accomplish such a feat. In addition to pushing his string of consecutive starts to 207 games by season's end, he was also rewarded with his 11th consecutive Pro Bowl berth, extending another franchise record.

A three-game late-season winning streak boosted the club's postseason hopes, beginning with a 45-17 win at Houston (11/20). Johnson established a franchise record of his own with 211 rushing yards against the Texans en route to earning his initial Pro Bowl berth. Kansas City then registered convincing home victories against a pair of playoff-bound teams with wins vs. New England (11/27) and vs. Denver (12/4), putting the club at 8-4 with four games remaining. However, a pair of road losses put the club's postseason hopes in peril. A 20-7 win in a Christmas Eve quagmire vs. San Diego (12/24) meant the club would need a win in its regular season finale and some help in order to qualify for the AFC playoff field.

A FAREWELL TO THE FOUNDER

2006 — After registering a convincing 37-3 win vs. Cincinnati in the club's first-ever regular season New Year's Day contest, the winds of change blew into Kansas City. Head coach Dick Vermeil publicly announced his retirement following the win over the Bengals, ending season-long speculation about his future. Kansas City finished the season at 10-6, becoming just fourth team since '90 to miss the postseason with a double-digit victory total.

Vermeil conducted a final farewell press conference on January 3rd. He concluded his five-year run as Kansas City's head coach with a 44-36 (.550) record, giving him the third-highest victory tally in team history. Under his guidance, the Chiefs established 34 single-season team records and 14 single-game team records, leading the NFL in total offense by averaging 380.9 yards per game from 2001-05.

On January 9th, Herm Edwards was appointed the 10th head coach in franchise history. Edwards returned to Kansas City after serving as both a scout and an assistant coach with the Chiefs during the '90s. He rejoined the Chiefs organization after a five-year stint as head coach of the N.Y. Jets, leading that franchise to five postseason game appearances. He initially left the Chiefs to serve with former Kansas City assistant coach Tony Dungy in Tampa Bay, where that duo helped restore the Buccaneers franchise to NFL prominence.

On January 24th, the Chiefs and Royals both signed 25-year leases with Jackson County officials to keep both clubs at the Truman Sports Complex. On April 4th, Jackson County voters approved a 3/8 cent tax measure that was anticipated to raise $425 million in improvements to the Sports Complex, including $212.5 million for Arrowhead while the State of Missouri contributed $37.5 million. Those renovation plans also included a new practice facility and office complex for the Chiefs, thanks to contributions from the Hunt family.

The Edwards era got off to an inauspicious start on Opening Day vs. Cincinnati (9/10). QB Trent Green suffered a severe head trauma in the third quarter when he scrambled and went into a hook slide. Bengals DE Robert Geathers delivered a blow to the Chiefs signal caller, whose head violently bounced off the turf. Green lay motionless on the field for several minutes before he was taken to a local hospital. The Chiefs would lose the contest by a 23-10 count.

For the first time since 2000, a quarterback other than Green started a contest for Kansas City as backup QB Damon Huard served as field general the following week at Denver (9/17). Kansas City would drop a tough 9-6 OT decision to the Broncos as the club fell to 0-2.

After an early bye week, Kansas City got its intial victory of the Edwards era in convincing fashion with a 41-0 win at Arrowhead vs. San Francisco (10/1). Huard guided the club to a 23-20 comeback win the following week at Arizona (10/8), but a 45-7 drubbing at Pittsburgh (10/15) left the club's record at 2-3 entering a pivotal two-game homestand.

K Lawrence Tynes drilled a game-winning 53-yard FG to give Kansas City a 30-27 victory vs. San Diego (10/22). That triumph sparked a three-game winning streak to put the club's record at 5-3 at the season's halfway point.

Huard compiled a 5-3 record as a starter in Green's absence, throwing 10 TDs and just one INT over that eight-game span. After several weeks of practice and countless medical tests, Green finally made his return to the lineup in a 17-13 home win vs. Oakland (11/19) in what would be the final game witnessed in person by Founder Lamar Hunt, who was admitted to Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas on November 22nd.

Hunt had long lobbied the NFL for a third game on Thanksgiving and those persistent efforts were rewarded as the fifth-largest paid crowd in Arrowhead history (79,484) packed the stadium for a holiday spectacle. Kansas City won its second contest at Arrowhead in five days as the Chiefs defense turned in a masterful performance in a 19-10 primetime win vs. Denver (11/23), a contest that also marked the initial live game telecast by the NFL Network.

Owning a 7-4 record, Kansas City appeared poised to make a serious run at the postseason, but a three-game losing streak that began with an unlikely 31-28 OT loss at Cleveland (12/3) put those hopes in serious jeopardy. The month of December proved particularly gloomy for the Chiefs as the health of the franchise's patriarch steadily declined.

After originally being diagnosed with prostrate cancer in '98, Hunt quietly and bravely underwent many treatments and surgeries in the ensuing years without complaint. On December 13th, he peacefully passed away in Dallas, surrounded by his family. Memorial services celebrating the life of Hunt were conducted on the SMU campus in Dallas on December 16th and at the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence, Missouri on December 19th.

A mourning team would return to the field the following Sunday and capture a 20-9 win at Oakland (12/23) to keep the Chiefs playoff hopes afloat entering the regular season finale vs. Jacksonville (12/31). The Chiefs prevailed by a 35-30 count against the Jaguars as RB Larry Johnson established an NFL record with 416 rushing attempts on the season and broke his own franchise single-season record with 1,789 rushing yards. After Cincinnati and Tennessee lost earlier in the day, the Chiefs officially got their ticket to the postseason punched when San Francisco won an unlikely 26-23 OT decision at Denver (12/31).

REMEMBERING OUR FOUNDER

On December 19, 2006 over 2,500 individuals gathered at the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence, Missouri to pay their final respects to Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. Pastor Paul Brooks presided over a two-hour service that was attended by the entire Chiefs team and administrative staff, as well as countless dignitaries and fans. Three of the Hunt children – Clark (above), Daniel and Sharron Munson – shared remembrances of their father, while Lamar Hunt, Jr. paid a special musical tribute to the patriarch of the Chiefs family. Other eulogists included Carl Peterson, Rev. Emanuel Cleaver, Len Dawson, Bobby Bell, Willie Lanier, Trent Green and head coach Herm Edwards. Four former Chiefs head coaches were also in attendance – Dick Vermeil, Gunther Cunningham, Marty Schottenheimer and Paul Wiggin. A moving video tribute celebrating Hunt's vibrant life was also shown during the ceremony.

2007 — The Chiefs made their first postseason appearance on the road since '94 in an AFC Wild Card Game at Indianapolis (1/6). Despite enjoying the support of a throng of Kansas City fans who made the trek to the RCA Dome and a valiant first-half performance from the Chiefs defense, Kansas City lost a 23-8 decision.

An artist's rendering for the club's new office complex and practice facility was unveiled in March, while design work and plans for Arrowhead's rehabilitation continued. On June 2nd, the club announced that it was partnering with HBO Sports and NFL Films to produce Hard Knocks: Training Camp with the Kansas City Chiefs - a five-hour documentary series. On June 6th, QB Trent Green was traded to Miami. Green concluded his successful six-year run with the franchise owning a team-record 87.3 passer rating.

The summer months were highlighted by a pair of groundbreaking ceremonies at the Truman Sports Complex. A private, staff-only groundbreaking session for the Chiefs new office and practice headquarters was conducted by Clark Hunt on July 25th. In addition, the Hunt family, Chiefs officials, Senator Kit Bond, Jackson County Executive Mike Sanders and other county legislators participated in a groundbreaking ceremony for the "New Arrowhead" on August 22nd.

On the field, Kansas City overcame an 0-2 start to register a 4-3 record at the bye week, securing sole possession of first place in the AFC West standings. That early-season turnaround was highlighted by a 30-16 comeback win at San Diego (9/30). WR Dwayne Bowe set a Chiefs single-game rookie record with 164 receiving yards in that contest, including a 51-yard TD catch. Bowe would shatter the franchise's single-season rookie receiving records with 70 catches for 995 yards, figures that led all NFL rookies. Meanwhile, TE Tony Gonzalez became the NFL's all-time TD catch leader among tight ends in a 27-20 win vs. Cincinnati (10/14).

However, Kansas City could not maintain any of that positive momentum after the bye week. The downward spiral began when RB Larry Johnson suffered a season-ending right foot injury in a 33-22 loss vs. Green Bay (11/4). That setback began a nine-game losing streak to conclude the regular season. Second-year QB Brodie Croyle supplanted QB Damon Huard in the second half the following week vs. Denver (11/11).

Croyle enjoyed a solid debut in his initial NFL start in the club's next contest at Indianapolis (11/18). That game would mark the final chapter in the illustrious career of RB Priest Holmes, who announced his retirement on November 21st. The all-time leading rusher in franchise history with 6,070 yards made a remarkable comeback after missing almost a season-and-a-half of action. He returned to play four games in 2007, including two starts, before eventually hanging up his cleats for good. DE Jared Allen was a defensive bright spot, leading the league with 15.5 sacks.

After suffering a thumb injury at Detroit (12/23), Croyle returned for the season finale at the N.Y. Jets (12/30) as Kansas City suffered a 13-10 OT setback. Gonzalez recorded his 820th career reception in the game, the most catches of any tight end in NFL history. Gonzalez earned his ninth straight Pro Bowl berth and finished the year with 1,172 receiving yards.

2008 — Head Coach Herm Edwards named Chan Gailey his offensive coordinator on January 16th. CB Emmitt Thomas was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on February 2nd and was officially enshrined in Canton on August 3rd.

Kansas City and Minnesota orchestrated a major trade on April 23rd as the Chiefs sent Pro Bowl DE Jared Allen and a sixth-round pick to the Vikings. In exchange, Kansas City received a first-round selection, two third-round picks and a sixth-round selection. Upon the team's return from training camp in August, the club's football operations moved into the organization's new practice facility. The rest of the franchise's administrative staff completed the move from Arrowhead by season's end.

On the field, the Chiefs owned the dubious distinction of becoming just the fourth team since the AFL-NFL merger to start three different quarterbacks in the season's first three weeks in a non-strike season. TE Tony Gonzalez surpassed TE Shannon Sharpe (10,060) for the most receiving yards by a tight end in NFL history at Carolina (10/5).

After QBs Brodie Croyle and Damon Huard both suffered season-ending injuries vs. Tennessee (10/19), the club eventually turned to QB Tyler Thigpen for good for the season's final nine games. The Coastal Carolina product showed flashes of promise and set a single-season franchise record for QBs with 386 rushing yards. Thigpen outplayed QB Brett Favre, but the Jets signal caller rallied his club as the Chiefs dropped a 28-24 decision at the N.Y. Jets (10/26).

That Jets contest marked the first in a series of excruciating losses. Kansas City squandered a 21-point lead in a 30-27 OT loss vs. Tampa Bay (11/2) and lost a 20-19 decision at San Diego (11/9) as a botched PAT and a failed two-point try doomed the club.

Thigpen's lone victory of the season was a 20-13 win at Oakland (11/30), but the losses continued to mount, including a second one-point setback vs. San Diego (12/14) as the Chargers overcame an 18-point deficit, scoring the game's final 19 points.

On December 15th, President/General Manager and CEO Carl Peterson announced his resignation, effective at the end of the season. The Chiefs dropped a 38-31 decision vs. Miami (12/21). Based on wind chill of -12 at kickoff, it was second-coldest contest in Arrowhead history. A four-game losing streak to end the season closed out with a 16-6 loss at Cincinnati (12/28) as the Chiefs finished the year at 2-14.

A NEW ERA AT ARROWHEAD

2009 — Peterson officially concluded his 20-year tenure with the franchise on January 6th with a farewell press conference. Under Peterson's tenure, Kansas City amassed a 176-143-1 (.552) regular season record, made nine playoff appearances, won the AFC West four times and reached the AFC Championship Game in '93.

On January 13th, longtime New England Patriots executive Scott Pioli was named by Chairman of the Board Clark Hunt as the fifth General Manager in franchise history. During his tenure in New England, the Patriots won Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX, claimed the Lamar Hunt Trophy four times as the AFC Champion and won six AFC East titles. During Pioli's tenure from 2000-08, the Patriots compiled an NFL-best 102-42 (.708) regular season record.

On January 23rd, Herm Edwards was relieved of his duties as head coach. He produced a 15-33 regular season record in three seasons guiding the franchise. The late LB Derrick Thomas was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2009 on January 31st. Thomas became the 10th member of the Chiefs to be enshrined in Canton. He joined LBs Bobby Bell (Class of '82) and Willie Lanier (Class of '86) as the third linebacker in that esteemed group.

Hunt and Pioli introduced former Arizona Cardinals offensive coordinator Todd Haley as the 11th head coach in franchise history on February 6th. He helped the Cardinals reach Super Bowl XLIII, marking the franchise's first NFL title game since '47. The son of longtime NFL personnel executive Dick Haley, the younger Haley oversaw an Arizona offense that registered a franchise-record 427 points in 2008. The first major move of the Chiefs new leadership team came on February 28th when the club acquired QB Matt Cassel and LB Mike Vrabel in a trade with New England.

The club unveiled its 50th anniversary logo on April 14th as the team began a year-long commemoration of the franchise's 50th season, as well as the 50th anniversary of the creation of the American Football League by Lamar Hunt. On April 23rd, the Chiefs traded 10-time Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez to Atlanta. Gonzalez finished his Chiefs career with the most receptions (916), receiving yards (10,940) and TD catches (76) in franchise history.

Hunt, Haley and Pioli

On May 8th, Hunt named Denny Thum as the fourth President of the Chiefs. Thum owned the distinction of being one of just three employees in team history to serve the club during the tenure of every head coach in franchise history. On May 21st, Mark Donovan was hired as Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer after spending six seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles.

On June 18th, the Chiefs announced the return of training camp to the state of Missouri, beginning in 2010. The Chiefs and Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, Missouri agreed to the university's plans for a training facility including a climate-controlled, 120-yard indoor field, as well as two 120-yard grass fields. The Chiefs officially ended their 19-year training camp tenure at the University of Wisconsin - River Falls, conducting their final practice at that facility on August 20th.

The Chiefs began the regular season on the road at Baltimore (9/13) with QB Brodie Croyle at the helm after QB Matt Cassel was injured vs. Seattle (8/29). Kansas City tied the game at 24-24 with 5:21 left to play in Head Coach Todd Haley's regular season debut, but couldn't pull out the victory.

For the first time since the '62 AFL Championship Game, the club wore its Dallas Texans uniforms in a contest billed as "The Game That Never Was" vs. Dallas (10/11). Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt had longed for a head-to-head duel between his AFL squad and the NFL's Cowboys during their three-year co-existence in Dallas, and that contest finally came to fruition. However, the Cowboys would prevail by a 26-20 margin in OT, sending the Chiefs record to 0-5.

Haley recorded his initial NFL win the following week, as Kansas City produced a 14-6 victory at Washington (10/18). It would be one of three road wins for the Chiefs on the season, tying for the most by a first-year coach in franchise annals.

On October 23rd, a major section of I-435 near the Truman Sports Complex was designated as "Lamar Hunt Memorial Highway" by the Missouri General Assembly and the Missouri Department of Transportation. In October, the club also mourned the death of longtime assistant coach Darvin Wallis, whose 19-year tenure with the Chiefs ranked as the second-longest stint in franchise history, trailing only Tom Pratt (21 years).

The Chiefs improved in 25 different statistical categories during the season's final eight games, including total points, total offense, passing yards per game, rushing yards per game, third-down percentage and sacks allowed. Kansas City began that eight-game stretch with a 16-10 win at Oakland (11/15) as the Chiefs became the first NFL club to register seven straight road wins against the Raiders. The Chiefs followed that up with a thrilling 27-24 OT victory vs. Pittsburgh (11/22) as Haley exacted some retribution against a Steelers squad that defeated his Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

RB Jamaal Charles helped spearhead the Chiefs second-half resurgence. Only Tennessee RB Chris Johnson (1,047) rushed for more yards over the final eight games of the year than Charles (968). Charles finished the season with 1,120 yards on 190 carries, becoming the first player in league annals to top the 1,100-yard plateau on less than 200 carries. He also was the youngest player to ever win the Derrick Thomas Award as the club's MVP.

2010 — The Chiefs saved their best performance of the season for the regular season finale at Denver (1/3). Charles racked up a franchise-record 259 rushing yards, while LB Derrick Johnson became just the third linebacker in NFL history to return two INTs for TDs in a single game. Kansas City registered a 44-24 win, marking the club's first-ever win at INVESCO Field and the the most points scored by the Chiefs in Denver since '72.

Despite finishing the year with a 4-12 record, the Chiefs led the NFL in Red Zone scoring percentage (89.5%) and improved in 30 categories compared to 2008. Only three clubs made more dramatic jumps in the comprehensive special teams rankings compiled by the Dallas Morning News, as the Chiefs went from 29th to 12th.

Haley began reshaping his coaching staff almost immediately after the season. Charlie Weis was named offensive coordinator on January 8th, while Romeo Crennel was hired as defensive coordinator on January 14th. Haley also added a number of coaches with playing experience, included Hall of Fame CB Emmitt Thomas, who returned to the Chiefs as defensive backs coach on February 1st after registering a franchise-record 58 INTs from '66-78.

Commissioner Roger Goodell introduced four-time Pro Bowl G Brian Waters as the winner of Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award prior to the kickoff of Super Bowl XLIV on February 6th. Waters became the fifth member of the Chiefs to win that prestigious accolade. Super Bowl IV MVP QB Len Dawson – winner of the '73 Man of the Year Award – was on hand to present the Lombardi Trophy to the victorious New Orleans Saints.

On February 12th, Ann Roach announced her retirement after 44 seasons with the club. The second-longest tenured employee in Chiefs history, Roach served as an assistant to the first 10 head coaches in franchise annals. Roach and longtime Chiefs broadcaster Bill Grigsby were both acknowledged at the 40th annual 101 Awards on March 6th. Grigsby announced his retirement after a distinguished 63-year career in broadcasting.

The National Football League announced on April 20th that Monday Night Football would return to Kansas City on September 13th as the Chiefs officially celebrate the grand opening of the New Arrowhead vs. San Diego.

Chairman Clark Hunt led dozens of media members on an exclusive tour of the New Arrowhead on July 23rd, giving a behind the scenes look that the stadium and all its amenities before the first event was open to the public.

In an event reminiscent of Lamar Hunt's founding of the MLS and the Kansas City Wizards, the Wizards hosted English Premier League powerhouse Manchester United in a friendly match on July 25th, marking the first event held inside the New Arrowhead.

Clark Hunt was joined by the entire Hunt family and NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell on July 30th for the unveiling of Founder's Plaza, an engaging outdoor area that serves as a tribute to Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt and recognizes his contributions to the founding of the American Football League.

That afternoon, Chiefs Training Camp made it's debut on the campus of Missouri Western State University in St. Joseph, marking the first time in 20 years that the Chiefs held their summer pracitces in the state of Missouri.

Upon returning to the Arrowhead Training Facility, Kansas City held a free night practice on August 25th that was open to the public at Arrowhead Stadium, giving 22,142 Chiefs fan the opportunity to see the newly renovated stadium and watch the team practice before the start of the regular season. In conjunction with the open practice, the Chiefs dedicated the Chiefs Hall of Honor, presented by Time Warner Cable on the Lower Concourse of the stadium.

On September 13th, Kansas City celebrated the grand opening of the New Arrowhead with a 21-14 rain-soaked victory over the AFC West rival San Diego Chargers on ESPN's Monday Night Football. The victory signaled the culmination of the three-year, $375 million renovation project.

Hunt assumed the title of Chairman and CEO of the Kansas City Chiefs on Tuesday, September 14th.

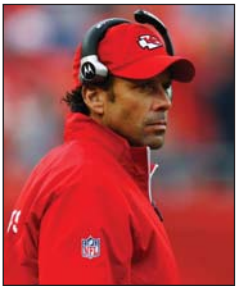

The Chiefs started the season 3-0 for the first time since 2003 on their way to a 10-6 record and the club's first AFC West title since 2003 and first playoff appearance since following the 2006 season. Kansas City registered a 7-1 record at home, restoring the Arrowhead advantage. The Chiefs went 4-0 against the NFC West, the second straight time they've swept the NFC West (2006). WR Dwayne Bowe tallied 15 TD receptions to pace the league in scoring catches. RB Jamaal Charles gained 1,467 yards on 230 carries, finishing second behind Houston RB Arian Foster for the NFL's individual rushing title. LB Tamba Hali led all AFC defenders and was second in the NFL with 14.5 sacks on the season.

2011 — On January 9th, Kansas City hosted it's first NFL playoff game since 2003 when the Chiefs fell to the Baltimore Ravens by a 30-7 final. Five Chiefs players were selected to the 2011 Pro Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii: S Eric Berry, WR Dwayne Bowe, QB Matt Cassel, RB Jamaal Charles and G Brian Waters, marking the most Pro Bowl performers for the Chiefs since KC sent six players to the NFL's version of the all-star game in 2006.

Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt named Mark Donovan president of the Kansas City Chiefs on January 20th.

Head Coach Todd Haley made two moves related to his coaching staff, naming Bill Muir offensive coordinator/offensive line coach on February 3rd and hiring Jim Zorn as quarterbacks coach on February 15th. Haley garnered two post-season coaching awards for leading the Chiefs to a 10-6 record in only his second year at the helm, earning the NFL Alumni Coach of the Year award and also the AFC Coach of the Year award from the Committee of 101.

Arrowhead Stadium is returning to prominence as an entertainment destination in the Midwest as country recording artists Kenny Chesney and Taylor Swift both announced tour stops at Arrowhead Stadium. Chesney's "Goin' Coastal Tour" will stop in Kansas City on July 30th while Swift's "Speak Now" tour will hit the Arrowhead stage on September 24th.

The Chiefs were saddened at the loss of a pair of treasured Kansas City icons in 2011 as longtime trumpeter and TD Pack Band leader Tony DiPardo passed away in February at the age of 98. Only a few weeks later, longtime voice of the Chiefs Bill Grigsby passed away at the age of 89. Thousands of Kansas Citians helped celebrate the lives of these two Chiefs legends at open memorial services.

CHIEFS LOGO HISTORY

An Inspiration

Texans Helmet

During the team's three-year stint as the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62, the club's helmet logo featured the state of Texas in white with a gold star situated on the club's home base in Dallas. Founder Lamar Hunt "borrowed" that concept from the '52 Dallas Texans, a totally-unrelated NFL franchise that spent one undistinguished season playing in the Lone Star State before resurfacing as the Baltimore Colts in '53.

Prior to the inaugural AFL season in '60, Hunt's Texans were represented by a whirling, spur-clad, 10-gallon-hat-wearing character that was featured on various promotional items. That logo eventually gave way to a more polished football-toting gunslinger set over the state of Texas, a design created by Bob Taylor, a cartoonist for the now-defunct Dallas Times-Herald. Although never part of the club's uniform, Taylor's updated Texans logo adorned everything from the club's stationery to the billboard outside the team's offices.

When the franchise moved to Kansas City in '63, Taylor was commissioned to produce a new logo that remained strikingly similar to his original incarnation. Taylor's new rendition featured a Native American figure running with the same stride and holding the pigskin in the same manner as the gunslinger with the states of Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Iowa and Arkansas serving as his backdrop. This logo was utilized prominently during the '60s and was affixed to the club's Swope Park headquarters on 63rd Street before the club moved to Arrowhead in '72.

A new design for the Chiefs helmet logo was also in order upon the franchise's move to Mid-America. Hunt went back to the drawing board, seeking to give his franchise a logo that would once again provide an easily-recognizable link to its home locale. Hunt's initial sketches, some of which were done on a napkin on a flight from Dallas to Kansas City, began with an interlocking "KC" inside a circle or an oval. That look was eventually refined to feature those intertwined letters inside an arrowhead. The resulting finished product remains one of the most distinctive logos in all of sports and has been proudly utilized by the team for over 40 years.

1963-present

1959 — At one of the initial organizational meetings of the American Football League in late '59 – before the teams even had any players or coaches – the AFL owners choose their team colors. Lamar Hunt desires Columbia Blue and Orange for his Dallas Texans franchise. But before Hunt or any other owner can make a selection, Houston's Bud Adams claims Columbia Blue for his Oilers franchise. Hunt reverts to Red and Gold for the Texans, which remains the primary color scheme for the Chiefs to this day.

Lamar Hunt greets Bud Adams - sporting a "Columbia Blue" blazer - prior to the '62 AFL Championship Game. Hunt would lose the battle for "Columbia Blue," but his Texans would beat the Oilers in double OT for the '62 AFL title.

1960-62— The Texans take the field for the AFL's inaugural season in '60 sporting red helmets with gray facemasks. The helmet features the state of Texas in white with a gold star situated on Dallas. Home jerseys are solid red featuring white numerals, white "TV" numerals on the sleeves and white lettering, all trimmed in gold. Road jerseys are white with red numerals, red "TV" numerals on the sleeves and red lettering, all of which are bordered by thin gold trim. Both jerseys are a cloth design, featuring three-quarter sleeves with stitched "tackle twill" numerals and letters. The team wears white pants featuring vertical stripes of red, gold and red. Socks are red on top, white on the bottom with alternating stripes at the calf of white, red, gold, red and white. Although several minor changes are made to the stripe width over the years, the primary sock design remains relatively consistent to the present day.

Texans Helmet

1963-67 — The Texans move to Kansas City in '63. Hunt and head coach Hank Stram initially plan on calling the relocated team the "Kansas City Texans." However, general manager Jack Steadman wisely convinces the duo to change the franchise's nickname to "Chiefs." The club's uniform remains virtually unchanged, with the exception of the helmet logo. The state of Texas is replaced on the headgear by a design originally sketched by Hunt on a napkin. Hunt's inspiration for the interlocking "KC" design was the "SF" inside of an oval on San Francisco's helmets. Kansas City's overlapping initials appear inside a white arrowhead instead of an oval and are surrounded by a thin black outline. The result is one of the most distinctive helmets in all of football.

1968 — The most dramatic changes to the Chiefs uniform come in '68. Head Coach Hank Stram prefers more red in the club's road attire and orders red pants to go with the team's white road jerseys. Stram asserts that the red pants will match the red numerals on the white road jerseys. While Stram's fashion sense is never in question, some in the organization theorize that the superstitious Stram really wants to part ways with the white pants because the club lost Super Bowl I while wearing them. No matter the logic, the white pants are not seen again during the Stram era. The club's new red pants feature alternating vertical stripes of white, red, gold, red and white and are paired with predominantly white socks that feature striping of red, gold and red at the calf. Alterations are also made to the club's jerseys at this time. Sleeves are shortened from three-quarter length to their present-day short-sleeve status. Stripes are also introduced on the bottom of the sleeves, where they still reside. Red jerseys feature white, gold and white stripes on the sleeves, while the club's white jerseys receive red, gold and red stripes.

Texans DT Jerry Mays (75) and QB Len Dawson (16) pose along with head coach Hank Stram in '65 sporting the home jerseys the club wore from '60-67. Note the rolled-up sleeves and the barely visible gold trim.

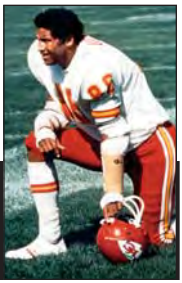

1969 — Following a victory in the AFL Championship Game, Stram orders new red jerseys to be worn in Super Bowl IV and they are delivered just days before the game. Stram also directs equipment manager Bobby Yarborough to have all the helmets repainted before the Super Bowl, but relents after players insist on wearing their "battle-scarred" headgear. The "AFL-10" patch worn on the left shoulder of Kansas City's jerseys in Super Bowl IV is the collaborative effort of AFL President Milt Woodard and longtime AFL fan Angelo Coniglio. During the entire '69 season, all NFL teams wear an "NFL-50" patch which commemorates the NFL's 50th Anniversary season. At the suggestion of Coniglio, Woodard counters by designing and implementing a patch of his own to celebrate the 10-year existence of the AFL, which is proudly worn by the Chiefs on behalf of the entire AFL in their 23-7 victory vs. Minnesota (1/11/70).

AFL-10 Patch

1970 — Following Super Bowl IV, the team's cloth jerseys dating back to the franchise's days in Dallas give way to a more breathable mesh fabric. Heat-transfer numerals and letters replace sewn-on "tackle twill" characters. The style of the numerals and letters changes slightly. The characters decrease in size, while the gold trim around both the numerals and letters expands to become more visible. Jersey numerals remain this size before eventually returning to larger proportions in the early '80s.

1974 — The club's facemask changes from gray to white. A change in manufacturers results in a slightly smaller arrowhead logo on the helmet with a thicker black border compared to the design of the '60s.

1979-80 — During the Marv Levy era, the club experiments with white jerseys and red pants at home. Several other NFL teams - most notably Dallas - had adopted the practice of wearing white at home. The fact that Lamar Hunt's hometown team had popularlized the practice may have led the Chiefs Founder to depart from the club's traditional home uniform configuration. However, the trial is short-lived and by '81, the club reverts back to its traditional red jersey, white pants arrangement at Arrowhead.

QB Steve Fuller was part of a Chiefs squad that wore white jerseys at home for a brief stretch during the Marv Levy era.

1983 — The Chiefs wear a circular patch on their left upper chest bearing a gold eagle and the number 37 in memory of RB Joe Delaney who drowned on June 29th in Monroe, Louisiana after trying to save the lives of three youngsters.

Joe Delaney Patch

1984 — The original eight American Football League teams all wear circular "Silver Anniversary" patches on the upper left chest of their jerseys commemorating the 25th anniversary of the AFL and their respective franchises. Kansas City's patch features the Chiefs helmet and the AFL logo.

Silver Anniversary Patch

1989 — The arrival of head coach Marty Schottenheimer signals the club's most dramatic uniform change in over 20 years. Schottenheimer asks and receives permission from Hunt to revert back to white pants on the road, a "white-on-white" look that had not been utilized by the Chiefs since '67. White belts also return to the club's pants after using red belts at various periods of the '70s and '80s. Kansas City reintroduces the white pants at Denver (9/10/89) and maintains this look on the road through the '99 season.

RB Marcus Allen in white-on-white.

1991 — A sticker bearing the American Flag adorns the back of all NFL helmets to honor troops fighting in the Gulf War. The NFL Shield becomes a standard part of all NFL uniforms, appearing on the back of helmets, on the "v" of jerseys and on the left hip of pants.

1992 — The club wears a black panel with the white initials "WWD" on the upper left chest of its jersey in memory of Director of Player Personnel Whitey Dovell, who passed away on May 11th. The team also paints the number "86" on the field at Arrowhead Stadium to honor the memory of Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan, who passed away on July 16th.

WWD Patch

1994 — Solid fabric jerseys complete with "tackle twill" numerals and letters return, taking the place of mesh jerseys and heat-transfer characters. All NFL teams wear "NFL Diamond Anniversary" patches on their left upper chest in honor of the league's 75th season. The Chiefs also wear a "35th Anniversary" patch on their right upper chest in celebration of the franchise's 35th season. The patch features the AFL, Texans and Chiefs logos. It marks the first time in team history the club has worn two different patches in the same season. Kansas City also wears "Throwback" uniforms – replicas of the club's '63 attire – for games at Atlanta (9/18/94) and vs. St. Louis (9/25/94).

35th Anniversary Patch

75th Anniversary Patch

RB Marcus Allen (32), DE Neil Smith (90), T John Alt (76), QB Joe Montana (19) and LB Derrick Thomas (58) represented the Chiefs in the Pro Bowl following the '93 season. These '94 jerseys were the first uniforms in team history to feature a pair of commemorative patches. Note that Smith, Alt and Thomas have made their own "fashion statements" by rolling up their sleeves. Three members of this quintet (Allen, Montana and Thomas) are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, while Alt and Smith are all enshrined in the Chiefs Hall of Fame.

1999 — The club wears a "40th Anniversary" patch in honor of the franchise's 40th season. The patch features the AFL and Chiefs logos.

40th Anniversary Patch

2000 — The Chiefs wear a circular sticker bearing the number "58" on the back of their helmets in memory of LB Derrick Thomas, who passed away on February 8th. Ever mindful of Stram's legacy and the franchise's glory days, head coach Gunther Cunningham receives Hunt's blessing to revert back to the red pants on the road. The resurrected red pants debut in a 23-22 win at Denver (9/24/00) and remain part of the club's road attire.

58 Sticker

2001 — A sticker bearing the American Flag returns to the back of all NFL helmets following the terrorist attacks of September 11th. The flag reappears on Chiefs helmets vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23/01) and remains there to this day.

U.S. Flag Sticker

40th Anniversary in KC Patch

2002 — The Chiefs wear a "40th Anniversary in Kansas City" patch vs. Oakland (10/27/02), commemorating the franchise's 40th season in Mid-America. "The Scout" - Kansas City's most recognizable civic icon - is prominently featured on the patch along with Kansas City's downtown skyline. The NFL Equipment Shield replaces the NFL Shield on jerseys and pants.

Pat Tillman Sticker

2004 — The Chiefs wear a "40" decal on their helmets vs. Carolina (9/19/04) in honor of former Arizona Cardinals S Pat Tillman. Tillman left the Cardinals prior to the 2002 season and became a member of the elite Army Ranger unit. He was killed in the line of duty serving his country in Afghanistan on April 22, 2004.

Hank Stram Sticker

2005 — The Chiefs wear a circular sticker on their helmets all season bearing the initials "HS" in honor of Hall of Fame coach Hank Stram who passed away on July 4th. Stram compiled a 124-76-10 regular season record as the head coach of the Dallas Texans and the Kansas City Chiefs from '60-74. He guided the franchise to AFL titles, two Super Bowl appearances and a victory in Super Bowl IV. One of the most distinguished gentlemen and unique personalities in pro football history, Stram's legacy was remembered all season with the "HS" decal. All NFL teams wear a "Fútbol Americano" decal on their helmets on the weekend of October 2nd to mark the NFL's first regular season game played outside of the United States. Arizona defeated San Francisco by a 31-14 margin in that contest played at Mexico City's Estadio Azteca.

Fútbol Americano Sticker

2006 — The Chiefs wear white jerseys and white pants on Opening Day vs. Cincinnati (9/10) in an effort to make the Bengals wear their dark uniforms on a potentially hot and muggy day. It marks the first time that even Founder Lamar Hunt can recall the club wearing the white-on-white uniform combination at home. The most recent time the club had dressed in such attire was in a road contest at Seattle (12/26/99). It was also the first time that the Chiefs had donned white jerseys at home since '80. While the premise is sound, the weather conditions aren't a factor in the contest with a kickoff temperature of 67 degrees under cloudy skies.

Lamar Hunt Sticker

After the passing of Hunt on December 13th, the Chiefs utilize a helmet decal for the remainder of the season bearing the initials "LH" to honor the franchise's Founder. Kansas City first wears the helmet decal at San Diego (12/17). The club also reverts to the white jersey/white pants combination for its final two regular season road games and its postseason contest at Indianapolis (1/6/07). The move is in part to honor Hunt, who appreciated the "classic" look of that uniform combination.

Lamar Hunt Patch

2007 — Clark Hunt commissions a patch that the Chiefs wore on their uniforms in 2007 to honor his father's memory. The design of the patch is historically signficant. The patch prominently features the American Football League logo to serve as a reminder of Hunt's formation of the AFL and the lasting impact the American Football League has made on the game of professional football. True to Hunt's humble spirit, the letters "LH" are subtly displayed on the patch, symbolizing the fact that the Chiefs Founder always put the best interests of the league ahead of his own. The patch is affixed on the left chest of both Kansas City's home and away jerseys, meaning this piece of woven symbolism will always be over the heart of every Chiefs player. Beginning with a game vs. San Diego (12/2/07), the Chiefs and other NFL teams wear a #21 decal on their helmets for the final five games of the season to honor Washington Redskins S Sean Taylor. Taylor, who was coming off a Pro Bowl season in 2006 was killed in his home in Miami on November 26th.

Sean Taylor Sticker

Gene Upshaw Sticker

2008 — On January 31st, Clark Hunt announces that the Lamar Hunt patch will become a permanent part of the Chiefs uniform, beginning with the 2008 NFL season.All NFL teams wear a patch to honor the late Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw on Kickoff Weekend. The former Executive Director of the NFL Players Association passed away on August 20th. Beginning with the Chiefs contest the following week vs. Oakland (9/14), a decal bearing Upshaw's initials is worn on all helmets for the remainder of the season.

50th Anniversary Patch

2009 — On April 14th, the Chiefs unveil their "50th Anniversary" patch that was worn on the club's jerseys for 13 games in 2009. The patch features a gold 50, as well as a Chiefs logo and an outline of the State of Texas, representing the only two logos that have ever appeared on the franchise's helmets. Kansas City wears replicas of the club's '62 Dallas Texans attire for AFL Legacy Games vs. Dallas (10/11), vs. San Diego (10/25) and at Oakland (11/15). The look is completed with replica Texans helmets that feature gray facemasks and a Texas-shaped decal with a gold star on Dallas. Jerseys for these three AFL Rivalry games feature a special "AFL 50th Anniversary" patch, featuring the original American Football League logo.

CHIEFS ON MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

RECORD: 21-15 (.583)

ESPN MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

Monday Night Football returned to Kansas City in 2010 as the Chiefs celebrated the grand opening of the New Arrowhead on September 13th. The second-ever regular season telecast of ABC's Monday Night Football featured the defending World Champion Kansas City Chiefs at Baltimore (9/28/70). While Don McCafferty's Colts eventually go on to defeat the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V, the Chiefs would get a convincing 44-24 win in this prime-time showdown. Four of QB Len Dawson's pass attempts on the night went for TDs. The Chiefs forced seven Baltimore turnovers including three interceptions by S Johnny Robinson and two by CB Emmitt Thomas, allowing RB Ed Podolak (left) to grind out the game.

GOVERNOR'S CUP SERIES

Dating back to the '68 preseason, the Chiefs have faced their in-state rivals from St. Louis in 42 "Governor's Cup" contests. From '68-87, Kansas City faced the St. Louis Cardinals every preseason and also met the Cardinals in regular season play four times while that franchise was stationed on Missouri's "Eastern Shore" before it moved to Arizona for the start of the '88 campaign. After the Rams moved to St. Louis in '95, the "Governor's Cup" series was renewed during the '96 preseason. Since the Rams relocation to the "Show-Me State," Kansas City owns a perfect 5-0 regular season record against their in-state, I-70 foes.

THANKSGIVING DAY GAMES

Lamar Hunt's longtime efforts to secure a Thanksgiving Day game at Arrowhead Stadium became a reality when the club defeated Denver 19-10 in Arrowhead's first-ever Thanksgiving contest (11/23/06). The holiday match-up between two longtime AFC West rivals marked the NFL Network's first live regular season game broadcast and drew a paid attendance of 79,484, the fifth-largest crowd in Arrowhead history. Kansas City hosted a trio of Thanksgiving Day games at Municipal Stadium, including a 31-17 victory vs. Denver (11/27/69) that included a 53-yard return of an onside kick for a TD by LB Bobby Bell. On Thanksgiving Day at Detroit (11/28/96), Hall of Fame RB Marcus Allen became the NFL's all-time leader in rushing TDs, registering his 111th ground score on a one-yard run to bypass RB Walter Payton's previous record, a mark that was later bypassed by RB Emmitt Smith.

ARROWHEAD STADIUM
1972-PRESENT
FULLY RENOVATED-2010

Arrowhead Stadium underwent a $375 million renovation project that was fully completed in 2010. It is part of the Harry S Truman Sports Complex, which also includes 42,000-seat Kauffman Stadium, home of the Kansas City Royals baseball club. Since its dedication on August 12, 1972, for a preseason game vs. the St. Louis Cardinals, 23,072,129 spectators have passed through Arrowhead's turnstiles. After 23 seasons of artificial turf, Arrowhead sported a grass playing surface for the first time in '94.

MUNICIPAL STADIUM
1963-1971

Municipal Stadium served as the Chiefs original home in Kansas City after previously housing two short-lived NFL franchises, the Kansas City Blues (1924) and the Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26). The Chiefs and the Kansas City Athletics baseball club shared the facility until the A's departed for Oakland following the '67 season. Kansas City went undefeated (7-0) at home during the '71 regular season, but the final contest (and only playoff game) in Municipal Stadium's history will live in infamy for Chiefs fans, a devastating double overtime 27-24 playoff loss to the Miami Dolphins on Christmas Day of '71, a contest which remains the NFL's longest game at 82 minutes, 40 seconds.

The Cotton Bowl served as the home of the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62 before the franchise moved to Kansas City in '63 and became known as the Chiefs. The Texans shared the stadium with the NFL's expansion Dallas Cowboys. The facility served until '99 as a home field for SMU, the alma mater of Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. The Texans final contest in the Cotton Bowl was a 26-17 win over the San Diego Chargers on December 16, 1962, before a sparse crowd of 18,384 fans. The Texans would win a 20-17 double-overtime thriller the next week at Houston to capture the first of three AFL titles.

THE ARROWHEAD STADIUM STORY

The Kansas City Chiefs and St. Louis Cardinals played the inaugural game at Arrowhead Stadium on August 12, 1972. Since that initial contest, much has changed at the Truman Sports Complex. On April 4, 2006 Jackson County, Missouri taxpayers approved a 3/8 cent sales tax that was expected to raise $425 million for improvements to the Sports Complex, including $212.5 million for Arrowhead. The State of Missouri also contributed $37.5 million. In addition, the Hunt family contributed $125 million to the project which officially commenced with a groundbreaking ceremony on August 22, 2007. These improvements will maintain Arrowhead's longstanding status as one of the nation's top venues for fans to experience the excitement of collegiate or NFL football.

Fans can enjoy numerous new areas including the Founder's Plaza, the Horizon Level, the Chiefs Sports Lab, the Chiefs Hall of Honor, a Founder's Club, a luxurious Club Level and a new team store. Other improvements include an upgraded sound and scoreboard system, a 360-degree video ribbon board, concourses that are doubled in size and an upgraded variety of food and beverage options.

While other venues of a similar vintage have long since been termed obsolete, thanks to the foresight and vision of the leadership of Jackson County, the Hunt family, the Chiefs and the taxpayers who made it a reality, Arrowhead has stood the test of time.

At the time of its dedication in '72, the legendary founder of the Chicago Bears, George Halas called Arrowhead, "the most revolutionary, futuristic, sports complex I have ever seen." Hal Lebovitz, Sports Editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer added, "It took courage to sell the citizens of Kansas City on the twin park plan. But they bought it because they want the best."

Arrowhead attendance: 78,502; Kauffman Stadium attendance: 4,391*

In the late '60s, after design and seating capacity concerns caused plans for a single, multi-purpose domed stadium to be scrapped, Kansas City opted to construct two separate stadiums, one for football and one for baseball. Voters approved the Sports Complex bond issue in '67, which included plans for a revolutionary concept – the world's first rolling stadium roof (pictured below). Construction cost overruns and project delays caused by a lengthy strike eventually forced the roof concept to be put on hold, but Arrowhead was completed in time for the '72 season.

In '84, the Jackson County Sports Authority again investigated the feasibility of a dome - this time made of fabric - but that concept too was shelved as being unnecessary and financially impractical.

A decade later, in '94, under Arrowhead's continued open-air arrangement, a natural playing surface was installed in the facility for the first time, just one of numerous improvements which were made prior to the current renovation. In '99, all 33,975 seats in the upper level of the stadium were replaced, while all 35,277 lower level seats and all 10,199 club level seats were replaced for the 2000 season.

Undoubtedly one of the finest facilities in the NFL, Arrowhead and the fans who consistently fill it have helped produce a distinct homefield advantage for the Chiefs. Dating back to '90, Kansas City owns the fifth-best regular season home winning percentage among all NFL teams with a 113-55 (.673) record over that span. It's been 40 years since the first plans were being devised for Kansas City's two stadium setup, which is now the norm for professional football and baseball venues across the country.

Original plans for the Truman Sports Complex called for a rolling roof which could cover Arrowhead or its baseball counterpart, Kauffman Stadium - a revolutionary concept at the time.

During the 30th Anniversary season of Arrowhead in 2001, Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt expressed the organization's thanks to Colorado-based architect, the late Charles Deaton, who conceived the two-stadium concept. Hunt praised the governmental bodies who took the initiative, and the workers who built Arrowhead, as well as the support of the Jackson County taxpayers who financed this futuristic venture. Hunt also wished to extend on behalf of the entire Chiefs organization a hearty salute to all who have unquestionably made Arrowhead Stadium - The Home of the ... CHIEFS!

ARROWHEAD'S FOOTBALL TRADITION

Arrowhead Stadium has been a destination for football afficionados since it opened in '72. In addition to serving as the "Home of the Chiefs," Arrowhead has hosted or is scheduled to host 29 different college football contests. The first college game played at the facility was a SWAC contest on October 14, 1972 in which Grambling defeated Mississippi Valley State in front of a crowd of 9,833. The Dr Pepper Big 12 Championship, the annual Missouri vs. Kansas "Border Showdown" and "The Fall Classic" between Division II powers Northwest Missouri State and Pittsburg State are regular events. The facility also served as the site of the '74 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

In conditions that were described as cold, but humid, coaches Tom Landry of Dallas (NFC) and John Madden of Oakland (AFC) watched their teams combine for 15 fumbles and four interceptions in the 1974 Pro Bowl at Arrowhead Stadium.

K Garo Yepremian of the Dolphins kicked a Pro Bowl-record five field goals, accounting for all 15 of the AFC's points en route to earning MVP honors. Yepremian's fourth field goal gave the AFC a 12-10 fourth-quarter lead, but RB O.J. Simpson's fumble minutes later would set up a 21-yard field goal for a 13-12 NFC lead with less than two minutes to play. Miami QB Bob Griese answered by driving the AFC into position for the winning score. Yepremian would split the uprights with just 0:21 remaining to give the AFC a 15-13 win.

THE DR PEPPER BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP

Since 2000, Arrowhead Stadium has played host to the Dr Pepper Big 12 Football Championship Game five times. Oklahoma has claimed four of the five contests played in Kansas City, including a 62-21 win over Missouri in the most recent affair on 12/6/08.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL AT ARROWHEAD

THE BORDER SHOWDOWN

Missouri vs. Kansas

The Missouri-Kansas football series is the second-most-played rivalry in college football history and has recently returned to Kansas City, where it all began. This football rivalry originated in Kansas City on October 31, 1891 with a 22-10 Kansas win. Missouri leads the all-time series 56-54-9. A total of 25 contests in this 119-year rivalry have been played in Kansas City, including 19 of the first 20 games. In 2007, the clash once again called Kansas City home as Arrowhead Stadium played host to the storied traditions of MU and KU. The two schools have an agreement to play the series at Arrowhead through 2012.

L.A. RAMS.	7	3	0	9	— 19

Kansas City's initial American Bowl expedition featured heavy doses of culture, but little offense as the Rams prevailed by a 19-3 margin. RB Barry Word made his first appearance in a Kansas City uniform, pairing with the league's leading rusher in '89, RB Christian Okoye to form the quintessential "Martyball" backfield. However, the Chiefs only points would come on a 19-yard FG by K Bjorn Nittmo.

RB James Saxon (21) and TE Jonathan Hayes (85) are on hand as the Berlin Wall begins crumbling down in Berlin, West Germany.

The Chiefs players and staff receive an indoctrination in the art of sumo wrestling at practice in Tokyo.

KANSAS CITY	0	9	0	0	— 9
MINNESOTA.	7	10	0	0	— 17

Kansas City's first appearance on Japanese soil was a rematch of Super Bowl IV, but Minnesota prevailed in this contest thanks to a pair of interceptions. Chiefs QB Matt Blundin accounted for the club's only TD when he connected with rookie WR Lake Dawson for a 40-yard score. Kansas City then attempted a two-point conversion for the first time since '69 as the NFL finally implemented the old AFL two-point rule in '94.

The Chiefs defense stifles the defending Super Bowl champions, allowing the Cowboys just five first downs. Kansas City's offense piles up 514 yards of total offense, including 173 rushing yards, while Dallas manages 214 total yards on the day as the Chiefs convert the partisan crowd of Cowboy fans into supporters of the "Jefes de Kansas City" or Kansas City Chiefs.

DE Neil Smith does his best matador impersonation and tries his hand at "bull-fighting" while in Monterrey, Mexico.

Kansas City's roster features Japanese national players TE Nachi Abe and WR Masato "The Magnet" Itai.

1962 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Texans 20, Oilers 17 (2 OT)

December 23, 1962 • Jeppesen Stadium • 37,981

DALLAS	3	14	0	0	0	3	— 20
HOUSTON	0	0	7	10	0	0	— 17

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's charges as the Dallas Texans claimed a 20-17 double-overtime victory over the Houston Oilers. The game still ranks as the second-longest pro contest ever played, coming in at a lengthy 77:54, but is best remembered for RB Abner Haynes' choice to "kick to the clock" at the beginning of the initial overtime session.

Following second-place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West title in '62. Dallas (11-3) was then matched in this title bout with Houston (11-3), which had won the first two AFL titles in '60 and '61 over the Chargers.

The Texans grabbed the game's first break when LB E.J. Holub picked off QB/K George Blanda at the goal line and returned the ball 43 yards, sparking a drive that resulted in a 16-yard FG by K Tommy Brooker. Blanda would miss a 47-yard kick on the Oilers next possession and Haynes scored on a 28-yard pass from QB Len Dawson. An INT by CB Dave Grayson would set up Haynes' second TD of the half, this time on a two-yard run to give the Texans a 17-0 halftime advantage.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda – then a "young" 35 years old – passed 15 yards to TE Willard Dewveall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before RB Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter. Houston had a shot to win the game late in regulation, but LB Sherrill Headrick blocked a 42-yard Blanda field goal to leave the score deadlocked.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick-to-the-clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertently elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, DE Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned it to midfield. Dawson passed to RB Jack Spikes for 10 yards. Spikes – the game's Most Valuable Player – then ran for 19 yards and the Texans were in field goal range.

At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in '71.

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 31, Bills 7

KANSAS CITY	7	10	0	14	—	31
BUFFALO	7	0	0	0	—	7

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills. Kansas City's defense had stifled opponents all season long and didn't disappoint in this contest, forcing four turnovers, while limiting Buffalo to just nine first downs and 40 rushing yards as the Chiefs rolled to a 31-7 victory and their second AFL title.

The game, played in frigid, sub-freezing temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff when P Jerrel Wilson recovered a fumble by DE Dudley Meredith on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, QB Len Dawson found TE Fred Arbanas for a 29-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City an early 7-0 lead.

After the two teams exchanged punts, Buffalo tied the game in the opening period when All-Star QB Jack Kemp hit WR Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play to tie the score at 7-7. Few thought it would be the Bills last score of the day, but Kansas City would eventually outscore Buffalo 24-0 in the final three quarters.

While the Chiefs defense clamped down on the Bills, Dawson led the Kansas City offense to 10 second-quarter points. A 28-yard punt return by RB Mike Garrett set the Chiefs up at the Buffalo 45-yard line and six plays later the KC signal-caller found WR Otis Taylor for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

The game's decisive play then came just before halftime. Kemp had marched the Bills to the Chiefs eight-yard line, but was picked off at the goal line by S Johnny Robinson, who raced 72 yards with the interception before being brought down at the Buffalo 28-yard line. K Mike Mercer then hit a 32-yard FG with 0:03 left in the half to give the Chiefs a 17-7 lead heading into the locker room.

The third quarter proved to be a defensive tussle as the two teams each exchanged a pair of punts. Kansas City would get to the Buffalo 42-yard line late in the period, but a 49-yard kick by Mercer fell short leaving the score at 17-7 with 15 minutes remaining.

Kansas City then broke the game wide open as Garrett applied the coup de grace for the Chiefs, scoring on runs of one and 18 yards to make the count 31-7. A 47-yard Dawson pass to E Chris Burford set up Garrett's first TD which came on fourth-and-goal. Buffalo fumbled on its next offensive snap and S Bobby Hunt fell on the loose ball at the Bills 21. Three plays later Garrett started left and then reversed his field to get into the end zone for a second time.

Kemp couldn't move the Bills on their next possession and was picked off by CB Emmitt Thomas on Buffalo's final drive of the day as Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL I

Packers 35, Chiefs 10

January 15, 1967 • Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum • 63,036

KANSAS CITY	0	10	0	0	—	10
GREEN BAY	7	7	14	7	—	35

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers. Vince Lombardi's Packers – one of the great pro football teams of all time – won Super Bowl I by a 35-10 score. The Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring on its second possession when the game's Most Valuable Player, QB Bart Starr, passed 37 yards to TE Max McGee, who made a remarkable one-handed catch for a touchdown. McGee, who had caught just four passes during the regular season, became an unlikely hero for the Packers after starter Boyd Dowler was injured on the game's opening series. McGee finished the game with seven catches for 138 yards and two TDs.

Behind QB Len Dawson, the Chiefs marched into Green Bay territory on their next drive, but K Mike Mercer misfired on a 40-yard FG to leave the score 7-0 after one quarter. However, Kansas City would tie the game on its next possession after a 31-yard completion to WR Otis Taylor set up a seven-yard scoring pass to RB Curtis McClinton.

Green Bay would go right back on top when RB Jim Taylor scored from 14 yards out on the Packers vaunted sweep. Kansas City's next drive featured a 27-yard completion to E Chris Burford and culminated with a 31-yard Mercer FG as the Chiefs narrowed Green Bay's lead to a 14-10 margin.

The Chiefs momentum carried over to the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play – one that doomed the underdog Chiefs – unfolded when S Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for TE Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned it all the way to the Chiefs five-yard line, where RB Elijah Pitts ran for the first of his two touchdowns as Green Bay would establish a 21-10 lead.

The Packers defense forced Kansas City to punt on its next two possessions, setting up another Starr-to-McGee touchdown pass. That duo would connect on completions of 11 and 16 yards on a 10-play, 56-yard drive before McGee hauled in a 13-yard score to up the Packer advantage to 28-10.

Kansas City dodged a scoring threat when CB Willie Mitchell picked off a Starr pass at the Chiefs 11-yard line in the fourth quarter, but it would be Green Bay's only miscue of the day. The Packers defense would stifle the AFL Champions for the remainder of the game as the Chiefs crossed midfield just once in the fourth quarter.

A 37-yard pass to McGee would set up the Packers final score, a one-yard Pitts TD run. That score put the finishing touch on a 35-10 victory as Green Bay claimed the first of two straight Super Bowl titles, while Kansas City would have to wait until Super Bowl IV for redemption on football's biggest stage.

1968 AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Raiders 41, Chiefs 6

December 22, 1968 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum • 54,444

KANSAS CITY	0	6	0	0	— 6
OAKLAND	21	7	0	13	— 41

Oakland jumped out to an early 21-0 lead and picked off QB Len Dawson four times, posting a convincing 41-6 victory in the initial postseason meeting between the Chiefs and Raiders. The two teams had both finished 12-2 and split a pair of regular season contests, setting up this playoff meeting for the right to advance to the AFL Championship Game.

The Chiefs defense had allowed a franchise-record 170 points during the regular season, but QB Daryle Lamonica and WR Fred Biletnikoff made play after play against Kansas City. Lamonica finished the day with 345 passing yards and five TD passes, the highest postseason totals ever amassed against Kansas City. Biletnikoff also had a record-setting day, registering 180 receiving yards and three scores, the best individual receiving day produced versus the Chiefs in the playoffs.

The Lamonica-Biletnikoff connection clicked early and often, accounting for three plays and 60 yards on Oakland's opening possession, including a 24-yard TD pass to put the Raiders ahead 7-0.

With the Chiefs backed up at their own two-yard line, P Jerrel Wilson's punt would go off the side of his foot, giving the Raiders the ball at the Kansas City 25-yard line. Three plays later, a 23-yard scoring grab by WR Warren Wells made the score 14-0. The two teams would exchange punts before Lamonica lofted a 44-yard aerial to Biletnikoff to make the score 21-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Kansas City's offense showed some life to open the second quarter. Dawson hit WR Otis Taylor for a 55-yard gain to put the Chiefs in scoring position, but KC could not crack the end zone on three tries from inside the five-yard line as the club would settle for a 10-yard K Jan Stenerud FG to make the count 21-3.

Two possessions later, the Chiefs got excellent field position at the Oakland 38. A 31-yard pass to WR Ron Pitts moved KC to the seven-yard line, but again the offense couldn't cross the goal line, resulting in an eight-yard Stenerud FG. The Raiders responded with a 54-yard Lamonica-to-Biletnikoff TD to close the first half, giving Oakland a commanding 28-6 lead.

The Chiefs defense forced a punt on Oakland's first drive of the second half and then held the Raiders out of the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the one on their next possession to keep the contest within reach. But Kansas City's offense couldn't put points on the board despite getting deep into Oakland territory twice as a missed 37-yard FG and an interception haulted those drives.

The Raiders slammed the door shut in the fourth quarter as Wells caught his second TD of the day and K George Blanda tacked on a pair of FGs to up the Oakland lead to 41-6. Dawson was unable to rally the Chiefs as each of the club's final three possessions ended with interceptions and Oakland advanced to its second straight AFL Championship Game.

1969 AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 13, Jets 6

December 20, 1969 • Shea Stadium • 62,977

KANSAS CITY	0	3	3	7	— 13
NEW YORK	3	0	0	3	— 6

Kansas City had throttled the Jets in the regular season, but getting a playoff victory against the reigning World Champions would prove much more difficult. The Chiefs defense would rise up for a monumental goal line stand, while the offense would get into the end zone when it mattered most as Kansas City claimed a 13-6 victory.

New York was led by QB Joe Namath, but throwing the ball accurately in the swirling winds of Shea Stadium would prove difficult for the charismatic MVP of Super Bowl III. The Jets passer connected on just 14 of 40 attempts for 164 yards and was picked off three times.

New York got on the board first with a 27-yard K Jim Turner field goal to go up 3-0. QB Len Dawson then started KC's next drive with a 13-yard pass to WR Otis Taylor, a 12-yard connection to TE Fred Arbanas and a 17-yard screen to RB Wendell Hayes. After missing a 47-yard FG on KC's first drive, this time K Jan Stenerud connected on a 23-yard FG to knot the score at 3-3.

Neither club could muster much offense for the remainder of the first half. Stenerud would misfire on a 44-yard kick on KC's only other legitimate scoring shot, leaving the score deadlocked at intermission.

Kansas City's defense would turn up the pressure in the third quarter. CB Emmitt Thomas would register the Chiefs first INT of the day, setting up a 47-yard FG attempt that sailed wide left in the blustery conditions. New York's next possession would be terminated by the first of two interceptions on the day by CB Jim Marsalis. After the Jets were penalized for running into P Jerrel Wilson, a 27-yard pass to Arbanas put KC in New York territory. A 25-yard Stenerud FG then gave the Chiefs a slim, 6-3 advantage.

Namath responded by moving the Jets into scoring position early in the fourth quarter. A pass interference call in the end zone would give the home squad first-and-goal at the one, setting the stage for the biggest goal-line stand in Chiefs history.

RB Matt Snell gained half a yard off right tackle on first down before S Johnny Robinson arrived on the scene, while RB Bill Mathis was stuffed for no gain by LB Willie Lanier on second down. Namath attempted a bootleg on third down, but was hit by LB Jim Lynch and threw the ball away, forcing the Jets to settle for a seven-yard Turner field goal to tie the contest at 6-6.

Dawson and the Chiefs would immediately strike back. A 61-yard bomb to Taylor would set up the game's only TD. WR Gloster Richardson made the biggest grab of his career, hauling in a 19-yard scoring strike from Dawson on the next play. Marsalis would then record his second INT of Namath on the Jets final possession to ensure a tightly-contested 13-6 playoff win, sending Kansas City to the AFL's final title game at Oakland.

1969 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 17, Raiders 7

January 4, 1970 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum • 54,444

KANSAS CITY	0	7	7	3	— 17
OAKLAND	7	0	0	0	— 7

On the day the American Football League played the final game of its 10-year history, the Kansas City Chiefs became the AFL's only three-time champion. The Chiefs, through a curious playoff system, played Oakland for the league's last title. The Raiders had won the AFL West and owned a pair of regular season wins over the Chiefs, including a slim 10-6 victory in the regular season finale.

The Raiders, who arrived at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum already packed for a potential trip to Super Bowl IV, suffered the indignity of carrying those suitcases out of the stadium past the Chiefs busses after a 17-7 defeat.

The two clubs managed one first-half touchdown apiece with Oakland's coming on a three-yard run by RB Charlie Smith. Kansas City responded with a one-yard plunge by RB Wendell Hayes after QB Len Dawson had hit on passes of 14 yards to WR Otis Taylor and 41 yards to WR Frank Pitts.

In the third quarter, QB/K George Blanda was wide right on field goals of 39 and 40 yards, attempts that would have moved Oakland in front. Midway through the period, Kansas City began its second TD drive from its own six-yard line. A potential disaster was averted when the Chiefs fell on a fumble at their own two-yard line. On the next play, Dawson and Taylor pulled Kansas City out of the hole with a 35-yard pass play. FB Robert Holmes added 23 more on a flare pass, while a 25-yard pass interference call gave the Chiefs first-and-goal at the three. Holmes plowed in for the go-ahead TD from five yards out on third down, giving the Chiefs a 14-7 advantage.

The game then became a defensive struggle, which played right into Kansas City's hand. Led by defensive charges from the entire front four of DEs Aaron Brown and Jerry Mays and DTs Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp, the Chiefs continually harassed Raiders QB Daryle Lamonica, forcing the Oakland signal caller to throw a trifecta of fourth-quarter interceptions.

K Jan Stenerud came up short on a 52-yard FG to begin the final frame, which would be marked by a myriad of turnovers. S Jim Kearney registered KC's first INT of Lamonica at the Chiefs 18-yard line. Two plays later a Chiefs fumble would put the ball back in the hands of the "Mad Bomber," who was subsequently picked off by CB Jim Marsalis on Oakland's very next snap.

Inexplicably, Kansas City would fumble again two plays later, setting Lamonica up deep in Chiefs territory. But three snaps later CB Emmitt Thomas recorded his second pickoff of the day, ending a third straight Oakland possession with an INT. Thomas returned the ball 62 yards to the Oakland 18-yard line, setting up a 22-yard field goal that provided a 17-7 lead with 4:48 remaining.

Kansas City would actually fumble one more time, but the Silver and Black could not capitalize as the victorious Chiefs would return home to pack bags of their own for New Orleans and Super Bowl IV.

SUPER BOWL IV

Chiefs 23, Vikings 7

MINNESOTA	0	0	7	0	—	7
KANSAS CITY	3	13	7	0	—	23

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon of Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, for the World Championship of pro football.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the N.Y. Jets and Oakland Raiders in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the winningest team in the American Football League, which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in '70, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession behind a fearsome defense that had allowed an average of just 9.5 points per game. But behind QB Len Dawson – who would earn the game's Most Valuable Player Award – the Chiefs would amass more than enough offense to carry the day.

The Chiefs took an early lead when K Jan Stenerud booted a 48-yard first quarter field goal, a kick that remains as the longest field goal in Chiefs postseason history. He would later follow with field goals of 32 and 25 yards to give Kansas City a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when Vikings S Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and G Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Dawson handed off to RB Wendell Hayes, who rambled for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to WR Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the four. Three plays later, RB Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for a five-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City a 16-0 halftime lead and stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when RB Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Taylor, who lived up to his big-play reputation repeatedly through that season. Dawson hit the Chiefs wideout on a short hitch pattern, and when CB Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, high-stepping his way to a 46-yard TD to give the Chiefs a 23-7 lead after three quarters.

As was so often the case in '69, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. LB Willie Lanier picked off a QB Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, S Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. Following the game, Kapp would pay tribute to Kansas City's massive defensive front: "The Chiefs defensive line was very active and looked like a Redwood Forest."

QB Gary Cuozzo would replace Kapp, but suffered similar results. In the game's closing minutes, CB Emmitt Thomas intercepted his fourth pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

MIAMI	0	10	7	7	0	3	—	27
KANSAS CITY	10	0	7	7	0	0	—	24

The longest game in NFL history signaled the end of a glorious era in Chiefs history as Kansas City and Miami dueled for 82:40 in a double-overtime epic on Christmas Day '71. The final game ever played at Municipal Stadium featured 11 future Hall of Fame players, Hall of Fame head coaches Hank Stram and Don Shula, as well as one of the greatest individual efforts in NFL postseason annals by RB Ed Podalak. But in the end it was the Dolphins who prevailed when K Garo Yepremian's 37-yard FG at 7:40 of the second OT gave Miami a 27-24 victory.

Widely regarded as the finest Chiefs team ever assembled – the '69 Super Bowl IV squad included – Kansas City took a 10-0 lead after the first quarter thanks to a 24-yard FG and a seven-yard TD catch by Podolak. But Miami countered with 10 unanswered points to leave the score deadlocked at halftime.

The unquestioned star of the contest was Podolak, who accounted for an NFL-playoff record 350 combined net yards (85 rushing yards, 110 receiving yards and 153 on kick returns). With the score knotted at 17-17 after three quarters, Podalak capped a 91-yard drive with a three-yard TD run to give the Chiefs a 24-17 lead with 6:46 left in regulation. However, a five-yard pass from QB Bob Griese to TE Marv Fleming put the count at 24-24 with 1:25 remaining in regulation.

Podolak almost ended the game with a 78-yard return on the ensuing kickoff, but Miami CB Curtis Johnson maintained his angle to make a touchdown-saving tackle at the 22-yard line. With 35 seconds left, K Jan Stenerud's would-be, game-winning 31-yard FG attempt sailed wide right. Miami could not move the ball on its final possession of regulation, sending the game to its first overtime session.

Kansas City won the toss and after taking a lateral from DT Buck Buchanan, Podolak returned the kickoff to the Chiefs 46-yard line. Four plays later, KC was at the Miami 35-yard line as Stenerud lined up for another attempt at a game-winning kick, this time from 42 yards out. But Stenerud's attempt was blocked by LB Nick Buoniconti, giving the Dolphins new life.

Both teams would exchange punts before a 52-yard FG attempt by Yepremian came up short. The first overtime session would come to a close when Dawson was intercepted by Miami S Jake Scott. The Dolphins took over at their own 46 to start overtime number two, but were smothered by Kansas City's fierce defense.

Miami's defense forced the Chiefs to punt, setting up Griese and the Dolphins for one final drive. RB Larry Csonka broke off a 29-yard run to move Miami into KC territory. Four plays later Yepremian ended the NFL's longest day with his 37-yard game-winner. The Dolphins would eventually advance to Super Bowl VI, while the Chiefs would have to wait 15 years before their next postseason appearance after falling in one of the most storied battles in pro football history.

NEW YORK	7	14	7	7	— 35

Kansas City finished the regular season with a 10-6 record to earn the club's first playoff berth in 15 years, but that adulation would be short-lived. After taking an early lead against the N.Y. Jets, three KC turnovers combined with 135 rushing yards and two scores from New York RB Freeman McNeil led to 28 unanswered points and a 35-15 Jets victory.

The Chiefs only offensive scoring drive of the day came on Kansas City's initial possession when QB Todd Blackledge led Kansas City to paydirt. A pass interference call in the end zone set the stage for a one-yard scoring plunge by RB Jeff Smith. But a missed PAT would begin a downward spiral for the Chiefs, who took a brief 6-0 lead.

Jets head coach Joe Walton then made the biggest call of the game on New York's next drive. Facing fourth-and-six at the Chiefs 33-yard line, Walton kept his offense on the field. QB Pat Ryan faked a pitch to McNeil and took the ball up the gut for a 24-yard gain. Two plays later, McNeil was in the end zone, giving the Jets a lead they would not relinquish.

Disaster would strike on Kansas City's next offensive snap when RB Larry Moriarity had the ball jarred loose after catching a swing pass. LB Kyle Clifton recovered for the Jets. Twelve plays later, a one-yard TD toss to McNeil put the Jets ahead 14-6.

After Kansas City failed to gain a first down on its next two possessions, a 30-yard pass to WR Al Toon put New York in Chiefs territory. Ryan then found Toon kneeling in the end zone for an 11-yard TD on third down to give the Jets a commanding 21-6 advantage with 0:59 left in the second quarter.

New York outgained the Chiefs 191 to 58 after 30 minutes and Kansas City's situation would go from bad to worse on the opening snap of the second half. Blackledge was interecepted by LB Kevin McArthur, who raced down the sideline for a 21-yard score, putting the Jets ahead 28-6 just 13 seconds into the third quarter.

Blackledge would guide the Chiefs to the Jets 15-yard line on Kansas City's next possession, but the club's comeback hopes were effectively over when RB Boyce Green was stuffed on fourth-and-one in the third quarter, turning the ball back over to the Jets.

Kansas City's special teams would account for the club's only touchdown of the second half as CB Albert Lewis blocked a Dave Jennings punt and recovered it in the end zone to close the gap to 28-13. A six-yard Ryan TD pass to TE Billy Griggs made it 35-13 before QB Bill Kenney replaced Blackledge in the fourth quarter. Kenney guided Kansas City inside the Jets 10-yard line twice to no avail.

The Chiefs final points of the afternoon came when Jennings stepped out of the end zone for a self-imposed safety to make the final score 35-15 as Kansas City's hopes expired.

KANSAS CITY	3	7	6	0	— 16
MIAMI	0	3	0	14	— 17

The Chiefs were in control for the majority of their first playoff game since '86, but could not answer a late comeback bid by QB Dan Marino as the Dolphins pulled out a 17-16 victory. Chiefs QB Steve DeBerg – who had guided KC to an 11-5 regular season record – had the club in scoring position, but a 52-yard FG attempt by K Nick Lowery fell just inches short with 0:56 remaining.

Had Kansas City fully capitalized on a number of scoring opportunities earlier in the game, the outcome may have been different. CB Charles Washington blocked a punt on Miami's first possession, setting the Chiefs up at the Dolphins 37-yard line. However, Kansas City would be forced to settle for a 27-yard FG. Miami would answer on its next possession as K Pete Stoyanovich nailed an NFL postseason-record 58-yard FG to even to count at 3-3.

However, Stoyanovich would come up short on a 57-yard attempt later in the second quarter, setting the Chiefs up with good field position. KC capitalized as DeBerg floated a 26-yard scoring aerial to WR Stephone Paige putting the Chiefs ahead 10-7 with 1:54 left in the half. Paige would finish the day with 142 receiving yards, the highest postseason total in team history. Meanwhile, DE Neil Smith – who had 1.5 sacks on the day – preserved the lead by stripping Marino on Miami's next possession.

Kansas City dominated the third quarter, but only managed to extend its lead to 16-3. Poised with second-and-goal at the Miami three-yard line, DeBerg was flagged for intentional grounding and the club settled for a 25-yard FG. S Deron Cherry blasted the ball loose from WR Mark Duper on Miami's next play, giving KC the ball at the Dolphins 29-yard line. But once again, the Chiefs could not strike paydirt and would leave Miami territory with only a 38-yard Lowery FG to show for their efforts.

Marino then began his comeback bid. A 10-play, 66-yard march culminated with a one-yard TD toss to FB Tony Paige as the Dolphins moved the count to 16-10. After a 33-yard connection between DeBerg and WR Emile Harry moved KC back into Miami territory, the Chiefs were forced to punt, setting up the Dolphins go-ahead drive which began with a key, 37-yard pass over the middle to TE Ferrell Edmunds. Marino then capped the march with a six-yard TD pass to WR Mark Clayton that was nearly intercepted by CB Albert Lewis as the Dolphins took their first lead of the game at 17-16 with 3:28 remaining in the fourth quarter.

A 20-yard pass to Paige and a 26-yard run by RB Christian Okoye helped put the Chiefs at the Miami 26-yard at the 2:00 warning. A controversial holding call on G Dave Szott nullified a 12-yard Okoye run on the next play, halting the club's momentum and setting the stage for Lowery's final field goal attempt, which came tantalizingly close to the crossbar.

1991 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 10, Raiders 6

December 28, 1991 • Arrowhead Stadium • 75,827

LOS ANGELES	0	3	3	0	— 6
KANSAS CITY	0	7	0	3	— 10

It took 19 years, but the Chiefs finally had an opportunity to officially christen Arrowhead Stadium with a playoff game. And fittingly, that contest came against Kansas City's most heated rival, the Raiders. The Chiefs had defeated the Raiders 27-21 just six days earlier at the L.A. Coliseum in the season's final regular season game for the right to play at home in the first week of the postseason. Kansas City made the most of that opportunity by recording a 10-6 win over the Raiders, marking the club's first playoff victory since Super Bowl IV.

The Chiefs imparted a familiar recipe for success – solid defense and a bruising ground game. Kansas City's defense forced six turnovers and limited the Silver and Black to just two field goals, while RB Barry Word pummeled the Raiders with 33 carries for a team postseason-record 130 yards.

Word pounded away at the Raiders all day, a trend that began early. Kansas City won the toss and consumed 11:56 off the clock, thanks to a drive that featured 12 runs by Word. The Chiefs drove as deep as the 15-yard line, but K Nick Lowery's 33-yard FG was wide left, leaving the scoreboard empty.

S Deron Cherry registered the first of his two INTs on the game on the Raiders first possession. QB Todd Marinovich would be picked off four times by the KC defense and his first errant throw would give Kansas City possession at the Raiders 24-yard line. But again, Lowery would misfire, this time on a 47-yard FG attempt.

A wild barrage of turnovers then ensued. Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas stripped Marinovich, but QB Steve DeBerg promptly threw an INT on KC's next possession. After a Raiders punt, RB Harvey Williams put the ball on the ground for Kansas City, but Cherry registered another INT which he returned to the 11-yard line. DeBerg would hit WR Fred Jones for the game's only touchdown on the next play as the Chiefs took a 7-0 lead.

Raiders RB Nick Bell finished the game with 107 ground yards and was the club's primary weapon on a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 32-yard K Jeff Jaeger FG that closed the gap to 7-3 just before intermission.

The first half passing numbers for both squads were equally unimpressive. Marinovich completed just three passes for 47 yards, while DeBerg hit on seven passes for 71 yards. Wisely, both clubs turned to the ground game in the second half. The Raiders gave the ball to Bell eight times on their initial possession of the third quarter, but would have to settle for a 26-yard FG to close the gap to 7-6.

Kansas City then capitalized on a Raiders fumble by handing the ball to Word nine times on a 13-play drive that netted an 18-yard FG to make the score 10-6 early in the fourth quarter. The Chiefs would pick off Marinovich on each of the Raiders final two drives to seal the franchise's first-ever home playoff victory.

BUFFALO	7	10	7	13	—	37

Kansas City was coming off its first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV, but that triumph proved quite irrelevant as Buffalo pounded the Chiefs into submission early in a 37-14 win. The Bills raced out to a 17-0 halftime lead and salted the game away behind RBs Thurman Thomas and Kenneth Davis who combined for 41 carries and 175 rushing yards. Defensively, Buffalo picked off back-up QB Marc Vlasic four times and held the Chiefs to just 213 yards of total offense as the Bills marched to their second straight AFC Championship Game.

After both teams traded a pair of punts to open the game, QB Jim Kelly hit a pair of completions to WR Don Beebe to put the Bills in scoring position and then fired a 25-yard pass to WR Andre Reed to give Buffalo a 7-0 advantage. Kansas City caught the game's first break when CB Eric Everett picked off Kelly early in the second quarter. But the Chiefs offense would go three-and-out. Four plays later, Kelly found Reed for a 53-yard scoring strike to make the count 14-0. Despite throwing three INTs himself, Kelly would finish the contest with 273 passing yards and three TDs.

S Deron Cherry picked off Kelly on Buffalo's next possession, but again, the Chiefs could not capitalize. The Bills would tack on a 33-yard K Scott Norwood field goal to end the first half with a 17-0 lead.

The second half wouldn't start much better for Kansas City. RB Harvey Williams fumbled on the club's first snap of the third quarter, but TE Jonathan Hayes would recover. The Chiefs wouldn't be as fortunate on the next play as Vlasic – who entered the game in the second quarter when starting QB Steve DeBerg was knocked out of the game with a hand injury – suffered the first of four second-half interceptions. Buffalo took over on the Chiefs 36-yard line and six plays later Kelly had the Bills ahead 24-0 after finding WR James Lofton for a 10-yard TD.

Vlasic would be picked off again on the Chiefs next drive, but LB Lonnie Marts returned the favor with an interception of his own to give Kansas City a ray of hope late in the third quarter. This time the Chiefs would get on the board as RB Barry Word bulled into the end zone from three yards out to cut the Buffalo margin to 24-7.

Thomas and Davis took it from there as the Bills methodically began grinding down the clock. After a Buffalo FG made it 27-7, Vlasic was picked off twice on his next three attempts. The Bills would turn those two miscues into 10 points as Buffalo took a commanding 37-7 lead with 4:57 left in the game.

Vlasic would hit WR Fred Jones on a 20-yard TD with 2:07 remaining to make it 37-14, but it was too little, too late as Buffalo recovered KC's onside kick attempt and ran out the clock, ending the Chiefs postseason aspirations.

1992 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Chargers 17, Chiefs 0

January 2, 1993 • Jack Murphy Stadium • 58,278

SAN DIEGO	0	0	10	7	—	17

Kansas City had defeated San Diego twice during the '92 regular season. However, that mattered little to the Chargers, who promptly dispatched the Chiefs from the playoffs by a 17-0 margin, marking the only shutout KC has ever suffered in postseason play.

The two sides bludgeoned one another throughout a scoreless first half, but early on it appeared the game may feature its share of offensive fireworks. San Diego QB Stan Humphries hit WR Nate Lewis for a 39-yard gain on the game's first play from scrimmage. Then, after a pair of penalties, the Chargers were knocking on the door. But DE Neil Smith fell on a San Diego fumble at the 13-yard line to halt the scoring threat.

The Chiefs couldn't mount a serious scoring threat in the first half and couldn't move past the San Diego 40-yard line on their first five possessions. The Chargers didn't fare much better with only a fumble, a punt and a missed 52-yard FG to show on three trips into Kansas City territory. Still, San Diego did hold a slight 130-to-122 edge in total yardage heading into the locker room.

Kansas City's offensive struggles continued in the second half, as the club punted on its first two possessions. San Diego then broke the stalemate midway through the third quarter when the team's battering ram – RB Marion Butts – burst into the secondary en route to a 54-yard score, giving the Chargers a 7-0 lead. Butts finished the game with 15 carries for 119 yards.

Things went downhill from there for the Chiefs. On Kansas City's next offensive play, QB Dave Krieg had a pass tipped by DE Blaise Winter. Fellow DE Leslie O'Neal picked off the ball at the Kansas City 29-yard line, setting up a 34-yard FG from K John Carney to give San Diego a 10-0 advantage with 3:33 left in the third quarter.

While Kansas City's defense was good, forcing 5.0 sacks – including 1.5 by LB Derrick Thomas – San Diego's defense was even better, harassing Krieg all day and finishing the game with 7.0 sacks. Krieg got the Chiefs into Chargers territory on each of the next two drives, but was sacked 3.0 times on those two series, stifling any scoring possibilities.

San Diego then delivered an offensive blow on its next possession. Behind a steady diet of RB Eric Bieniemy, the Chargers mounted an 11-play, 91-yard drive that ate 5:32 off the clock. H-back Steve Hendrickson got a rare carry and bulled his way into the end zone from five yards out to give the home team a 17-0 lead with 4:57 left in the fourth quarter.

The knockout punch quickly followed when Chargers DT Shawn Lee stripped Krieg on Kansas City's next possession. San Diego recovered and took over with 3:52 remaining. The Chiefs would get the ball back one last time, but the results were the same as they had been all day as San Diego sacked Krieg one last time and secured a 17-0 victory.

Chiefs 27, Steelers 24 (OT)

January 8, 1994 • Arrowhead Stadium • 74,515

PITTSBURGH	7	10	0	7	0	—	24
KANSAS CITY	7	0	3	14	3	—	27

It took an extra session to settle the score in the initial postseason match-up between Kansas City and Pittsburgh, but the Chiefs would eventually prevail, 27-24. A blocked punt and the last-minute heroics of QB Joe Montana – who was making his first playoff appearance with Kansas City – helped the Chiefs send the game to overtime where K Nick Lowery's 32-yard FG was the difference in the franchise's first OT playoff contest since the '62 AFL Championship Game.

Pittsburgh head coach Bill Cowher had previously served as both a player and assistant coach under Marty Schottenheimer before taking over the fortunes of the Steelers. Early on, the pupil appeared to have the upper hand as Pittsburgh held a 17-7 halftime lead thanks to a pair of TD passes from QB Neil O'Donnell. WR Andre Cooper hauled one in from 10 yards out and WR Ernie Mills caught a 26-yarder with just 0:18 left in the first half.

Kansas City's lone score of the first half came when QB Dave Krieg – who made a brief appearance for an injured Montana – delivered a 23-yard TD completion to WR J.J. Birden in the first quarter. A 23-yard FG in the third quarter would cut the Pittsburgh lead to 17-10, setting the stage for a fantastic finish.

Montana guided the squad on a nine-play, 80-yard drive to open the quarter, culminating with a two-yard TD trot by RB Marcus Allen, who was also making his initial postseason appearance with the Red and Gold. With the score tied at 17-17, O'Donnell answered with a nine-play, 74-yard drive, hitting TE Eric Green for a 22-yard score to put Pittsburgh back ahead with 4:11 left in regulation.

After KC went three-and-out on its next possession, the Steelers had a chance to run out the clock when they got the ball back with 3:00 remaining. However, the Chiefs defense would hold, setting the stage for Kansas City's special teams to swing the momentum back in favor of the home squad. TE Keith Cash swatted down P Mark Royals' punt, which was recovered by WR Fred Jones who returned the ball to the Pittsburgh nine-yard line.

Facing fourth-and-goal from the seven with 1:48 left, the ever-cool Montana found WR Tim Barnett in the back of the end zone to even the count at 24-24. KC's defense would force Pittsburgh three-and-out once again, giving Montana and the Chiefs one final shot in regulation, but a 43-yard FG attempt from Lowery sailed wide right with 0:13 remaining, sending the game to overtime.

Kansas City won the toss, but was unable to move the ball. Pittsburgh got to midfield before it was forced to punt, setting up one final drive by Montana. After starting on their own 20-yard line, KC moved to midfield and was deep in Pittsburgh territory after Montana hit Cash on an 18-yard strike. Five plays later, Lowery took the field on third down and drove the game-winning 32-yard FG through the uprights with 3:57 showing on the clock.

1993 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 28, Oilers 20

January 16, 1994 • Astrodome • 64,011

KANSAS CITY	0	0	7	21	—	28
HOUSTON	10	0	0	10	—	20

Kansas City pulled a huge upset over heavily-favored Houston to advance to its first-ever AFC Championship Game with a 28-20 victory at the Astrodome. The contest marked the Chiefs first road playoff win since claiming a 17-7 triumph at Oakland in the '69 AFL Championship Game.

Houston was the NFL's hottest team heading into the playoffs, owning 11 consecutive wins to close the regular season and showed no signs of cooling down after jumping out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter over the Chiefs. An interception by CB Steve Jackson on KC's first drive set up a 49-yard FG by K Al Del Greco, while an 11-play, 80-yard Oilers scoring march was capped by a two-yard RB Gary Brown TD run.

Houston's defense had proclaimed the Astrodome as "The House of Pain," but it was Kansas City's defense which began to inflict some damage, registering three sacks and forcing three fumbles in the second quarter alone. While the Chiefs offense couldn't capitalize, it would be a sign of things to come. Kansas City finished the game with a team playoff-record 9.0 sacks and seven forced fumbles, including a pair of sacks apiece by CB Albert Lewis, LB Derrick Thomas, S Bennie Thompson and DT Joe Phillips. Thomas and DE Neil Smith each had two forced fumbles, as well.

The Chiefs finally got on the board in the third quarter when QB Joe Montana threw a seven-yard TD pass to TE Keith Cash, who emphatically spiked the ball into a banner bestowed with the likeness of Oilers defensive coordinator Buddy Ryan. But Cash's exclamation point was nothing compared to the mayhem that would ensue in the fourth quarter.

Another interception by Houston led to a 43-yard FG that put the Oilers ahead 13-7. But the Chiefs grabbed their first lead of the day just three plays later with an 11-yard TD catch by WR J.J. Birden. On the Oilers next play from scrimmage, Thomas unleashed his patented sack-and-strip maneuver on Moon with Chiefs DT Dan Saleaumua scooping up the loose ball at the Houston 20-yard line. This time Montana – who finished the contest with 299 yards – found WR Willie Davis for an 18-yard TD to push the Chiefs advantage to 21-13.

But the Oilers wouldn't go away. Moon – who compiled 306 yards on the day – promptly responded with a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Ernest Givins to pull Houston to within 21-20. Kansas City would produce a one-two knockout combination on its next drive. Cash snared a 41-yard pass from Montana on a third-and-one situation from the KC 30-yard line. Then faced with third-and-two at the Houston 21-yard line, RB Marcus Allen burst through the middle of the line for a 21-yard TD dash to make the score 28-20.

A final sack from Thomas would all but seal the Oilers fate as the Chiefs turned "The House of Pain" into a house of horrors for Houston in the final NFL postseason game ever played in the Astrodome.

1993 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Bills 30, Chiefs 13

January 23, 1994 • Rich Stadium • 76,642

KANSAS CITY	6	0	7	0	—	13
BUFFALO	7	13	0	10	—	30

The Chiefs knew that they had to stop the run in order to dethrone the reigning three-time AFC Champion Buffalo Bills on their home turf. Unfortunately, the 229 rushing yards amassed by the Bills provided all that was necessary in a 30-13 AFC Championship Game setback at Rich Stadium. Although the Chiefs were outgained by just 51 yards (389 to 338), they allowed RB Thurman Thomas to gain 186 of Buffalo's 229 rushing yards.

Kansas City was in uncharted territory as the club was playing in its first-ever AFC title game and vying for its first Super Bowl appearance since '69, while the Bills were playing in an unprecedented fourth straight AFC Championship Game.

Neither team's offense was able to move the ball effectively at the start of the first quarter. Midway through the frame, though, Thomas would start to get on track as his easy 12-yard TD scamper gave the Bills a 7-0 lead.

But Kansas City would answer. QB Joe Montana orchestrated a 10-play, 52-yard drive that culminated with a 31-yard FG by K Nick Lowery. S Bennie Thompson then forced Bills WR Russell Copeland to fumble on the ensuing kickoff. WR Fred Jones scooped up the loose ball, setting the stage for another 31-yard FG to cut Buffalo's lead to one as the first quarter came to a close.

The second quarter was all Buffalo as the club scored on three straight possessions, getting a three-yard TD run from Thomas and FGs of 23 and 25 yards from K Steve Christie. The Chiefs had a chance to cut into the lead as the half ended, but a pass by Montana slipped through the hands of FB Kimble Anders, stationed in the end zone, and into the waiting arms of Buffalo S Henry Jones. The Bills took a 20-6 lead into the half as Thomas had already amassed 129 yards on the ground.

The Chiefs got the ball to open the second half, but three plays into the third quarter Montana was slammed to the turf by S Matt Darby and LB Darryl Talley, suffering a concussion on the play. Montana was sidelined for the remainder of a very chilly afternoon as QB Dave Krieg came off the bench.

With 2:58 left in the third quarter, Kansas City shaved the Bills lead to seven points with a 14-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard plunge by RB Marcus Allen. But Buffalo countered with an 18-yard FG and a three-yard TD run by Thomas to make the count 30-13.

Kansas City's last legitimate comeback hope evaporated when Krieg was picked off at the goal line by CB James Williams with 3:23 left. Krieg would get the club as close as the Buffalo one-yard line on the Chiefs final drive, but it would not matter as time expired on Kansas City and its Super Bowl aspirations.

Dolphins 27, Chiefs 17

December 31, 1994 • Joe Robbie Stadium • 67,487

KANSAS CITY	14	3	0	0	— 17
MIAMI	7	10	10	0	— 27

In a game that proved to be the final contest of QB Joe Montana's legendary career, the Chiefs signal-caller provided a dramatic first-half showdown with fellow Western Pennsylvania native, Dolphins QB Dan Marino. But after these two legendary passers dueled to a 17-17 halftime tie, Miami pulled away in the second half behind Marino for a 27-17 victory.

The Chiefs outgained Miami by a 414-to-381 margin in total yardage, but a pair of second-half turnovers and a staunch Dolphins defense was too much to overcome. Neither club was able to mount a substantial pass rush as Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas recorded the game's only sack in his return to his South Florida hometown.

Both quarterbacks were nearly flawless in the first 30 minutes as Montana completed 12 of 15 passes for 178 yards and two TDs, while Marino hit on 14 of 16 attempts for 162 yards and one score as the two squads each scored on their first three possessions.

Montana started the shootout by guiding an exquisite 11-play, 80-yard drive that was capped with a one-yard play-action TD toss to TE Derrick Walker. Marino immediately answered with a nearly-identical, 10-play, 72-yard march that ended with a one-yard plunge by RB Bernie Parmalee to tie the score at 7-7.

KC struck quickly on its next possession as Montana found FB Kimble Anders on a 67-yard screen pass that hit paydirt. The two clubs then traded field goals before Marino produced a monster, 13-play, 80-yard drive that consumed 5:50 off the clock. A one-yard TD pass to TE Ronnie Williams with 0:22 remaining in the second quarter ended an exquisite half of football with the score deadlocked at 17-17.

Marino picked up right where he left off on the opening possession of the second half, putting the Dolphins ahead 24-17 on a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Irving Fryar. But this time the Chiefs and Montana could not answer, going three-and-out on their next two drives. Meanwhile, Miami tacked on a 40-yard FG from K Pete Stoyanovich to go up 27-17.

The Dolphins defense then clamped down in the fourth quarter. CB J.B. Brown picked off a Montana pass in the end zone to thwart a golden scoring opportunity, while S Michael Stewart forced a rare fumble by RB Marcus Allen as KC crossed into Miami territory on its next possession.

Miami was then content to grind it out on the ground, consuming over five minutes off the clock before the Chiefs could regain possession. Montana managed to get Kansas City as close as the Dolphins 19-yard line before his final professional pass fell incomplete on fourth down as he attempted to find WR Willie Davis. He finished the game with 314 yards on 26-of-37 passing with two TDs and one INT, while Marino ended the day by completing 22 of 29 attempts for 257 yards with two TD passes and no INTs.

CHIEFS — D. Walker, 1-yard pass from Montana (Elliott kick) (11-80, 6:28).
DOLPHINS — Parmalee, 1-yard run (Stoyanovich kick) (10-72, 6:12).

1995 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Colts 10, Chiefs 7

INDIANAPOLIS	0	7	3	0	— 10
KANSAS CITY	7	0	0	0	— 7

Frigid conditions, four turnovers and three missed field goals contributed to one of the most shocking upsets in Chiefs history as Kansas City (13-3) suffered a 10-7 loss to Indianapolis (9-7) at Arrowhead.

A kickoff temperature of 11 degrees and a wind chill of -9 seemingly did little to faze the dome-dwelling Colts. Indianapolis didn't lose any of its four fumbles and despite missing two field goals, it still made one when it counted as Kansas City squandered a solid effort from its league-leading scoring defense and 94 rushing yards from Marcus Allen, the fourth-best total in KC playoff history.

The Chiefs got off to a promising start, putting together a five-play, 62-yard TD drive on their third possession of the game. That march culminated with a 20-yard scoring pass from QB Steve Bono to WR Lake Dawson to give Kansas City its only score of the day and a 7-0 lead.

Colts QB Jim Harbaugh then made arguably the biggest play of the game on Indianapolis' next possession. Facing third-and-11 at his own 22-yard line, Harbaugh scrambled for an 18-yard gain. The Colts would convert six times on either third or fourth down on the drive, including a five-yard TD catch by WR Floyd Turner on third down which capped an 18-play, 77-yard drive that ate 8:40 off the clock and tied the count at 7-7.

Indianapolis K Cary Blanchard was short on a 47-yard FG after a KC fumble. Chiefs K Lin Elliott had a shot to put his team ahead with 0:12 left in the first half, but he was wide right from 35 yards out as the contest remained tied at halftime.

Kansas City boasted an NFL-best +12 turnover differential during the regular season and forced its only takeaway of the day when CB Mark Collins picked off Harbaugh. But just two plays later, Bono was intercepted by CB Ashley Ambrose, setting up a 30-yard Blanchard FG to put Indianapolis ahead 10-7 with 2:48 left in the third quarter.

KC's defense kept it close in the final 15 minutes, but it was not enough. Elliott was wide right on a 39-yard FG to open the fourth quarter and Bono was picked off by LB Quentin Coryatt on the Chiefs next possession. KC still appeared to have a shot when Blanchard's 49-yard FG fell short with 5:44 left in the game, but three plays later Bono was picked off by CB Eugene Daniel. However, the Chiefs defense held once again, setting the stage for one final drive with 4:12 remaining in the contest.

QB Rich Gannon came on in relief of Bono and took over at the Chiefs 18-yard line. He methodically moved the club downfield, converting three third downs, including a 14-yard scramble that put Kansas City at the Colts 25-yard line with 0:56 left. Gannon narrowly missed WR Lake Dawson in the end zone on third down, setting the stage for a final field goal attempt by Elliott from 42 yards out. But the kick sailed wide left as Indianapolis claimed a 10-7 victory and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

CHIEFS — Dawson, 20-yard pass from Bono (Elliott kick) (5-62, 2:28).
COLTS — Turner, 5-yard pass from Harbaugh (Blanchard kick) (18-77, 8:40).
COLTS — Blanchard, 30-yard FG (9-35, 4:35).

1997 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Broncos 14, Chiefs 10

January 4, 1998 • Arrowhead Stadium • 76,965

DENVER	0	7	0	7	—	14
KANSAS CITY	0	0	10	0	—	10

The two teams with the AFC's best regular season records squared off as Kansas City (13-3) and Denver (12-4) met for the first time in postseason play. The Chiefs boasted the NFL's top scoring defense (14.5 ppg), while the Broncos owned the league's number one scoring offense (29.5 ppg). But it was Denver that claimed a 14-10 victory in what would be the final contest of RB Marcus Allen's storied Hall of Fame career.

Kansas City outgained Denver by 303 to 272 total yards and held a +2 edge in the turnover column, but an inability to put points on the board in several key situations cost the Chiefs a chance to host the AFC Championship Game. After the two teams battled through a scoreless first quarter, KC appeared to get on the board first, but was flagged for holding on a 34-yard FG by K Pete Stoyanovich, who had missed just one FG during the regular season. However, Stoyanovich's ensuing 44-yard attempt went wide left to leave the count at 0-0.

Denver QB John Elway then marched the Broncos on an eight-play, 65-yard scoring drive that culminated with a one-yard TD run by RB Terrell Davis, who would finish the game with 25 carries for 101 yards. KC could not get back into scoring range, as the Broncos took a 7-0 lead into the intermission.

Chiefs QB Elvis Grbac opened the second half with a 34-yard pass to WR Andre Rison, who finished the day with 110 receiving yards, the third-highest total in Chiefs postseason history. The game's most pivotal sequence would follow. Facing third-and-goal at the Denver three, Grbac connected with rookie TE Tony Gonzalez, who appeared to be forced out of the end zone by Broncos CB Darrien Gordon. However, the play was ruled an incompletion, forcing the Chiefs to settle for a 20-yard FG to cut the gap to 7-3.

With Denver poised at the Kansas City 11-yard line on its next drive, Chiefs DE John Browning forced a fumble by RB Derek Loville to thwart a Broncos scoring opportunity. After both squads exchanged punts, Grbac found WR Joe Horn on a 50-yard strike to set up a 12-yard TD pass to Gonzalez, giving the Chiefs a short-lived 10-7 advantage. However, Davis found paydirt from one-yard out on the Broncos ensuing drive to retake the lead at 14-10.

KC got as deep as the Denver 31-yard line on its next possession and lined up in field goal formation on fourth-and-six, but holder P Louie Aguiar ran with the ball and was tackled three yards short of a first down. Kansas City began its last possession with 4:04 left. Grbac found Rison for a 23-yard gain to move KC to the Broncos 28 with 1:51 left as the Chiefs used their final time out. Facing fourth-and-two at the Denver 20-yard line with 0:19 remaining, Grbac's final pass into the end zone was batted down by Gordon as Denver held on to claim the 14-10 victory.

BRONCOS — T. Davis, 1-yard run (Elam kick) (8-65, 4:51).
CHIEFS — Stoyanovich, 20-yard FG (11-67, 5:18).

2003 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Colts 38, Chiefs 31

January 11, 2004 • Arrowhead Stadium • 79,159

INDIANAPOLIS	14	7	10	7	—	38
KANSAS CITY	3	7	14	7	—	31

The NFL's top two scoring offenses and two of the game's brightest stars battled in an offensive shootout at Arrowhead in which Indianapolis prevailed by a 38-31 margin. RB Priest Holmes finished the game with a Chiefs single-game postseason record 176 rushing yards and tied a club playoff record with two rushing TDs. Colts QB Peyton Manning was just as good, throwing for 304 yards with three scores and posting an impeccable 138.8 rating.

In a game that featured no punts, just one turnover and only five total penalties, Manning's nearly-perfect performance kept the Colts one step ahead of Kansas City all afternoon. It marked just the third time in NFL postseason history that neither team was forced to punt and was the first time it had occurred since the '82 NFL Playoffs. Kansas City would draw within seven points three times in the second half, but Manning always had an answer.

Manning, the NFL's Co-MVP, opened the game with a 29-yard TD pass to WR Brandon Stokley. Kansas City would answer with a 22-yard field goal from Morten Andersen when Holmes was stopped on third-and-goal from the three. However, Manning and company kept the pressure on with an 11-yard TD run from RB Edgerrin James for a 14-3 lead.

The Chiefs rallied back as Green found WR Dante Hall on a nine-yard TD, cutting the deficit to 14-10. However, the Colts put together another impressive march, as Manning again capped it with a two-yard TD strike to FB Tom Lopienski for a 21-10 lead.

The scoring torrent finally abated as the Chiefs failed to score on their final first-half possession, thanks to a 31-yard touchdown that was called back on an offensive pass interference call on TE Tony Gonzalez and a missed 31-yard field goal.

Holmes ripped off a 48-yard dash on the second play of the third quarter, but had the ball ripped loose by CB David Macklin who recovered the fumble at the Colts 22-yard line. Indianapolis would cash the turnover in with a 45-yard FG from K Mike Vanderjagt for a 24-10 lead.

Holmes would exact revenge on the Chiefs next drive as he accounted for 44 yards rushing and a one-yard TD dive. After a Manning-to-Reggie Wayne TD pass boosted the Colts margin to 31-17 late in the third quarter, WR Dante Hall responded by returning the ensuing kickoff 92 yards for his second TD of the game. Hall's 208 kickoff return yards on the day set a Chiefs single-game postseason record and were the third-highest total in NFL postseason history.

Indianapolis would answer with a one-yard TD from James, building an insurmountable 38-24 lead. The Chiefs made it interesting though as Holmes scored on a one-yard TD run with 4:22 remaining to make the score 38-31. But Kansas City's defense couldn't get the ball back until just 0:08 remained on the clock, leaving the Chiefs out of time for a comeback.

2006 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Colts 23, Chiefs 8

January 6, 2007 • RCA Dome • 57,215

KANSAS CITY	0	0	8	0	— 8
INDIANAPOLIS	6	3	7	7	— 23

The Chiefs fell behind 16-0 in an AFC Wild Card contest at Indianapolis and never could find the offensive rhythm to get back into the game, falling by a score of 23-8 at the RCA Dome. The Colts outgained the Chiefs by a 435-to-126 margin in total yards and limited Kansas City to just one-of-11 on third downs.

Despite a valiant defensive effort by Kansas City that held the Colts third-ranked offense out of the end zone for over 40 minutes, Indy shut down the Chiefs offensive attack. The Colts dominated nearly every category of the first half, but KC's defense kept them in the game by forcing three QB Peyton Manning INTs and relinquishing three first-half FGs, instead of TDs.

The Chiefs went three plays and out on each of their six first-half possessions and the Colts capitalized on three of their ensuing drives. On Indianapolis' first drive rookie RB Joseph Addai ripped off runs of 10 and nine yards to set up a 48-yard field goal.

On the Colts second drive Manning and WR Marvin Harrison converted on third-and-eight with a 42-yard pass to the Chiefs 25-yard line. Indianapolis would reach the KC one-yard line, but like they did on the first drive the Chiefs defense forced them to settle for a 19-yard K Adam Vinatieri field goal and a 6-0 lead.

The Chiefs squandered a golden opportunity to take the lead in the second quarter. CB Ty Law – who is no stranger to the playoffs with 13 postseason starts – intercepted Manning for his fifth postseason INT and returned it to the Colts nine-yard line. RB Larry Johnson ran the ball to the two, setting up third-and-goal. However QB Trent Green fell on third down after being stepped on as he pulled from center. Things got worse for Kansas City when K Lawrence Tynes' 23-yard field goal try hit the left upright, leaving the score at 6-0.

Kansas City dodged another bullet when rookie S Jarrad Page picked off Manning at the KC two-yard line with 1:50 left in the first half. However, once again the Chiefs offense couldn't move the ball and the Colts were able to sneak in a third field goal, this time from 50 yards out, to make it 9-0 at intermission.

Manning would throw his third INT of the game on the opening possession of the second half, as Law snared his sixth postseason INT, his fifth career playoff pickoff of Manning. The Chiefs couldn't convert the turnover into points and instead watched Indianapolis rattle off a 12-play, 89-yard TD drive. Manning completed four passes before Addai scored on a six-yard TD run to increase the Colts lead to 16-0.

With 3:38 remaining in the third quarter, the Chiefs finally notched their initial first down of the game on a six-yard pass from Green to TE Tony Gonzalez. That jumpstarted the offense as they would rattle off 60 yards en route to a Green-to-Gonzalez six-yard TD. A successful two-point conversion from Green to TE Kris Wilson cut the Colts lead to 16-8 after three quarters.

The one-possession deficit would not last long however as the Colts engineered a back-breaking, nine-play, 71-yard scoring drive that finished with a Manning-to-WR Reggie Wayne five-yard TD and moved Indianapolis ahead by a 23-8 margin.

The Chiefs still had hope with 4:00 left when they moved the ball to the Indy 26-yard line, but Green was sacked and stripped by DE Robert Mathis. Indianapolis would register its third turnover of the game on Kansas City's final possession, clinching the Colts 23-8 win.

COLTS — Vinatieri, 48-yard field goal (10-39, 4:51).
COLTS — Vinatieri, 19-yard field goal (10-68, 4:57).

2010 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Baltimore 30, Chiefs 7

January 9, 2011 • Arrowhead Stadium • 72,190

BALTIMORE	3	7	13	7	— 30
KANSAS CITY	7	0	0	0	— 7

The Chiefs were within striking distance at halftime, trailing by only a 10-7 margin, but four second-half turnovers doomed Kansas City as Baltimore pulled away for a 30-7 victory. The Chiefs defense registered 4.0 sacks, including 2.0 from LB Tamba Hali.

The Chiefs won the toss, deferred to the second half and kicked off to open the game. Baltimore promptly moved down field and was poised with first and goal at the Chiefs one-yard line, but Kansas City's defense made a goal-line stand, rebuffing the Ravens on three straight plays. QB Joe Flacco's third-down pass was broken up by S Eric Berry, setting up a 19-yard K Billy Cundiff FG that gave Baltimore a 3-0 lead.

Kansas City went three and out on its opening drive. On Baltimore's ensuing possession, Hali recorded a sack and strip of Flacco and jumped on the ball, giving the Chiefs great field position at the Baltimore 46-yard line. Two plays later, RB Jamaal Charles reeled off a 41-yard TD scamper, the longest postseason TD run in team history, to put the Chiefs up 7-3 with 2:09 left in the first quarter.

On Kansas City's next possession, a Charles fumble set up Baltimore at their own 45, but KC's defense held. The teams exchanged punts before Flacco and company again moved into Chiefs territory. A nine-yard TD pass from Flacco to RB Ray Rice put the Ravens up 10-7 with 0:19 left to play before halftime, capping an 11-play, 80-yard scoring drive.

On the third play of the third quarter QB Matt Cassel's pass intended for TE Tony Moeaki was batted into the air and intercepted by S Haruki Nakamura. However, a hustling Charles stripped and recovered the ball at the KC 32-yard line, giving the Chiefs a fresh set of downs.

Kansas City moved the ball to the Baltimore 33-yard line, but Charles was thrown for a four-yard loss on fourth and one. Cundiff knocked through a 29-yard FG on the Ravens ensuing drive, extending their lead to 13-7 with 6:36 left in the third quarter.

Chiefs WR Dexter McCluster fumbled the ball on Kansas City's ensuing possession, setting up Baltimore at the Chiefs 17-yard line. Cundiff connected on another 29-yard FG, putting the Ravens up 16-7 with 4:20 left in the third quarter.

Two plays later, Cassel's pass for Moeaki was intercepted by S Dawan Landry, putting the Ravens at the Kansas City 21-yard line. Flacco then hit WR Anquan Boldin in the back of the end zone for a four-yard TD pass, pushing the Ravens advantage to 23-7.

On the first play of Kansas City's next drive, Cassel fumbled the ball and it was recovered by the Ravens. Head Coach Todd Haley challenged the play and the ruling on the field was overturned to an incomplete pass. The Chiefs were eventually forced to punt. Ravens RB Willis McGahee delivered the game's final score as he broke free for a 25-yard TD, extending Baltimore's lead to 30-7 with 4:26 left in the game.

Kansas City took over at the 40-yard line after the Ravens kickoff went out of bounds. Cassel was sacked twice on the drive and his fourth-down pass was intercepted by CB Josh Wilson at the Baltimore 34-yard line. Baltimore was able to run out the clock to seal the victory.

Only includes starts dating back to '68.*

Regular kicker or punter during that period.*

Notes: The Chiefs All-Time Roster includes all players who were on the active roster for at least one regular season game or playoff contest. It also includes players who accrued at least one season as a member of a reserve or injury list. The one exception to this criteria is RB Stone Johnson, who had his number 33 retired after suffering a fatal injury in a '63 preseason contest. Jersey numbers refer to those numbers worn only in regular season or postseason play.

Notes: No assistant coaches were designated as coordinators during Hank Stram's tenure as head coach from '60-74. The first assistants in Chiefs history to hold the title of coordinator or special teams coach came under head coach Paul Wiggin in '75. Although subsequent staffs did not always specifically denote coordinators, every attempt has been made to indicate the offensive and defensive play-callers if it was an individual other than the head coach. Beginning with Frank Gansz's staff in '87, three separate individuals have carried the titles of offensive and defensive coordinator, as well as special teams coach each subsequent season except for 2009 under Todd Haley.

THE LAMAR HUNT TROPHY

The winning team in the American Football Conference receives the Lamar Hunt Trophy, named in honor of Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Lamar Hunt, the founder of the American Football League and the Kansas City Chiefs. First presented following the 1984 season, the 2010 season marked the debut of its redesign by Tiffany & Co. The new trophy reflects the sterling silver material of the Vince Lombardi Trophy, awarded each year to the Super Bowl champions. The Lamar Hunt Trophy is designed to depict the journey of the playoffs leading into the Super Bowl. The trophy's shape is based on the football shape used on the Vince Lombardi Trophy. It features an etched conference logo and the NFL Shield.

The first overall selection in the '63 AFL Draft, the pick utilized to select Buchanan was acquired in the only trade ever personally orchestrated by Lamar Hunt as the Texans sent QB Cotton Davidson to Oakland … The Raiders later drafted Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw in '67 with the expressed purpose of blocking Buchanan, who became the prototype for future pro defensive linemen ... Combined perfect size (6-7, 270) with outstanding strength and deceptive speed (10.2 in the 100) ... Worked briefly as a defensive end during his rookie campaign before becoming a fixture at right defensive tackle ... Helped Kansas City win two AFL crowns and their only Super Bowl following the '69 season ... Had an eight-year stretch where he either went to the AFL All-Star game or the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl ... Was a unanimous All-AFL pick from '66-69 ... His teammates named him Chiefs MVP in '65 and '67 ... In '67 alone he batted down 16 passes at or behind the line of scrimmage ... Eddie Robinson, the legendary coach at Grambling where Buchanan was an NAIA All-America choice in '62, called him "the finest lineman I've ever seen." ... Played both offensive and defensive tackle at Grambling … Enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in '96 ... Owned All-Pro Construction Company and All-Pro Advertising in Kansas City ... Was captain of both the football and basketball squads at Parker High School in Birmingham, Alabama ... Given name was "Junious," but was known as "Buck" ... BUCK BUCHANAN • 1940-1992

"The first time I met him, I was impressed with his awesome size, speed and agility, but underneath it all, you came away impressed with a tremendous person, a great competitor and a terrific leader. He loved what he represented, his family and the Chiefs."

MACK LEE HILL & DERRICK THOMAS AWARDS

Each year since '66, Chiefs players have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill, an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in '64 and '65. He was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving legs in the early days of the American Football League.

In memory and tribute to Hill, the award is presented annually to the Chiefs rookie or first-year player who, as the inscription on the trophy reads - "best exemplifies the spirit of the late Mack Lee Hill ... the man with the giant heart and the quiet way." In selecting the recipient, the Chiefs veterans look for a first-year player who has displayed the spirit and attitude of Mack Lee Hill.

For the past 28 years the Chiefs have upheld a tradition of selecting the club's Most Valuable Player. Named in honor of the late Derrick Thomas, this Chiefs custom is especially meaningful for its recipients not only because of the man that it is named in honor of, but also because it is selected by a vote of their peers. Thomas was the heart and soul of the Kansas City defense from '89-99.

One of the most popular figures in Chiefs history, Thomas was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2009. A member of the Hall of Fame's NFL All-Decade Team of the '90s, Thomas was the cornerstone around whom the Chiefs franchise was rebuilt.

NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

Willie Lanier (1972) – Following his selection as the '72 Man of the Year, five $4,000 college scholarships were presented in Lanier's name … Was actively involved in a campaign to prevent drug abuse and attended the President's Drug Abuse Council in Washington, D.C. in '71 … "Drugs are one of the worst things that could happen to a potential genius or a mind of someone who could offer a lot to society," Lanier said in '72 … Played a prominent role with the American Cancer Society in Kansas City and was Chairman of a $100,000 capital campaign for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Kansas City … Has awarded over $550,000 in scholarships to Morgan State University and public school students in Richmond, Virginia dating back to '86.

Len Dawson (1973) – Selected by a vote of NFL fans as the '73 Man of the Year … Said Dawson at the time, "If we have the opportunity, we can't turn our backs on people. We can do two things with children – help them or hinder them. I want to help." ... Was actively involved in numerous charitable endeavors, including the March of Dimes and the Missouri Driving Safety Program … Served as the '72 Missouri Chairman for the "I Quit" anti-smoking campaign sponsored by the American Cancer Society … Was also a longtime chairman of the Chiefs Huddle Club which sponsored various youth activities … Every year since '77 he has awarded the "Len Dawson Scholarship" to a Kansas City area high school senior.

Derrick Thomas (1993) – Through his "Third and Long Foundation" helped promote children's literacy in Kansas City … Started an inner-city reading program and read to children at local libraries each Saturday prior to home games … Was designated by President George H.W. Bush as the "832nd point of light" … Also selected as the winner of the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in '95 by the NFL Players Association … Thomas' father Air Force Captain Robert Thomas was shot down on a B-52 mission in Vietnam, leading Thomas to become an avid supporter of veterans and military personnel ... He was the recipient of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall of Fame Award in '99.

Will Shields (2003) – Formed the "Will to Succeed Foundation" with his wife Senia in '93. To date, the foundation has benefited more than 100,000 individuals … Primary foundation benefactors include children's agencies, centers for abused and neglected women and children … The foundation also promotes literacy and creativity initiatives … Was the inaugural winner of Pro Football Weekly's Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian Award in '99 and was named the 2001 NFL Good Guy of the Year by The Sporting News … The Shields are also members of the Mid-America Education Hall of Fame and were the first NFL couple recognized for their charitable efforts by The Citizenship Through Sports Alliance.

Brian Waters (2009) – Four-time Pro Bowler became Kansas City's fifth NFL Man of the Year honoree after forming the "Brian Waters 54 Foundation" in 2004 ... Since its inception, tens of thousands of children and families in the Greater Kansas City area as well as the state of Texas have been positively impacted ... To date, his foundation has awarded 82 college scholarships to low-income students ... His back-to-school program provides backpacks full of school supplies, as well as haircuts, uniforms, shoes, immunizations and dental care, benefitting thousands of children ... The 54 Foundation partners with more than 20 different agencies annually.

USA TODAY ALL-JOE TEAM

The USA Today All-Joe Team takes its name from former Chiefs DT Joe Phillips who played 14 seasons for Kansas City, San Diego, St. Louis and Minnesota before retiring following the '99 season. According to USA Today's Larry Weisman, the All-Joe Team is represented by "hard-working, overlooked, underappreciated players who do the dirty work simply because that's their lot in life."

CHIEFS TELEVISION NETWORK

The Chiefs Television Network is set to broadcast all four Chiefs preseason games to 10 different markets in a five-state region that includes Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Oklahoma. Anchored by KCTV5 in Kansas City, the Chiefs Television Network will broadcast all the club's preseason games in HD.

Trent Green, who handles color commentary on the Chiefs Television Network, concluded his 16-year NFL playing career in 2008 and launched his NFL broadcasting career with FOX Sports in 2009. In six seasons with Kansas City (2001-06), Green established franchise career records for passer rating (87.3), completion percentage (61.94) and 300-yard games (24). A two-time winner of the Derrick Thomas Award as Kansas City's MVP (2003-04), Green threw for 21,459 yards with 118 TDs in a Chiefs uniform, numbers topped only by Hall of Fame QB Len Dawson.

One of the Midwest's most respected and versatile broadcasters, Mike Kelly will handle the play-by-play duties on the Chiefs Television Network. Kelly was named the "Voice of the Missouri Tigers" in '94 after beginning his broadcast duties with Missouri basketball during the '90-91 campaign. In total, the Dupo, Illinois native has called more than 700 Mizzou football and basketball games. Kelly has called NFL and NCAA games for CBS Radio, and also owns experience broadcasting Major League Baseball contests for the St. Louis Cardinals. KCTV5 Sports Director Michael Coleman will report from the sidelines.

CHIEFS ON SPORTS ILLUSTRATED COVERS

The Chiefs have been featured prominently on the cover of Sports Illustrated on 10 different occasions in franchise history. Three of those SI cover appearances came courtesy of Hall of Fame QB Joe Montana, who was acquired in a trade with San Francisco in '93 and eventually guided the Chiefs to an AFC Championship Game appearance that season. Here are some of the highlights of Kansas City's Sports Illustrated cover appearances . . .

Chiefs Paint New York Red (November 24, 1969): Kansas City's initial Sports Illustrated cover shot came during the club's Super Bowl IV season in '69 following a 34-16 win at the N.Y. Jets (11/16/69). While the Jets were defending Super Bowl III champions, New York could not overcome three TD passes from QB Len Dawson to WR Otis Taylor in that contest. The Chiefs later defeated QB Joe Namath and company in the '69 AFL Playoffs in a game that featured a storied goal-line stand by Kansas City's defense.

Len Dawson Engineers Superchief Upset (January 19, 1970): After claiming their third American Football League title, the Chiefs made one final stand for the AFL with a 23-7 victory over the heavily-favored Vikings in Super Bowl IV. Minnesota's "Purple People Eaters" had lost just two games all season, but Chiefs head coach Hank Stram devised the perfect plan to "matriculate the ball down the field." QB Len Dawson – who was named the game's MVP – led an offense which executed the famed "64 Toss Power Trap" to perfection, while the Chiefs defense limited the Vikings to just one score as Kansas City claimed the Lombardi Trophy.

Cool, Joe – Montana Magic Strikes Again (January 24, 1994): QB Joe Montana made his third appearance on the cover of Sports Illustrated as a member of the Chiefs following the club's 28-20 upset win in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game at Houston (1/16/94). Fresh off of a 27-24 OT victory in an AFC Wild Card Game vs. Pittsburgh (1/8/94), the Chiefs earned a berth in their first-ever AFC Championship Game thanks to Montana, who rallied the Chiefs from an early 10-0 deficit against the Oilers. While the Chiefs offense posted 21 points in the fourth quarter, Kansas City's defense registered 7.0 sacks.

Super Bowl XXXI – It's Going to be Kansas City vs. Green Bay (September 2, 1996): The prognosticators at Sports Illustrated were half right when they picked the Chiefs to meet the Packers in Super Bowl XXXI in the publication's '96 preseason issue that featured a fold-out cover. One side featured Chiefs QB Steve Bono, DE Neil Smith and RB Marcus Allen, while the other side depicted Packers WR Robert Brooks, DE Reggie White and QB Brett Favre. Although the Chiefs were coming off a 13-3 campaign in '95, they couldn't replicate that success in '96, finishing the year with a 9-7 record. One of those victories was a 27-20 win vs. Green Bay (11/10/96), but it would be the Packers who would go on to claim the Lombardi Trophy with a triumph in Super Bowl XXXI over New England.

The Chiefs Perfect (So Far) (November 17, 2003): QB Trent Green became the fourth Chiefs signal caller to earn a spot on the cover of Sports Illustrated thanks to Kansas City's 9-0 start to open the 2003 campaign. That nine-game winning streak featured a remarkable run by WR Dante Hall, who produced a kickoff return or punt return for a touchdown in four consecutive games. That victory stretch also was highlighted by Green's performance in a 40-34 OT win at Green Bay (10/12/03). Green led the Chiefs back from a 17-point deficit in the fourth quarter and found WR Eddie Kennison on a 51-yard TD pass in the extra period to provide the game-winning points.

ORIGIN OF THE TERM "SUPER BOWL"

Lamar Hunt left an indelible mark on professional football. While Hunt made many lasting contributions to the game, part of his legacy will be his "accidental" naming of pro football's most important contest, the Super Bowl. As the story has been told and retold over the years, some of the facts have gotten lost along the way. Here are some of the most important elements of the tale in how the Super Bowl got its name...

- After the AFL-NFL merger was announced in June of 1966, Commissioner Pete Rozelle appointed a committee consisting of himself, Lamar Hunt (Kansas City), Tex Schramm (Dallas) and two other owners from each league (AFL & NFL) to firm up the details of the merger agreement.

Pete Rozelle and Lamar Hunt both played pivotal roles in shaping professional football.

- At one of those initial merger meetings, there was a discussion about the date of the game. As the committee discussed the championship game (which ultimately became referenced as the Super Bowl), there was some confusion on whether the parties were discussing the respective AFL and NFL title games or the game between the two leagues. It was then that Hunt first recalled saying, "You know, the last game, the final game . . . the Super Bowl."

- The "inspiration" for Hunt's whimsical suggestion was the high-bouncing "Super Ball" produced by the Wham-O company. Lamar's wife, Norma, had previously purchased one for each of the Hunt children (Lamar, Jr., Clark and Sharron) and the toy had become somewhat of a craze in the Hunt household and many other homes across the country.

- Hunt was later quoted as saying, "Nobody ever said let's make that the name of the game. Far from it, we all agreed it was far too corny to be the name of the new title game."

- In a letter from Hunt to Rozelle on July 25, 1966, Hunt urged the commissioner to "coin a phrase" for the title game between the two leagues. In the letter, Hunt said, "I have kiddingly called it the Super Bowl, which can obviously be improved upon."

- Rozelle agreed with Hunt's suggestion since he had a particular disdain for the term "super." According to longtime NFL executive Don Weiss, Rozelle was a former PR man who had a keen appreciation of grammar. In Rozelle's book, "super" was the equivalent of "gee whiz" or "neat." He believed that the term "Super Bowl" had no sophistication whatsoever.

- Rozelle was initially inclined to call the game the "Pro Bowl," but that moniker was already assigned to the NFL's annual all-star contest.

- In the years leading up to the merger, many members of the media had billed a possible championship match-up between the two rival leagues as a "World Series of Football," but Rozelle clearly did not want to have his game associated with baseball.

- After much consternation and debate, Rozelle eventually dubbed the title contest between the two leagues as "The AFL-NFL World Championship Game." However, Hunt's whimsical, off-the-cuff comment had taken root. In the weeks leading up to the game, headline writers had already adapted Hunt's two-word title over the much more verbose official moniker for the game. The TV networks billed the game as "Super Sunday" and even NFL Films tagged their film reels as being designated for the "Super Bowl."

- After the first two "AFL-NFL World Championship Games," the term "Super Bowl" was officially adopted by Commissioner Rozelle and the NFL. The first game to officially be designated as the Super Bowl at the time it was played was Super Bowl III between the AFL's Jets and the NFL's Colts. The first two championship games were retroactively named Super Bowls I & II.

Hank Stram and Vince Lombardi exchange pleasantries prior to Super Bowl I.
